With the teams now rapidly rounding into shape, the possible cup contenders are looming up. In yesterday's games Delta Tau Delta took a hotly contested battle from Beta Theta Pi by a score of 22 to 15. Alpha Tau Omega beat Delta Theta Phi 13 to 1 in a listless game replete with fouls.

The Delt aggregation kept its record clean when it took the Beta hoop squad into camp yesterday afternoon. The game was a battle royal from start to finish with the Delt finally getting the best of the argument. Larson and Beaver, the Delt forwards, split the high point honors, Larson getting 10 and Beaver 12. Edlund and Obertunfer looked best for the losers.

In perhaps the slowest game that has been played Alpha Tau Omega let Delta Theta Phi down with a 13 to 1 score. Although the A. T. O. squad had the upper hand in the contest at all times, no scoring was done in the first ten minutes of play. By superior passing and floor work, A. T. O. kept the lawyers on the defensive most of the game. Eggleston seemed to be the only man on the winning team who was able to find the basket. He made eight points while Couch's guarding kept the Delta Theta Phi scoring combination out of working order. Chaburn and Williams played the best game for the losers.

The Phi Gamma Delta team played winning ball and took a hard fought contest from Phi Delta Theta 22 to 17. The first half ended 12 to 4 in favor of the Fijis and it looked like an easy victory. In the second half, however, the Phi Delt score machine got to working and chalked up 13 points, but the spurt came too late to do much damage. Wright, of the Phi Delt, was high point man with 12 points. Altstock and Schaefer were the best bets for the winners, making eight and six points respectively.

The games scheduled for today are: Phi Sigma Pi vs. Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 4 o'clock.

Sigma Chi vs. Oregon club No. 2, 5 o'clock.

Chi Psi vs. Bachelorlon, 7 o'clock.

Kappa Sigma vs. Friendly hall, 8 o'clock.

CATHOLICS ON CAMPUS TO PUBLISH QUARTERLY

Four-Page Paper Will be Issued by Newman Club; Phil Brogan to be Editor-in-chief

The Apologia, a quarterly paper, issued by the Newman club, will be published by the Catholic students majoring in journalism. The paper will be a four-page sheet and will contain news of the club activities and of the individual members. Phil Brogan, junior in journalism, has been appointed editor-in-chief.

According to present plans not only the members of the club will receive the paper but copies will also be sent to the students' parents, thus forming a connecting link between the school and the home.

The paper is named after one of the most famous of the literary works of Cardinal Newman, after whom the club is named. The name was suggested by Father O'Hara, parish priest of Eugene, who is sponsor for the enterprise.

The first issue of the paper will appear about the end of this month. The following staff has been appointed to assist Editor Brogan: Associate editor, Dan Lyons; manager, Margaret Sheridan; news editor, Dottie Crummett; literary editors, Freda Goodrich and Rosalia Keber; circulation manager, Patrick Morrisette.

SWINGERS OF PADDLES TO UNLIMBER ON FROSH

Five Wearers of Green Caps Will Bend Before Powers That be on Library Steps This Morning

Ye wearers of the diminutive green cap, ye wearers of the carved and tattered rimmed caps, ye hello-less creatures who have invoked the wrath of the mighty—Bend over—hold your ankles—shut your eyes and grit your teeth. All through the past week, all wearers of the 'O' from the petite swinger of the tennis racquet, to the husky hurler of the shot have been limbering up their arms preparatory to the chastisement to be administered this morning. Proceedings will take place and proceed in front of the library. The following frosh will report—pillows and other kinds of padding are strictly taboo. H. Atkins, Harold Elsenhorne, S. Sumption, Cylbert McCellan and Lewis Skirvin.

ARMAMENT IRVINE'S TOPIC

writes in a recent issue of the paper: "And while we bury the bodies of our soldier dead, and pinch ourselves to get money to pay our war taxes, is it not likely that it would be a good thing for us to enter into agreements with other nations to limit armaments?"

Y. M. FINDS NEW ACTIVITY

Students Supplied as Guests in Town Homes; Better Relations Established

The people of Eugene and the surrounding country are taking a greater interest in the University students this year than before, if the requests for students to make week-end visits may be taken as a criterion. Mrs. Donnelly, hut mother of the University Y. M. C. A., has received quite a few requests the last several weeks for students to take Sunday dinner with some of the people of the town, and in a few cases residents of Coburg and other nearby towns have even driven in for their prospective guests.

Supplying students to fill these requests is a new use for the Y. M. C. A., and Mrs. Donnelly is very much pleased that she has an opportunity to assist in establishing better relations between the townspeople and the University students.

BRITISH CONSUL TO SPEAK

John Trant to Address Foreign Trade And Commerce Students

This afternoon at 2 o'clock, in room 105 of the commerce building, John B. Trant, British consul at Portland, will address the foreign trade students in the school of business administration.

All students in foreign trade must attend the lecture, classes in this subject being dismissed for that hour. All other commerce majors are invited to come to hear the consul as well as anyone else who wishes to attend. Mr. Trant has made special request that all students from British colonies or dependencies come to the lecture in order that he may meet them.

For several years Mr. Trant was British consul at Boston and he has had great opportunity to study the foreign trade question. He is the first of a series of like officials which the school of business administration plans to bring to the campus.
