SIXTY-PIECE BAND TO PLAY

Bartholomew last night. "The importance of the band cannot be over-emphasized."

The matter of uniforms has been decided upon and band members will appear in blue v-necked sweaters, uniform trousers with wrapped leggings and Oregon rooster caps. "In order to carry out the uniform idea, it is necessary that we secure as many of these blue sweaters as possible," said Captain Lewis yesterday, "and we hope that men owning these sweaters will be willing to loan them to band members for the day."

A special appeal has been made to upperclassmen to take part in the band, and it is reported that a number will be on hand to assist. The last rehearsal will be held at the R. O. T. C. barracks this morning at 11 o'clock. The members are requested to meet at the barracks at 6:30 tonight to play in the rally parade. Trucks have been provided for them to ride in.

The members will then gather at 11 o'clock Saturday morning at the barracks to take part in the day's program. A special reserved section has been provided for them at the game.
