

MUSICIANS GIVE SUNDAY HOMECOMING CONCERT

Gertrude Hoerber and Frank Jue are Among Entertainers

Students and visiting musicians were featured in the Homecoming concert arranged by Reuben Goffreiere, student in the school of music, for Sunday afternoon in Alumni hall. Gertrude Hoerber, Ellison-White musician, Frank Jue, student at the University of Oregon medical school in Portland, and Helen Harper, Ralph Hoerber and Reuben Goffreiere, all students on the campus here, gave numbers on the program.

Miss Hoerber, who has made a name for herself on the chautauqua platform, gave two groups, one of songs and the other of violin solos. In the aria, "In the Darktown Forest," from the opera "Paul and Virginia" she displayed her dramatic ability and finished skill. "My Lady," written by Francis Richter and dedicated to Miss Hoerber, was well received. Fire and artistic brilliancy characterized her violin numbers.

Frank Jue, tenor, who has been popular as a soloist during his years on the Oregon campus, sang an operatic selection from "La Tosca," "Puccini" and three art songs. Jue delighted his hearers with his rich clear voice and his humor.

The first three numbers on the program consisted of a group of violin, cello and piano, played by Helen Harper, Ralph Hoerber and Mr. Goffreiere. Miss Harper interprets well and shows much promise. Besides these Mr. Goffreiere gave several pleasing numbers by McDowell with his usual skill.

The list of composers chosen made up one of the most representative programs heard on the campus this season. Patrons and patronesses were: President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Dean and Mrs. Colin V. Dymont, Dean Elizabeth F. Fox, Mrs. Jane Thacher, Madame Rose McGrew, Miss Gertrude Talbot, Miss Helen Broeksmit and Rex Underwood.

Y. M. AND Y. W. PLAN PARTY

Affair for Thanksgiving "Left-overs" Booked for "Y" Hut Friday Night

"Left overs" during Thanksgiving vacation are invited to attend a party to be put on at the "Y" hut on Friday evening, a 8 o'clock by the Y. M. and Y. W. One was staged last Thanksgiving vacation, which was very successful, and the joint committee of the two campus organizations, which will plan the affair for Friday night, promises an even better time this year. It is the aim of the two associations to make this an annual event, and put it on the list with the mix held every fall.

There are always a number of students whose homes are too far distant to allow them to go home for the annual feast day, and this year it looks as if the aggregation, which will not leave the campus to sit at the parental board, will be even larger. With the idea in mind of helping to provide entertainment during the four days vacation, the two associations are planning the party for Friday night, and hope that all left-overs will come.
