

CHURCH WORKERS WILL HOLD CAMPUS MEETING

Bungalow Scene of Gathering Today and Wednesday

The second annual denominational vocational conference under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. will be held at the Y. W. bungalow on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. A representative from each denomination will present the opportunities in her denomination for life service.

At least three out of town speakers Four out of town Speakers will be present, Mrs. Charles A. Bowen, of Raymond, Washington, representing student work in this district of the Methodist church, Mrs. Edger Burton of Centralia, Washington, representing the Baptist church board; Miss Katherine Burnside of Portland, Oregon, who will speak as Presbyterian church representative, and Mrs. W. E. Rambo, representing the Christian church.

The conference will not be distinctly denominational but the work will be coordinated so that it will present Christian work in all phases as a life vocation.

The first session of the conference will be an open meeting of the Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday at 5 o'clock. The tentative program includes opportunities for conference with each representative on Wednesday with a get-together at luncheon or tea, the definite plans to be announced later.

Mrs. Burton and Mrs. Brown will be guests at Susan Campbell hall during their stay on the campus. Miss Burnside will be a guest at the Kappa house, of which sorority she is a member. After their visit here the representatives are going to Corvallis where a similar conference will be held.

Arrangements are in charge of the church co-operation committee, of which Mary Parkinson is chairman.

WINGED M PUT TO FLIGHT BY OREGON SCORE IS 21 TO 7

While the victory over the clubmen does not count in the conference standings it did prove a brilliant ending to a season which started so adversely for the varsity. Moreover that 21-7 win over the strongest team that Multnomah has boasted in years convinced football followers that Oregon furnished the season with a real grid machine—a machine built from a hopeless fighting mob to a formidable squad that might well be feared by any eleven in the country.

"Oregon Fight" Makes Tie Games Tie games were Oregon's long suit, three times the Lemon-Yellow fought its way to a draw, each time they were scheduled to lose by the forecasters of football results. The dopesters were eager to prove the validity of statistics but each time "Oregon Fight" came to the rescue and though Oregon couldn't win, either because they were outplayed or because the breaks of football luck were against them, the varsity fought them off their feet in those disputed contests and battled to tie scores.

Two games yet remain on the schedule to be played during the holidays in Hawaii, one with the University of Hawaii and the other with an all star team yet to be selected. There is little hope on the relative merits of the teams on which to base a prediction but from the way Shy's men forward passed at Portland last Thursday on a wet field, the dry field that will be available at Hawaii should prove a Mecca for a team as well versed in the aerial attack as Huntington's proteges have shown themselves.

Summary of Multnomah Game
The lineup and summary of Thursday's game follows:

The lineup:
Oregon (21)— Multnomah (7)—
Laughlin C. Blackwell

Oregana Calls for Photographs at Earliest Possible Moment

The Oregana requests that all members of organizations have their pictures taken at once for the 1922 book. "It is imperative that all pictures be taken before the end of the term," said Inez King. "The actual makeup of copy will begin the first of the winter term and therefore all material must be in the hands of the staff before that time."

Three doughnut basketball games were played yesterday resulting in victories for A. T. O., Oregon Club No. 2, and Sigma Chi.

The A. T. O. win was over the Betas, eight to six, with poor shooting on both sides. The fast Oregon Club No. 2 downed Chi Psi lodge, 26 to 15 in a fairly hard fought contest, while Sigma Chi beat Phi Sigma Pi, 10 to 7, in a very closely contested fight.

Tonight Kappa Theta Chi battle Kappa Sigma in what will probably be a interesting battle. Sigma Nu and Phi Delt will also fight it out and Delta Theta Phi and Oregon Club No. 1 will also play. Delta Tau Delta plays S. A. E. as the final game of the evening.

DR. KOHS HERE TONIGHT

Psychologist to Discuss Fundamental Notions in Mental Hygiene

"Some Fundamental Notions in Mental Hygiene," is the subject which Dr. C. S. Kohs, psychologist of the court of domestic relations in Portland will discuss at the meeting of the Hawthorne club tonight in the Woman's building.

Applications will be made to the problems of gifted and supernatural children. Problems of sex hygiene will be discussed and Dr. Kohs will relate some of his experiences in conducting army psychological tests and some of the conclusions that he has reached as a result of those tests. The meeting will be open to any who are interested.
