Kappa Sigma won from Kappa Theta Chi 27 to 10, Phi Delta Theta defeated Sigma Nu 20 to 10, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon took a close game from Delta Tau Delta 23 to 21.

The game between Kappa Sigma and Kappa Theta Chi was not as close as was expected, and the Kappa Sigs took the lead early in the contest and increased it steadily as the game progressed. Bliss and Roekhey starred for the winners with Harding showing up well for Kappa Theta Chi.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon jumped into the lead early in the game with the Delta Tau team, and held it until toward the end of the second half, when the Deltas staged a strong comeback and tied the score. The S. A. E. team shot the winning basket just before the whistle blew. King played well for S. A. E., while Smith and Gowans were the best on the Delt squad.

Phi Delta Theta in the third game played won from Sigma Nu 20 to 10. The game was slow throughout with the Phi Deltas having a slight edge. Alm played fast ball for the Phi Deltas while Dudley scored oftenest for Sigma Nu.

Games for Wednesday are:
Phi Gamma Delta vs. Oregon Club No. 2 at 4 o'clock.

Phi Sigma Pi vs. Bachelordon at 5 o'clock.

Sigma Chi vs. Sigma Nu at 7:45 o'clock.

VOCATIONAL CONFERENCE ON CAMPUS ENDS TODAY

Teas and "Get-Togethers" Will Enable Girls to Meet Representatives Personally this Afternoon

The first session of the second annual vocational conference, which is being held on the campus on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, was held at the Bungalow yesterday afternoon at five o'clock. Miss Kathryn Burnside, student secretary, who worked in Eastern industrial plants during the war, told of the opportunities open to college women in the home missionary field. The need for trained workers in China was stressed by Mrs. Charles A. Bowen, who represents student work in the Methodist church. Mrs. Bowen has spent many years in China as a missionary. "Christian Leadership" was the topic which Mrs. W. E. Rambo of the Christian church choose for her message and she told stories of her experiences in Armenia and Turkey working with the Near East Relief. Opportunities for conferences with each representative will be given today at the different teas and "get-togethers" which are being held. The Baptist girls are asked to meet Mrs. Ecker Burton at a tea given at Miss Ethel Sanborn's home at 670 E. 12th street from 4:15 to 5:30 p. m. Mrs. Sanderson is giving a tea for Mrs. Rambo and the girls of the Christian church in her home at 815 E. 12th street. Mrs. Bowen will meet the Methodist girls at a tea at Mrs. A. C. Dixon's home at 633 East 11th street.
