577 MOVIES SENT OUT IN YEAR BY FILM BUREAU

Pictures are Helpful for Education and Amusement; Campus Cinema Soon to be Released

From "A Cup of Tea" to "Modern Explosives," from the "Grape Juice Industry" to "Protecting the Sole-Hosiery" range the titles included in the free movie films sent out in the past year by the Bureau of Visual Instruction of the University, to communities in the state for educational purposes.

According to statistics recently compiled by the division, 577 showings of films have been given with over 100,000 people viewing them. Community centers have had 238 showings of the films, while schools, churches, Y. W. C. A.'s and Y. M. C. A.'s have shown the remainder.

Amusement is only incidentally the purpose of the films, education being its main purpose. Not only are industrial subjects included in the listings of the films, but also scenic films, films of the war, and those concerning health. A few special films have been included in the group, some of them being dramatizations of poems and pieces of literature. The length of the movies ranges from one to seven reels. The movies taken last spring of events on the campus on Junior Week-end is being completed here and will soon be ready for release, according to Mr. Powers of the extension division.

SATURDAY CLASSES URGED AS SOLUTION

student must earn at least half of the required hours during his first two years of residence in the University."

3. "That the present rules regarding amount of work to be carried by a student be amended by striking out all references to physical training (i.e., 'plus required physical training,' etc.) and changing the word 'thirteen' to 'fourteen' in the University regulations."

Would Change Hour Limit

A more radical change than this will be presented by Carlton Spencer, registrar, who will propose that the limitations of hours be 14 to 19 with the provision that an average grade of three must be made or but 16 hour credits will be allowed. Dr. Caswell expressed himself as in favor of Mr. Spencer's proposal.

Recommendation No. 4 follows: "That male students be permitted to substitute the three term course in Individual hygiene for one of the required year courses in Physical Education."

The recommendations as regard to the scheduling of classes are as follows:

For Even Distribution

1. That classes be scheduled so as to distribute them as uniformly as possible over the four morning hours for all six days of the week.

2. That the maximum opportunity for laboratory work be provided in the forenoons with minimum interference with lectures and recitations.

3. That afternoon hours be utilized as much as possible for classes taken principally by students having little laboratory work.

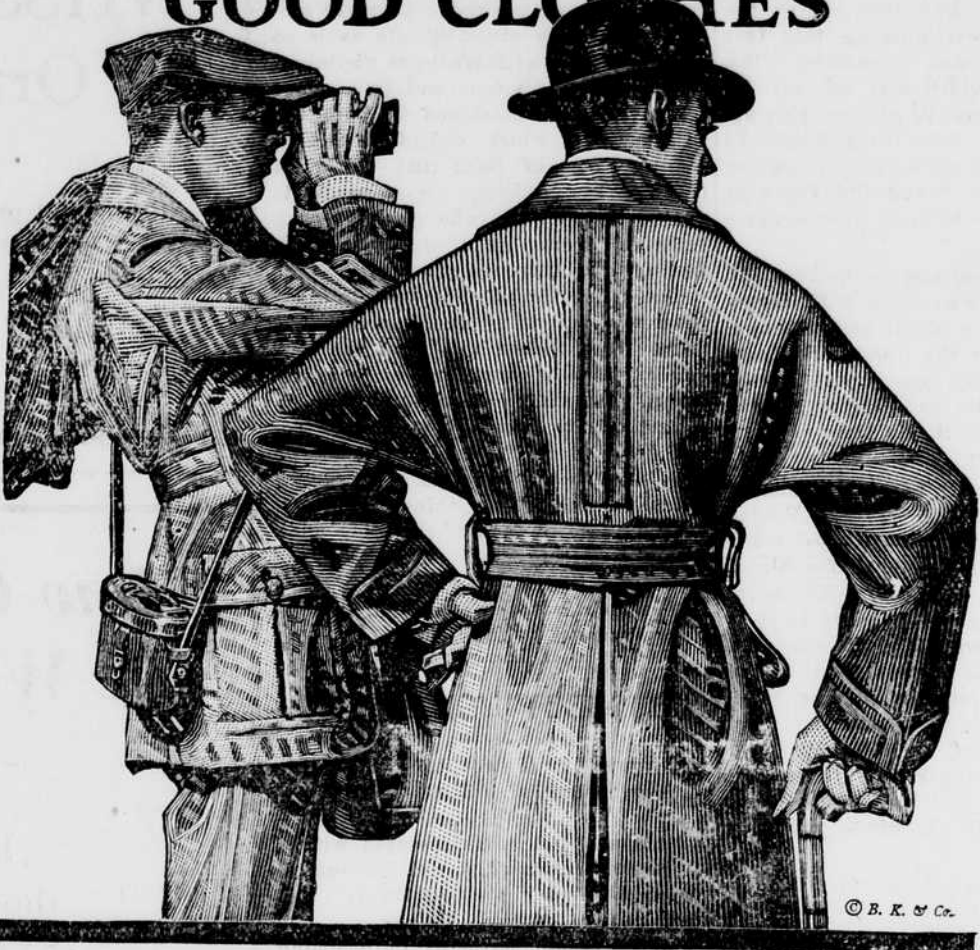

"The aim of the committee has been to improve the schedule of student courses," said Dr. Caswell yesterday.

Glasses for the Old Folks

Very elderly people have the most time for reading and close work, but unfortunately their eyes are often neglected. With glasses exactly right they might get more pleasure out of life. Let me examine their eyes. Perhaps new lenses in their old frames is all that is needed. The expense may be much less than you imagine.
