

VESPERS WELL ATTENDED

GOUNOD'S MASS OF ST. CECELIA
AT METHODIST CHURCH

Madame McGrew, Erwyn Mutch and John B. Seifert, Soloists; Evans
Wins Praise as Conductor

An audience of fully 3000 people filled every available space in the Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon and enjoyed the privilege of listening to Gounod's St. Cecilia Mass as given by the University of Oregon Vesper Choir under the direction of John Stark Evans.

Madame Rose McGrew, John B. Seifert, both of the University school of music, and J. Erwyn Mutch of Portland were the soloists.

This difficult composition was magnificently given. The ensemble effects were tremendously impressive and the resilience of the fresh voices of the choir charmed every listener.

The Gloria and the Sanctus were particularly effective. The trio in the Gloria as well as the three solos stood out as eminently worthy of rare praise. Madame McGrew was in splendid voice and her tones were delightfully clear and beautiful. Mr. Seifert sang with ease and charm so characteristic of his work. The baritone solo brought out the splendid rich quality of Mr. Mutch's voice.

Each part of the mass was distinctive and beautiful and the excellent points could be dwelt upon at length. Particularly noteworthy was the dignity and impressiveness of the entire service. One was conscious of a masterly handling of the details of all the musical phases in the mass.

Mr. Evans is an inspired conductor of discrimination and musical judgement and is to be commended for this splendid piece of work. The whole was an artistic triumph worthy of exceptional commendation.

OREGON IS REPRESENTED

Lawrence Leaves for Ames to Attend
Sigma Delta Chi Conclave

Raymond Lawrence left Sunday night for Ames, Iowa, to attend the national conclave of Sigma Delta Chi, national honorary journalism fraternity, which is being held December 8, 9, and 10. Iowa State College is host for the delegates at this time.

Lawrence, who is a senior in the school of journalism, is president of the Oregon chapter. In addition to the regular business of the convention there will be discussions of newspaper policy and of the part which should be played by Sigma Delta Chi on the campus. The delegates will be entertained by the various fraternities on the Ames campus and will be guests at a dance given by Theta Sigma Phi in their honor.

DEBATERS MEET O. A. C.

bate circles.

O. A. C. will meet the Reed College negative team at Corvallis. As yet only one judge has been secured to referee the debate. He is Frank H. Hilton, a lawyer, of Portland. Judge McCork has been asked to render his decision in the contest here, but word was received from him last Friday that he cannot come because of a session of the superior court. A telegram had been sent out Friday night, in an effort to secure two more judges, but as yet no reply has been received.

The debate is scheduled for 8:15 p. m. No admission will be charged.

The S. A. E. won another game last night from the A. T. O.'s, Kappa Sigma defeated the Deltas 36 to 13, and Oregon No. 1 won from Oregon No. 2 by a score of 26 to 2.

The S. A. E. quintet played a tie game with the A. T. O.'s, but in five minutes overtime King succeeded in putting a long one through the hoop winning the game for the S. A. E.'s 23 to 21. The game was fast with good passing by both sides. Couch and Brocker starred for A. T. O., while Crandell and Moore played well for S. A. E.

The Deltas met their Waterloo at the hands of the Kappa Sigs, when the latter walked away from them in a fast game 36 to 13. The Kappa Sigs played a fast passing and accurate shooting game that the Deltas were unable to fathom. Burnett and Rockhey for the winners starred while Beaver showed up best for the Deltas.

The two Oregon clubs met in the game last night about even as far as dope was concerned, but Oregon No. 1 swamped No. 2 under a 26 to 2 score. The No. 2 team never had a point till near the end of the second half when Meyers succeeded in dropping in a marker. Yost and Murry for No. 1 starred, while Meyers made the 2 points for No. 2.

There will be no Varsity practice tonight, but all Freshmen are called out for 8:30 sharp.

FANS ARE SURPRISED

69 yards from scrimmage.

Killenger, quarter for the invaders and a popular choice in the east for the All-American team put on a little competition with his team mate Redinger as to who could register the largest number of ball carrying yards on their pedometers when the hostilities had ceased. Killenger won but he had to garner 165 of the three foot markers from scrimmage to do it for friend Redinger was right on his heels with 160. Again we must remark, some yards.

While all of the above was going on in Seattle the old dope retainer was getting an awful pounding to the south. At Portland the winged M insisted on upsetting the honest figures of the statisticians by walloping the Pacific Fleet 10-7. Incidentally Bill Steers was among those officiating for Multnomah. While all this was going on in the Rose City, things were a little less rosy for northern fans at the Tournament of Roses Park in Pasadena. For U. S. C. who seems to have a marked aversion for northern teams was walloping the Pullman eleven. The dope got an awful churning in that battle too for the Trojans tore fur from the Cougars till they got enough at 28-7. And then somebody says that Southern California isn't fast enough to play in the conference.

GILBERT SPEAKS TONIGHT

"Financial Aspects of Armaments"
Topic at Y. Hut, 7:30

If we scrap our navy what will become of the gobs of gobs?
Will they become land lubbers or grand grubbers?

If there were no taxes for navies what would be the use of a study of economics?

Dr. J. H. (Jimmy) Gilbert, campus humorist, in his more serious mood yesterday afternoon, divulged the secret that such questions would occupy his keenest analytical ability in his discussion of the "Financial Aspects of Armaments and War," this evening, Tuesday, at 7:30, in the Y hut.
