

MISS DINSDALE WRITES OF 'Y' WORK IN URUGUAY

South American Clubs Show Marked Progress

A long letter postmarked Montevideo, Uruguay, has been received at the Y. W. bungalow from Miss Tirza Dinsdale, who was the campus secretary last year. Miss Dinsdale is stationed in Montevideo, which is the headquarters of the Y. W. C. A. work in South America. Her work, as soon as she masters the language, will be in a South American university center.

The letter tells of an interesting 17-day trip from New York on the "Southern Cross," an American Shipping board boat making its maiden voyage. A twenty-four hour stop was made in Rio de Janeiro where Miss Dinsdale viewed the work that is being done by the association there.

Montevideo Buildings Praised
Miss Dinsdale attended the annual Y. W. C. A. meeting held in Buenos Aires and reports that she was happily surprised at the progress of the work the association is doing in the cities she has visited. "In a country where woman's work is so new, one expects to find the first years of work move very slowly but here are splendid gymnasium classes, educational departments, cafeterias and boarding houses and some fine club work."

Describing her first impressions of the country Miss Dinsdale said, "One is scarcely prepared to find these countries so alive to many of the progressive things of the world and in others so far behind. For instance, here in Uruguay, there are some very excellent laws as regards industry, and on the other hand, the duel is lawful and every month there are some deaths due to dueling."

Buenos Aires Meeting Attended
Miss Dinsdale writes that Montevideo has fine public buildings, school buildings and state institutions and that the penitentiary located there is considered one of the models of the world; that the little republic of Uruguay has forty well equipped playgrounds but needs more physical education directors.

"Spring has just come here and the flowers are wonderful," said Miss Dinsdale in telling of the beauties of South America.

MU PHI WILL PLAN MUSICAL
Mu Phi Epsilon will hold its monthly meeting on Saturday afternoon. Plans will then be made for the annual musical, which is given yearly at assembly for the entire University. January 19, is the date set for the concert. Although the details of the program have not been worked out, it is announced that there will be some double quartet work, instrumental and piano selections, and vocal solos.

Old Joe Jinx must have worked against Beta Theta Pi in their game against Phi Delta Theta, for although numerous chances were offered, the Betas did not get a single point in the first half while the Deltas tossed in 20 in the same period, final score 30-12. The Deltas ran in subs in the second half, while the Betas staged a slight comeback with 12 points to their credit. Wright, responsible for 14 points, starred for the winners, while Phillips tossed in two baskets for the losers.

Kappa Theta Chi won by a comfortable margin from Bachelordon, score 26-14. Rice and Harding for the winners and Harding for Bachelordon played stellar ball.

Oregon Club No. 1 established a record for high scores when they fell just short of the half century mark in their defeat of Phi Sigma Pi, score 49-10. Murray and Fraser divided 31 points between them for the winners while Hadsell and Young made eight of the points for the losers.

Games for tomorrow are:
Kappa Sigma vs. Oregon Club No. 2 at 4 p. m.
Alpha Tau Omega vs. Phi Gamma Delta at 5 p. m.
