

PORTLAND CRITICS LAUD JOHN B. SIEFERT CONCERT

Program Before MacDowell
Club Musical Triumph

"Taking the Portland musical world by storm" is indeed an unusual feat, but that is precisely what music critics say of the concert given by John B. Siefert of the University school of music, before the Mac Dowell club of Portland last Tuesday evening. The concert was given in the ball room of the Multnomah hotel and was without doubt one of the musical triumphs of the season.

Mr. Siefert was accompanied by Leonard A. Coon, also of the University school of music and his sympathetic accompanying, together with Mr. Siefert's excellent voice and interpretation, combined to make one of the most successful concerts that has been given in Oregon in many years, according to Portland music lovers.

Tribute Given Singer
The Portland Oregonian of last Sunday, likened Mr. Siefert's voice to that of John McCormick and his appearance on Tuesday in every way fulfilled expectations. The MacDowell club is composed of some of the most representative musicians and critics in the state and their approval of Mr. Siefert is a tribute indeed. Such discriminating criticism would be greatly appreciated by any artist and considering that it was Mr. Siefert's first appearance before the club, his success was a most eloquent tribute to his artistic ability.

One well known critic said: "It is a long time since I have heard a real tenor and this concert was indeed a treat." A lady who recently came to Portland from the east said that she had decided to discontinue her musical studies but upon hearing Mr. Siefert immediately arranged to study with him.

The Program

The program as given by Mr. Siefert and Mr. Coon is as follows:
Tre Giorni Son Che Nina ... Pergolesi
Where'er You Walk (Semele) ... Handel
Care Selve (Atalanta) ... Handel
Chant Hindou ... Bomberg

OREGON CLUB DEFEATS GAMMA PHI 14 TO 12

Winners in League 1 and 2 to Play
For Championship of Doughnut
Series Saturday

Oregon Club won their last game of the series yesterday by defeating Gamma Phi Beta 14 to 12, and Tri Delt won from Kappa Alpha Theta by a score of 20 to 7.

Oregon Club's victory over the Gamma Phi team leaves them champions in League 1 and entitles them to play in the final game with the winners of League 2, which has been scheduled for Saturday afternoon. This afternoon Hendricks Hall meets Susan Campbell in their last game and in the event that the Susan Campbell team takes the game there will be a three corner tie in League 2 which will have to be played off before the final game. If Hendricks Hall wins she will play Oregon Club Saturday afternoon.

Besides the Hendricks Hall Susan Campbell game this afternoon Kappa Kappa Gamma will play Pi Beta Phi.

SOCIOLOGIST WILL COME

Dr. Devine, Associate Editor of Survey, on Portland Summer Faculty

Dr. Edward T. Devine, sociologist, associate editor of "The Survey" and for years a member of the faculty of Columbia university, will be on the faculty of the Portland center of the University of Oregon for this year's summer term, according to the announcement given out by Dean George Rebec of the graduate school. Dr. Devine will conduct courses on problems and trends in Industrial Relations.

He has lectured widely on economic and social subjects and was in Eugene the last time in 1919. He was a special representative of the Red Cross in Russia before the war and was director of the relief work in San Francisco at the time of the disaster in 1906.

Dr. Devine is founder of the New York school of Philanthropy and was for many years secretary of the Charities Organization society in New York. He helped to organize the sociology work in the University of Oregon school in Portland.

FOREIGN STUDENTS FORM ACTIVITY COMMITTEE AT Y

Object is to Encourage Recreation
Among Students From Abroad;
Ten Nations Represented

Co-operation of foreign students in the social and physical, as well as intellectual sides of education, is the aim of a committee which was organized at a get-together meeting of those from other lands in the Y. M. C. A. hut last Friday evening. This committee will outline various activities for the foreign students during the coming year.

Dean John F. Bovard, chairman of the advisory board, urged that a program of recreational activities be adopted by each foreign student in order to offset the tendency to spend too much time in studying. He said that book learning was not of much avail after graduation if the body was weakened through excessive study, that some recreational activity should be undertaken in order to keep the body in fit condition.

A desire that the foreign students endeavor to become familiar with the best side of American life was expressed by L. P. Putnam, general secretary. Mr. Putnam is arranging for several activities for these students, including an opportunity to speak to the business men of Eugene regarding the resources and business conditions of their respective countries.

The chairman of the committee is Glen Morrow. The following committeemen were chosen, each nationality having a representative: Ted Kurashige, Hawaii; Rex Yamashita, Japan; Kanshi Ram, India; Constantino Apostolides, Greece; Wasily Muller, Siberia; Filipe Gamboa, Philippine Islands; Steve Bugar, Australia; Sottlieb Schmid, Sweden; Elyof Corneliusen, Norway; Fook Lau, China.

EDUCATION WEEK CALLS CHURCHILL TO EUGENE

Superintendent Defines Objections in Education; Consolidation of Rural Schools is Aim

J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of public instruction, spent Monday and Tuesday in Eugene for the purpose of addressing the Eugene Kiwanis Club on the subject "Oregon's Objectives in Education," the occasion being the celebration of national education week.

Mr. Churchill defines Oregon's four objectives in education as: First, better training in the fundamental subjects; second, better training of teachers; third, the consolidation of the rural schools and the high schools; and fourth, the country unit in education.
