

VARSITY TOSSERS RETURN 3 GAMES ARE WON, 3 LOST

Chemawa is Defeated Twice;
Legionnaires Victors

TEAM SHORT ON WEIGHT

Homecoming Football Team
May Remove Handicap

The barnstorming basketball aggregation returned home from the holiday tour leaving three victories and two defeats in their wake. Chemawa went to defeat twice and North Pacific Dental college once before the Oregon team, but the McMinnville and Astoria American Legion teams succeeded in outpointing them.

Marc Latham was the only letter man to make the trip. The others were: Zimmerman, Rockey, Burnett, Altstock, Edlund and Goar. Every man showed up well on the trip, the big drawback being lack of weight. According to Coach Bohler, Zimmerman shows a marked improvement over his work of last year, and bids fair for a position on the final lineup.

Practice is Main Purpose

Bohler kept no record of the scores made during the trip, the purpose being simply to give the players practice for the coming conference games. As far as possible the men were shifted about relieving each other at the various positions during the games. Eddie Durno, assistant coach, had charge of the men on the whole trip, officiating a part of the time.

Financially the trip was a success, the cost being about $260 and the total receipts taken in amounting to $235, leaving a deficiency of only $25 to be taken from the budget.

On Saturday the Oregon quintet will meet the Multnomah club team in Portland. The last regular practice before the game was held last night. Coach Bohler will leave today for Portland and will meet the team there when they arrive Saturday. The men who will make the trip will be picked by him before he leaves.

Oregon to Have Light Team

According to Coach Bohler Oregon will have the lightest team in the conference this year, which will be their greatest handicap. However, he is confident that the season will not be a bad one for the varsity. Where the players are short in weight they are long on speed and fight. The list of centers playing on the conference teams seem to average about six feet four. At least until Hunk Latham returns it will be the weakest point in the Lemon-Yellow lineup.

The first conference game takes place here against Whitman college Monday night. Coach Bohler does not know yet who will play against the Methodist tossers. Beller and Andre are eligible to play and the team will probably be picked from these two men and the ones who made the holiday tour. Bohler says that none of them have a place cinched and will have to work for their places, lettermen, or otherwise.

Football Team Will Help

The return of the football team from Hawaii will strengthen the quintet materially. The date of the return is not known definitely, but they are expected sometime next week. Hunk Latham's six feet three will change the aspect of things materially around the center position, and it is expected that Reinhardt and Chapman may cause a change in the basketball lineup.

and the game was played in a "sea of mud" before 2000 spectators.

Then Center College, conquerors of old John Harvard and regarded as one of the strongest teams in the country, returned from trampling the Arizona cowpunchers in the mud of San Diego to the tune of 38-0, stopped off in Dallas, Texas, and played a game with the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College. Though the "Praying Colonels" were doped to win by four, five or even six touchdowns the stalwart Texans played Bo McMillan's Kentuckians off their feet and won 22-14.
