

NEWSPAPERS' PROBLEMS DISCUSSED IN MAGAZINE

'Oregon Exchanges' Issued by School of Journalism

Five active newspaper people of the state contributed articles to the January number of Oregon Exchanges, recently off the University press.

If you dig deep enough you will get a good story, according to Fred Lockley, associate publisher of the Oregon Journal. Mr. Lockley addressed the class in news writing at the University last term, and his article in Oregon Exchanges is a summary of this address.

Hyman H. Cohen, market editor of the Oregon Journal, contends for a market page in the country paper saying, "A real market page, one that is always on the job, is almost indispensable to those that delve into the marts of trade."

Naomi Swett of Portland fields of breaking into the free lance field and of the profit derived from that line of work.

How the Bend Bulletin set up a wireless outfit to get news during the late November and early December storm that tied up all lines of communications in Eastern Oregon is told by Henry N. Fowler, news editor of the Bulletin.

Unique among country newspapers is the LaPine Intermountain. Situated in a town with a population of forty this paper has a circulation of 627.

Other articles in this number are devoted to the newspaper conference to be held under the auspices of the school of journalism, January 13 and 14; to the history of the St. Helens Mist and the Scio Tribune; and to items of importance to newspapermen.

Oregon Exchanges is published monthly by the school of journalism. George S. Turnbull, professor of journalism, is editor.

EDITORS FROM ALL PARTS

The State Editorial Association will be held. This will last until noon when there will be held a farewell luncheon at Hendricks hall. The toast master at this function will be the newly elected president of the conference. Members of the student body of the University and of the school of journalism are scheduled to speak.

The afternoon will be taken up with special conference between some of the editors who will stay over.

Personally they are most welcome on the campus as old friends and most agreeable companions."

THORPE TO PICK DEBATE TEAM FROM FORMER MEN

Short Time for Washington Contest Prevents Tryout; Coach Predicts Good Showing by Oregon

Due to the small amount of time existing between now and February 17, the date of the intercollegiate debate with the University of Washington, no debate tryouts will be held, but Professor Thorpe, debate coach, will pick his team from former debaters, and those who have shown up well this year.

The debate team is already at work on the question, "Resolved: that congress should pass the veterans' adjusted compensation bill."

Elaine Cooper, and Lurline Coulter will represent the negative at the University at Washington, while Wanda Daggett, and another debater to be chosen soon, will remain here, for the affirmative.

In spite of the lack of time, Professor Thorpe expects to have his team and material ready, and promises a good showing, both here and at Washington.

It is also announced that a tryout will be held Friday at 4:15 at the Commerce building for the men's debate team, which is to participate in the annual Pacific Coast debate, an event which will take place early in March. Washington, Oregon and Stanford will have teams entered this year.

Former debaters who will try out are Rupert Bullivant, Orvil Millard, Remy Cox, Paul Patterson, Charles Lamb, and Claude Robinson. New men who will also try for places are: Max Macoby, Ralph Bailey, and Vernon Duncan.

KU KLUX KLAN FEATURED

"The Truth about the Ku Klux Klan" is the name of a picture now being shown at the Eugene Theatre. The management claimed yesterday that the picture is intended to correct the widespread lack of knowledge of this organization. The picture will be shown tonight at the Eugene Theatre.

Dr. Sawyer, who has charge of the showing of the picture has made arrangement to seat as many as possible.

INFIRMARY NURSE WEDS

The announcement has just been made on the campus of the marriage of Miss Ethel C. Cost, a nurse at the University infirmary, to Charles N. Coseboom, of Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Coseboom were married on December 21 in Portland. Mrs. Coseboom has resumed her position at the infirmary.

PLAY TO BE STAGED JANUARY 25 AND 26

Department Will Produce "The Wedding Guest"

On January 25 and 26 the dramatics department will produce "The Wedding Guest" which is probably the best Barrie play ever written. It is a tense problem play which shows the struggles of a very young woman in facing worldly problems. Her difficulties have been made more severe because of the training of her father who has taught her to always look only on the bright side and to think nothing but the best of every one.

The leading roles will be played by Lorna Coolidge, who played the beautiful little princess in "Swanwhite;" Hildegarde Repenin, who has played several small parts this year; Clair Keeney, whose work in the department is admired by everyone who is interested in the Guild hall productions; and Arthur Johnson, who will make his first appearance on the Guild hall stage. The technique of the play is unusual as at the opening of the first act preparations are being made for a wedding and during the act the wedding takes place. The usual wedding ceremony is said, except, perhaps, for the omission of a few words. This ceremony which would not be out of the ordinary if it came at the end of the play is only the start of the trouble which is to follow for the young bride who knows nothing of the world and who has been taught to think everyone's intentions are for the best.

The play itself ranks high as a problem play and yet is filled with delightful comedy furnished by Mr. Fairbairn, played by Claire Keeney, and Rev. Mr. Gibson, played by Virgil Mulkey. Barrie has used many new ways to keep up the interest and the tension of the play is held up until the last word.

The entire cast is: Mr. Fairbairn, Claire Keeney; Paul Digby, Arthur Johnson; Captain Digtage, Delbert Faust; the reverend Mr. Gibson, Virgil Mulkey; Meikle, John Ellestad; Lady Janet Dunwoodie, Margaret Nelson; Margaret Fairbairn, Lorna Coolidge; Blanch Ripley, Mabel Gorham; Jenny Geddes, Doris Pittenger; and Kate Omanney, Hildegarde Repenin. Other members of the company will have small parts and a few students in the lower division classes will be seen as the wedding guests.

OFFICERS WORKING APART

Appointed Men Not Drilling With Companies; Will Retain Ranks

The student officers of the R. O. T. C. are not drilling with their respective companies this term, due to the fact that the upperclassmen in this work, are being given instruction and actual training in field engineering and minor tactics. According to Major R. C.

Baird, commandant, this does not mean that these officers do not still maintain their rank, but that they are temporarily separated from their companies. However on all ceremonies and parades the student officers will be in command. At present Major Baird and his staff of officers are drilling the men personally.

Major Baird said that the University of Washington's challenge to a rifle team competition was declined owing to the fact that they would not meet our conditions. However, he believes that satisfactory arrangements can be made in the near future.

GIRLS' DEBATES TO BEGIN

Seven Women's Organizations Enter Doughnut League

Seven of the women's organizations on the campus have entered teams in the doughnut debate league up to the present time. The first debate of the series is scheduled for next Tuesday afternoon at 4:15 in the Commerce building. The question to be debated is "Resolved that the principle of the closed shop should be adopted in American industry." The same question will also be debated by the women's Varsity and O. A. C. later in the season.

Houses which have entered teams for the series so far are: Chi Omega, Alpha Delta Pi, Alpha Phi, Susan Campbell hall, Hendricks hall, Zeta Rho Epsilon and Pi Beta Phi.

A new trophy is to be awarded this year, Hendricks hall having obtained permanent possession of the former trophy by virtue of three successive wins.

Oregon Seal Stationery

The Co-op Store is showing a new stock of stationery, die stamped with the University of Oregon seal in urnished gold. This paper is of superior quality and is offered at the low price of 95c per box.

Here's why CAMELS are the quality cigarette

BECAUSE we put the utmost quality into this one brand. Camels are as good as it's possible for skill, money and lifelong knowledge of fine tobaccos to make a cigarette.

Nothing is too good for Camels. And bear this in mind! Everything is done to make Camels the best cigarette it's possible to buy. Nothing is done simply for show.

Take the Camel package for instance. It's the most perfect packing science can devise to protect cigarettes and keep them fresh. Heavy paper—secure foil wrapping—revenue stamp to seal the fold and make the package air-tight. But there's nothing flashy about it. You'll find no extra wrappers. No frills or furbelows.

Such things do not improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons. And remember—you must pay their extra cost or get lowered quality.

If you want the smoothest, mellowest, mildest cigarette you can imagine—and one entirely free from cigarette aftertaste,

It's Camels for you.
