

OREGON CLUB AND ZETA RHO TIE DEBATE FINALS

Non-Fraternity Women Win Silver Cup for One Year

CLOSED SHOP IS QUESTION

Interest Shown in Forensics, Says Public Speaking Coach

Oregon club and Zeta Rho Epsilon debating teams tied in the finals of the women's doughnut debate series yesterday afternoon, the Zeta Rho Epsilon negative team winning from the Oregon club affirmative by a 2 to 1 decision, and the Oregon club negative winning from the Zeta Rho Epsilon affirmative by the same vote. The question debated in the league this year was "Resolved, that the principle of the closed shop should be adopted in American industry."

Oregon club was represented by May Fenno and Adelaide White, affirmative, and Blanche Ross and Genevieve Jewell, negative. The Zeta Rho Epsilon team was composed of Florence Furuset and Dorris Sikes, affirmative, and Edna Largent and Elsie Hildebrand, negative.

The judges for the finals yesterday were Professor W. F. G. Thacher, Dean W. B. Hale, Walter C. Barnes, Eldon Griffen, Bruce J. Griffen, and M. K. Comeran.

The silver loving cup offered by Zeta Kappa Psi, women's forensic fraternity, as a trophy to the winner of the series, was awarded Oregon club because, according to custom, only in the event of a tie, back points won by the teams tying are recognized. Oregon club had a total of 16 points in the series and Zeta Rho Epsilon made 13.

The cup will be held by Oregon club for one year and will then be awarded to the winner of next year's series. The silver cup replaces the trophy offered in previous years which was won last year by Hendricks hall for the third time, thus making it their permanent property. Names of the winning debate team will be engraved on the cup each year until the space is filled. Then it will be placed on exhibition in the library and another trophy offered in its place.

"I consider that the girl debaters have handled a difficult question in a commendable way," said Professor Thorpe, head of the department of public speaking, following the finals, "and although there were not as many organizations in the league as usual, much interest has been shown in the outcome. I feel that the newly adopted ruling of having no faculty coaches has been highly successful, fostering independence among the students debating."

CAMPUS Y. W. DRIVE ON

Membership Goal is 675; Plans to Reach Girls to be Formulated

A membership of three-fourths of the women on the campus is the goal set by the Y. W. C. A. for this year. More than 560 girls have signed membership cards and enough pledge cards have been signed to bring the total to 650 members. Three-fourths of the total registration of 900 girls in the University will make the mark to be reached, a membership of 675.

Plans for attaining this membership are reaching the girls who, as yet, have not been approached will be formulated at a meeting of the membership committee Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Bungalow.

UNIVERSITY HIGH WILL STAGE FOUR ACT PLAY

"Rose of Plymouth Town" to be Given Friday Evening; Production Largest Yet Offered

A four act play, "Rose of Plymouth," will be given by the University high school Friday evening under the direction of Miss Ethel Wakefield, graduate of the University, who is acting as dramatics coach.

Costumes and stage settings will be in harmony with characteristics of the Puritan period. Three of the scenes are in the Standish home while the second act is an exterior scene in the Standish yard. Orchestra and glee club numbers will be given between acts.

This is the largest production that has been presented by the high school. Last year Zona Gale's "Neighbors" was given, and "Miss Lula Bett" by the same author is being considered for the next play.

Original posture drawings in crayon and India ink made by Fred Lundy, senior, advertising the play are on display at the Co-op and University Book Store.

The cast of characters in the play are: Miles Standish, Thomas Going; Barbara Standish, Lota Bradley; Miles' Aunt Resolute, Gertrude Hill; Miriam Chillingley, Margaret Doversy; Garrett Foster, Robert McKnight; Rose de la Noye, Ethel Montgomery; John Margeason, Dick Fields; Philippe de la Noye, Alfons Korn. Dale Cooley is acting as stage manager.

BOOTH AT LIBRARY FOR STUDENT RELIEF FUND

Donations to be Voluntary, $2000 Raised on Campus Last Year; Need Said to be Great

A booth is being maintained in front of the Library this week for the sole purpose of receiving contributions to the Student Friendship Fund, which will be sent to Europe for the relief of university students. Last year a quota of $2000 was raised in a drive conducted on the campus, but this year contributions or pledges are purely voluntary, and no definite goal has been set, although, it is said, the need for funds is even greater.

The necessity for relief among European students was outlined by Mlle. Suzanne Bidgrain in her talk to the students last Saturday, and a further knowledge of conditions has reached the campus through reports of relief workers in Europe. The appeal is being made to students in all counties except those in which help is needed, and this year the appeal is for money, because money, on account of the low rate of exchange, has great purchasing power in foreign countries. It is estimated that one third of the students in Austria, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Poland, Switzerland, Germany, Letavia, and Esthonia, in which countries the funds will be used, are in need of support, but of these only the most needy are aided.

Support of the University students may be considered a part of the reconstruction program, as their training is necessary for the future welfare of the countries in which they live, and the friendship established through relief work will ultimately result in better international relations. The continuance of the relief work is based upon the fact that the results of last year need to be conserved, and that intensive university training will be a factor in overcoming the effects of the war in those countries.

Refugee students in America receive approximately 23 per cent of the entire Student Friendship Fund.
