

AUDIENCE DELIGHTED BY ORDER OF 'O' INITIATES

Armory Floor Is Scene of Rescue with Floyd Bowles in Role of Hero; Wrestling Act Is Staged

The Order of the "O" held initiation for seven neophytes between halves of the Varsity-O. A. C. game on Saturday evening.

Ward Johnston was appropriately picked as the announcer, and his training as quarterback in football came in handy for he felt at home bawling out the other fellows.

Blackburn, who runs the two mile, is evidently a better track man than yell leader, for his demonstration of how to give the Varsity yell was not appreciated by the lowbrows in the audience.

Smith and Vonder Ahe pulled a wrestling stunt that resembled very closely the heavyweight match of the night before between the Oregon and O. A. C. Varsity teams, in which the O. A. C. man outweighed his opponent by about 40 pounds.

Gram next appeared and rendered the touching little song, "I Ain't Nobody's Baby," the smile on his face being the only thing that betrayed him.

Tommy Wyatt, fetchingly attired in a little girl's bathing suit, next sauntered out on the floor, but the angles betrayed by the suit prevented anyone in the crowd from thinking that they were looking at a California bathing beauty.

The stunts put on were the best of the year, and finished up the list of eligible men for initiation so those wishing to see this form of entertainment will have to wait till next term.

The work of the entire team showed a marked improvement over their work earlier in the season and they put up a fair brand of basketball at times. The loss of Franz Beller, who was not in condition to play, was a large factor in the margin of the defeat.

Will Play Return Series

The Oregon basketball team will play a return series with the Aggies at Corvallis on Friday and Saturday nights of this week.

PICTURE OF BEAN IS HUNG

Graduate and Former Regent of University is Federal Judge in Portland

A picture of Judge Robert S. Bean, federal judge in Portland, has recently been hung in Villard hall. Judge Bean was a member of the first class to be graduated from the University of Oregon, in 1878.

At the instigation of Miss Camilla Leech, art librarian, an effort is being made to secure pictures of as many regents as possible to be hung in Villard.

APRIL 14 AND 15

for Sunday dinner, Charles Thurston, Richard Hawn, and Nelson Leland.

Alpha Tau Omega had Dr. and Mrs. John Gray of St. Anthony, Idaho, Professor and Mrs. A. L. Lomax and son, Rev. and Mrs. F. E. Eddy for their guests at Sunday dinner.

Alpha Chi Omega held initiation the past week-end for Freda Goodrich, Vera Price, Norma Wilson, Geraldine Root, and Marjorie Baird. The formal initiation banquet was held at the Osburn hotel Saturday evening.

Mrs. Johnson Sherrick, Pacific Province president of the fraternity, and Mrs. Alexander Stewart, both of Seattle, visited at the Alpha Chi Omega house over the week-end.

Kappa Alpha Theta entertained President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Church, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Walker and Dean Fox, Thursday evening at dinner.

A much-feted visitor on the campus is Mrs. J. A. Smith of Oklahoma who is the visiting delegate for Gamma Phi Beta, and a guest at the fraternity house during her visit here.

Saturday night a luncheon was given for Mrs. Smith, at the Anchorage by Gamma Phi Beta. Monday afternoon a tea was given by the sorority for the interesting guest.

Gamma Phi Beta entertained with a formal dinner for a number of members of the faculty Saturday night.

The engagement of Clares Powell, '21, of Monmouth, to Miss Florence Hudson of Portland has been announced. Miss Hudson is a student at Oregon Normal School. Mr. Powell who graduated from the University last June, is a Kappa Theta Chi and at present is Assistant Cashier of the First National Bank of Monmouth.

An affair of interest to students is the Junior Jazz Jinx to be held Saturday night. Ludicrous costumes will be worn by those attending. The dance is a lottery.

The engagement of Ruth Scott to Norman Byrne, '21, was announced Sunday night at the Anchorage. The announcement card was cleverly concealed under the cocktail glass.

The marriage of Miss Marion Coffey and Warren Edwards was solemnized in Portland last week. Both attended the University of Oregon and were popular.

The usual good time will be had by Seniors next Saturday night when they will hold a Senior Dance. There will be Paul Jones' and tag dances.

It was time to wake up, all right

MY BRAIN was busy. BUILDING AIR castles. FOR I wasn't sleepy. FINALLY I dozed off. AND PROMPTLY dreamed. THAT I was awake. BUT WOKE right up. AND FOUND I was asleep. THEN I got thinking. OF A wonderful formula. FOR MAKING cigarettes. I PLANNED it all out. SO MUCH Turkish tobacco. BLENDED JUST so with Burley. AND OTHER Domestic leaf. AND I knew that blend. WOULD MAKE a hit. I COULD just see. CROWDS OF happy people. THRONGING INTO stores TO BUY that cigarette. THEN LIGHTING up. SMACKING THEIR lips. AND SAYING, "Oh, Boy. IT'S THE exact copy. OF THAT 'Satisfy' blend." AND THEN I came to. AND SAID to myself. "THIS TIME you're dreaming. FOR SURE. WAKE UP, you darn fool. WHY, THAT 'Satisfy' blend. SIMPLY CAN'T be copied."

THAT'S a fact—the "Satisfy blend" can't be copied. It's our own secret—putting those good tobaccos together in a way that gives you every last ounce of their fragrance. You'll smack your lips over Chesterfields. And remember—you can't get "Satisfy" anywhere else.
