

SUMMER SCHOOL CLUB OFFICERS ANNOUNCED

Eugene Superintendent Head of Organization

SOCIETY STARTED IN 1914

Purpose is to Encourage More to Attend Classes

The officers of the summer section of the "Greater Oregon Club" have just been announced by E. F. Carlton, superintendent of the Eugene schools and president of the society. The purposes of the organization are, first, to encourage attendance at summer school, second, to encourage summer school attendance in Oregon, and third, to encourage attendance especially at either the campus session or the term at the Portland Center.

This organization was first started in 1914 and was known as the "Five Hundred Club," the object of which was to secure 500 summer school students. Since the enrollment of both the summer terms greatly exceeds that number, the name of the club was changed.

E. F. Carlton, city superintendent of Eugene schools is president of the organization and F. L. Stetson, professor of education, University of Oregon, is secretary.

County representatives are: Baker—Prentiss Brown, city superintendent Baker schools.

Benton—Catherine Gentile, high school teacher of Corvallis.

Clackamas—Lela Reed, teacher at Oregon City.

Clatsop—A. C. Strange, city superintendent of Astoria.

Columbia—W. L. Rutherford, city superintendent of St. Helens.

Coos—C. A. Arehart, city superintendent at Bandon.

Curry—Mrs. Jennie Cope, county superintendent at Gold Beach.

Crook—J. E. Meyers, county superintendent at Prineville.

Deschutes—Paul Irvine, principal high school at Redmond.

Douglas—Carlton Savage, principal high school at Glendale.

Gilliam—H. K. Shirk, city superintendent at Condon.

Grant—Gertrude Lyon, county superintendent at Canyon City.

Harney—D. M. McDade, high school principal at Burns.

Hood River—B. H. Conkle, high school principal at Hood River.

Jackson—Aubrey G. Smith, city superintendent of Medford.

Jefferson—George A. Gabriel, principal at Madras.

Josephine—W. J. Mishler, city superintendent at Grants Pass.

Klamath—Elmer Pendell, high school teacher at Klamath Falls.

Lake—Mrs. Lolo Hall, teacher at Lakeview.

Lane—Oren Hayes, city superintendent at Cottage Grove.

Lincoln—Bertram C. Henry, principal at Newport.

Linn—Raymond E. Baker, city superintendent at Brownsville.

Malheur—G. W. Ager, city superintendent, at Vale.

Marion—W. C. Hoppes, assistant principal at Salem.

Morrow—M. B. Signs, principal at Beardman.

Multnomah—Chas. Reynolds, high school teacher at Portland, R. W. Rose, Route No. 4, Portland.

Polk—O. D. Byers, principal at Independence.

Sherman—Mrs. Grace May Zevely, county superintendent at Moro.

Tillamook—Mrs. Kathleen Durham, principal at Bay City.

Umatilla—Harold Benjamin, principal at Umatilla.

Union—A. C. Hampton, city superintendent at La Grande.

Wallowa—Friederle Schilke, teacher at Wallowa.

Wasco—Sarah Martin, teacher at The Dalles.

Washington—B. W. Barnes, city superintendent of Hillsboro.

Wheeler—H. J. Simmons, county superintendent of Fossil.

Yamhill—A. C. Stabbrough, city superintendent at Newberg.

Vice-presidents are: E. H. Whitney, assistant city superintendent at Portland, for the Portland center; J. Carl Bowman, graduate student at Eugene, for the graduate students; C. A. Howard, city superintendent at Marshfield, for school administrators; Marie Churchill, head of Latin department at Salem, for high school teachers; Marguerite McCabe, teacher at Knappa, for Summer term Woman's League.

Students read the classified ads; try using them.

CLASSIFIED ADS

Minimum charge, 1 time, 25c; 2 times, 45c; 3 times, 75c. Must be limited to 3 lines, over this limit, 5c per line. Phone 951, or leave copy with Business office of EMERALD, in University Press. Payment in advance. Office hours, 1 to 4 p. m.

Tailoring and Dressmaking of all kinds. Call Mrs. A. G. DeVore, 447 E. 15th. Phone 558-J. 87-F28-tf.

FOR RENT—Modern double room for girls. Call 907 Hilyard, 797 J. 108-F18-2.

FOR RENT—Study room and sleeping porch for two boys. One boy can work for his room. 662 E. 14th. Phone 341-L. 109-F18.

SOCIAL NEWS NOTES

Washington's birthday is the inspiration for many informal dances to be held on Tuesday evening and Wednesday. Besides the matinee and dinner dances of fraternities and sororities, there are informal dances to be given at which various clubs and honorary organizations will be hosts. Two formal are on the social calendar, that of Sigma Chi and Sigma Delta Chi.

To-Ko-Lo, sophomore men's honorary organization will hold its annual formal, Tuesday night at the Woman's building. Besides the active members there will be present the pledges and the alumnae.

Condon Club, a geology organization on the campus, will give an informal dance at the Commercial Club, Tuesday night. An interesting feature to the occasion is that Professor Schreff's paintings will be on exhibition there. About 25 couples will attend the affair.

Sigma Delta Chi, men's national journalism fraternity, will give a formal dance at the Anchorage, Friday night. Faculty members of the fraternity and their wives will be the patrons and patronesses for the affair.

The sophomores at Susan Capbell hall are entertaining with a cabaret dinner dance for the other girls of the Hall Tuesday evening from 5 until 8 at the Woman's building.

On Saturday afternoon, Susan Campbell hall will give a matinee dance at the Woman's building.

The upperclassmen of Alpha Phi will entertain with a dinner dance next Friday evening from 5 until 8.

Phi Sigma Pi will entertain with a dinner dance, Tuesday evening at the chapter house.

Sigma Chi fraternity will entertain with their formal next Friday evening, February 24, at the Woman's building. Thirty-five couples will attend the affair. Elaborate decorations are to be used, carrying out the color scheme of blue and gold, the fraternity colors.

The Pi Beta Phi sorority entertained with their formal dance of the season, Friday evening, February 17. An elaborate dinner was served at the Anchorage, and from there the guests adjourned to the Woman's building where dancing was enjoyed.

Oriental decorations were used with a color scheme of gold and blue. In the corners were immense gold and blue urns, with incense coming from them. A red lighting effect was arranged that gave the incense a brilliant red color. Oriental draperies and rugs covered the walls, and ferns and palms were used around the room. Forty-four couples enjoyed the affair.

The patrons and patronesses were: Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Fell, Mr. and Mrs. Colman, Mrs. Byler, Mrs. W. S. Jewett, Mrs. Shoemaker, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Benson, Mrs. Hubbs, Mrs. Edna Datson, Mrs. M. A. Vonder Ahe, Major and Mrs. Baird, Dean Elizabeth Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Jewett, Rex Underwood.

The formal dance of Kappa Sigma was held at their house Saturday night. Something new was introduced by the fraternity in that the decorations for the affair were simple yet effective. Cut spring flowers and palms were used in the rooms.

Kappa Alpha Theta freshmen entertained the sophomores with a dance Friday night at the house. A valentine motif was carried out in the decorations.

The Hotel Osburn was converted into a veritable old-fashioned garden Friday night at the formal dance given by Alpha Phi. The ceilings were of serpentine, and huge brightly colored paper flowers of blue, orange, purple and pink were on the walls which formed a black background for them. Combined with the flowers on the walls were silver ivy and ferns. For the feature, out of an arbor stepped two youngsters in dainty old-fashioned frocks, with cigarettes which they gave to the men, and little boxes of candy to the girls. There were eight out-of-town guests for the affair. Patrons and patronesses were Professor and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, Dean and Mrs. Colin V. Dyment, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Mrs. Murray Warner, Miss Mary Perkins, and Dean Elizabeth Fox.

The sophomores and juniors of Alpha Chi Omega entertained with a delightful cabaret dinner dance Saturday evening from 5 until 8. The rooms were attractively decorated, in cabaret motifs, and from the lights waving pink and green streamers hung to the floor. For the feature Vera Price sang "The Shiek" while Mildred LeCompte gave an oriental dance. Eleven couples were present.

President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell were guests for Sunday dinner at Phi Sigma Pi fraternity.

Alpha Tau Omega was the host at a sister dinner Sunday. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Janney, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Folts, Mr. and Mrs. George Hopkins, and the Misses Margaret Masters, Mary Alta Kelly, Mary Harris, Elizabeth Melis, Katherine Rasterday and Violet Webber.

Kappa Alpha Theta was the hostess at Sunday night tea for the members of Sigma Nu fraternity.

Miss Alice Brown, student secretary of the Y. W. C. A. of the Northwest, was a guest on the campus last week.

Professor Schreff, head of the art department of the University, is giving an exhibition of 92 of his paintings in the chamber of commerce. Monday evening was the first evening of the exhibit which is indeed a treat to art-appreciators and students on the campus.

Mrs. Susie Fennell Pipes, whose concert was an enjoyable event of the past week, was the delightful guest of Mrs. P. L. Campbell at dinner Wednesday.

Miss Henrietta Michaelson, who was Mrs. Pipes' pianist, was the guest of Hendricks hall during her visit here.

Vernice Robbins, '21, was the weekend guest of Gamma Phi Beta of which she is a member.

"A night in old Spain" was enjoyed by 38 couples last Friday evening, February 18, when the Sigma Nu fraternity entertained with an elaborate house dance. The chapter house was decorated in orange, black and gold, with immense Spanish fans hung from the ceiling and gave a soft rose glow to the scene. Between the rooms, the archways were decorated with elaborate gold and black designs, and the windows were covered with a pattern of gold bars. The five piece orchestra was enclosed by a network of orange, black and gold paper. The feature of the evening was a Spanish dance given by Miss Juanita Jackson.

Dean Elizabeth Fox, and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Janney were the patrons and patronesses for the evening.

A week-end guest of Sigma Alpha Epsilon was Herbert E. Foster, a member of that fraternity from the University of Nevada. Mr. Foster is on the U. of N. basketball team.

The Alpha Delta Pi sorority entertained with a tea Sunday evening, February 19, honoring five of the girls' mothers. The guests present were: Mrs. Edith Linton, Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Roland, Mrs. Rupert, and Mrs. L. Rupert.

Miss Iantha Smith of Albany was the house guest of the Delta Delta Delta sorority over the week end.

The Washington club will entertain with a matinee dance Wednesday afternoon, February 22, at the chamber of commerce. The dance is a lottery and only for members of the club. It is to be a "get-acquainted" party and about 30 couples will attend the affair. The patronesses are: Mrs. Nellie Layman, Mrs. S. R. Johnson, and Miss Sue Badolett.

The seniors of Hendricks hall and Susan Campbell hall entertained during leap week with a bar room bust, for the other seniors of the University. The bust was held at Hendricks hall Friday evening, February 18. The decorations for the affair consisted of appropriate signs and warnings for the benefit of those unfamiliar with such parties. At one end of the room was a bar, where the guests could order refreshments.

The following evening the seniors were entertained by the Delta Delta Delta and Pi Beta Phi sororities with a dance at the Delta Delta Delta chapter house.

FAIRBANKS IS CHAIRMAN

Avard Fairbanks, instructor in the art department, has been made chairman of the Western Division of the Society for the International Revival of Industrial Arts. The most famous artists of all the countries of the world are members of the society. The purpose is to revive lost arts, to encourage native arts of various lands, and to work for an advancement of the fine arts.

For your formal's Black Silk Midget Bows, 50c

Men's Pat. Calf Dancing Pumps $5.98
Good year welt

97 W. 8th St. Cor. Olive The Hub F. C. Pursley Prop.

Eugene Clarifying & Pasteurizing Company

Modern Sanitary Milk for every day use.

Phone 390 943 Oak

Phillips' 'MILITARY' Soles and Heels

Jim

THE SHOE DOCTOR.
986 Willamette Street.

With acknowledgments to K. C. B.

"Oh Boy! Ain't this the life!!"

I LIKE my job.
BUT DAYS do come.
WHEN SKIES are blue.
ABOVE THE city smoke.
AND BREEZES str.
THE PAPERS on my desk,
AND THEN I think
WHAT I would do.
IF I were boss.
I'D OPEN shop.
AT TWELVE o'clock,
AND CLOSE at one.
WITH ONE hour off.
FOR LUNCH, and I
WOULD GET old Sam,
TO RUN me out
IN HIS big six.
AND DROP me off.
UNDER A greenwood tree.
BESIDE A babbling brook.
AND THERE I'd lie.
AND EVERY once.
IN A while.
ROLL OVER.
OR MAYBE sit and think.
BUT MOST likely.
JUST SIT.
AND EVERY once.
IN A while I'd light
ONE OF my Chesterfields,
AND OH Boy,
I GUESS that wouldn't,
SATISFY!

COMPANIONSHIP? Say, there never was such a cigarette as Chesterfield for steady company! Just as mild and smooth as tobaccos can be—but with a mellow "body" that satisfies even cigar smokers. On lazy days or busy ones—all the time—you want this "satisfy-smoke."

Chesterfield
CIGARETTES

They Satisfy

LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO Co.

Did you know about the Chesterfield package of 10?

You're invited to join with us in the celebration of Indian Day

FEBRUARY 22

Our store will be open all day and evening. Enjoy the special entertainment, get a souvenir, meet the boys.
See the complete line of 1922 INDIANS.

Two brand new models. Numerous improvements. Substantial price reductions.

Remember a motorcycle is the cheapest means of motor transportation, lowest operating cost.

Indian Motorcycles

SMITH-McKERN CYCLE CO.

Cor 9th and Oak Sts.
Eugene, Oregon

