

SOCIAL NEWS NOTES

Informal affairs have again taken precedence over the larger ones during the week and will continue to be popular. Four formal dinners were given last week, but none are scheduled for the coming week. A musical event eagerly awaited is the Girls' Glee Club concert to be given the latter part of the week. The student body dance will be anticipated as it is the last one of the semester.

Invitations have been issued by Alpha Phi for a tea and reception to be given Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. A. G. Barker, house mother for the sorority. The guest list includes many society matrons of Eugene, members of the faculty, and mothers of the girls who will come to Eugene for the affair.

An interesting event of the week will be the annual concert of the Girls' Glee club to be given at the Woman's building, Saturday, March 4.

Alpha Phi upperclassmen entertained with a dinner dance, Friday from 6 until 9 at their house. Spring-time coloring was used in the decorations. Fourteen couples enjoyed the affair. Saturday afternoon the underclassmen gave a matinee dance from 2 until 5.

The Thursday evening dinner guests at the Gamma Phi Beta house were Mr. and Mrs. Philip Janney and Mrs. Claude Rorer.

Dean Elizabeth Fox, who has been attending the convention of Daughters of the American Revolution at Portland during the latter part of the week, returned Sunday evening.

Delta Gamma's guests for Thursday evening dinner were Dean and Mrs. Colin V. Dymont, Miss Mary Watson and Miss Ida Turney.

Phi Sigma Pi gave an informal dinner dance Tuesday evening from 5 until 8 at the chapter house. Eleven couples were present. Dean and Mrs. William G. Hale were patron and patroness.

Kappa Alpha Theta had as guests at dinner Thursday evening, Dr. and Mrs. B. W. DeBusk, Professor and Mrs. Alfred Lomax, and Professor and Mrs. Verne McDougle.

Guests at Sunday evening tea included members of Delta Tau Delta fraternity.

Kappa Kappa Gamma underclassmen entertained with a matinee dance Saturday afternoon from 2:30 until 5:30.

Kappa Sigma was host at dinner Thursday night for ten Gamma Phi Betas, Mr. and Mrs. Hal White, and Mrs. E. L. Smith of Pendleton, who is Mrs. White's mother.

Sigma Delta Chi, men's national journalism fraternity entertained with a formal dance Friday night at the Anchorage at which 16 couples were present. Black and white, the fraternity's colors, were used effectively in the decorations. Faculty and honorary members of the fraternity were patrons.

Sunday dinner guests at the Zeta Rho Epsilon house were Professor and Mrs. C. D. Thorpe, Professor and Mrs. H. R. Douglass and Miss Ethel Sanborn.

Large gold crosses, upon which soft blue lights shed a glow, were the effective decorations used by To-Ko-Lo, an honorary organization for sophomore men, at their formal dance given Tuesday night at the Woman's building. The decorations were modeled upon the To-Ko-Lo pin which is a gold cross. Alumni as well as active members were present at the affair, which is held annually.

A cabaret dinner dance and all that goes with it, was enjoyed by the girls of Susan Campbell hall and the underclassmen of Hendricks hall, Tuesday evening. There were chorus girls and clever acts. The many tables were decorated with pussywillows and there were menu cards. Dancing was enjoyed between courses by those present whose costumes ranged from evening dresses to typical "bowery-style" attires. About one-hundred and ninety girls were present.

Susan Campbell hall girls gave a matinee dance Saturday at the Woman's building. Pink and gray was the color scheme used, with baskets of pussywillows tied with large bows carrying out the motif. The programs were gray. Late in the afternoon dainty refreshments were served on the sun-porch.

Sunday afternoon tea was served from 4 until 6 at the Hall.

A delightful time was enjoyed by those who attended the Condon Club dance, Tuesday night at the Commercial Club.

Alpha Tau Omega entertained at dinner Sunday, Mr. R. F. Whitman, Mr. H. J. Edwards, both business men of Marshfield, and Mr. John Mason, of Eugene.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon entertained at their dinner guests Sunday, Otto Herman and Ed Grider, both of whom are Lambda Chi Alphas at O. A. C.

Alpha Chi Omega was the hostess at Sunday dinner for Mr. and Mrs. John Stark Evans, Mrs. Anna Landsbury Beck, Mr. John Siefert, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, and Mrs. C. H. Freeman, of Portland, who is also a guest at the house.

Mrs. Irving Brown of East Orange, New Jersey, Council Delegate of Alpha Chi Omega, will be the guest of the local chapter the latter part of the week.

Woman's League held its regular weekly "at home" in Alumni hall of the Woman's building Sunday afternoon from 3 to 5:30. The musical program consisted of piano solos by Arthur Hicks, Dorothy Dickey and Beatrice Yeo, and a vocal solo by Gwladys Keeney. There was a larger crowd Sunday than there has been previously. Woman's League planned the affairs to help stimulate interest in the Woman's building and bring to the student the realization that the Alumni Hall is supposed to be used by the students.

Pi Beta Phi sorority entertained several faculty members at dinner Sunday evening, February 26, at the chapter house. The guests included Professor and Mrs. A. H. Schreff, Mr. and Mrs. Avar Fairbanks, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Sweetser, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Laneefield.

The upperclassmen of the Chi Omega fraternity are entertaining with a matinee dance at the chapter house next Saturday afternoon. The dance is to be in honor of the sophomores and their guests. Elaborate decorations have been planned for the affair. The guest list includes 17 couples.

A breakfast dance was given Wednesday morning, February 22, at the Woman's building by the Kappa Theta Chi fraternity. The guest list included 36 couples. At the tables were individual favors for each guest. The music was furnished by an orchestra made up of members of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. The patrons for the affair were Dean and Mrs. Eric W. Allen.

Miss Elsie Bristol, of Portland, was the house guest of the Chi Omega fraternity during the week.

Omega chapter of Delta Zeta gave their annual formal Tuesday evening, February 21, at the Hotel Osburn. Hand-painted conventional birds, parchment shades and madallions together with trees decorated with bright silk flowers made a decorative scheme unusually artistic and original. A tiny maiden in oriental costume gave an Egyptian feature dance. Patrons and patronesses were: President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Schreff, Mrs. S. R. Johnson, Miss Elizabeth Fox, Mr. John Siefert, Mr. F. S. Dunn, and Mr. E. E. DeCou.

A dinner dance will be given by the Delta Delta Delta sorority next Saturday evening at the chapter house. The upperclassmen are giving the affair and 16 couples have been invited.

Members of the Sigma Chi fraternity were the guests of the Delta Delta Delta sorority at dinner last Sunday evening, February 26.

The misses Vida Morrow and Lucile Turner of the University of Washington debating team have been the house guests of the Alpha Delta Pi sorority during the past week. Miss Turner is a member of the Alpha Delta Pi Washington chapter.

The University of Oregon debaters are also the guests of the Alpha Delta Pi sorority at the University of Washington. Miss Elaine Cooper, a member of the chapter here, and Miss Lillian Coulter have gone north to represent this university. Among the several affairs that have been given in honor of the guests was a luncheon Thursday noon at the chapter house.

Mrs. Frank Baker of Tacoma, Washington, was the guest at Hendricks hall over the week-end. Mrs. Baker, who is the northwest director of the American Association of University Women, came to Eugene to attend the regular monthly meeting of the A. A. U. W. The meeting was held Saturday afternoon in the Woman's building.

Nine members of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity were the guests at Hendricks hall at dinner Sunday, February 26.

A dinner dance will be given next Saturday evening at the Anchorage by the Delta Tau Delta fraternity. Eighteen guests have been invited.

The freshmen of Chi Omega fraternity entertained Saturday afternoon, February 25, with a matinee dance from 3 to 6. The chapter house was artistically decorated with ferns and daffodils. Fifteen couples enjoyed the affair.

A formal reception honoring Miss R. Louise Fitch is to be given Friday evening by the Delta Delta Delta, women's fraternity. The reception is to be given in the alumni hall of the Woman's building. Miss Fitch, who is the former national president of the sorority, has just returned from Europe. Invitations have been issued to about 250 persons.

Not such a bad come-back at that

WE WERE all sitting
IN THE smoking car.
AND HARRY, who admits,
HE'S A born comedian.
TURNED TO me and said,
"I'D BEEN reading about
SPIRIT MESSAGES, and guess
WHAT HAPPENED to me.
I DREAMED my watch was gone.
AND WOKE and looked."
OF COURSE I had to bite.
AND ASK, "Was it gone?"
AND HE said, "No—
BUT IT was going."
SO THEY kidded me till
I THOUGHT I'd get hunk.
SO I said, "Well,
I DREAMED one day,
WHILE RIDING with Harry,
THAT THE barn was burning.
BUT WOKE up and gosh,
IT WAS Harry's cigarette."
AND HARRY said,
"NOT TODAY, old dear.
I'M SMOKING your kind now."
AND PULLED a pack
OF "SATISFY'S."
AND THE only come-back
I COULD scare up was,
"ISN'T THAT glassine wrapper."
GREAT FOR keeping.
CIGARETTES FROM drying.
EVEN IN hot air!"

EXTRA! The Chesterfield moisture-proof wrapper. Increases our cost, not yours—but it's good business, for it adds to your enjoyment. It preserves the delicate flavor of these wonderful Turkish and Domestic tobaccos, and keeps the cigarettes firm, fresh and good-tasting whatever the weather.
