

NEXT GUILD PRODUCTION TO BE STAGED MARCH 15

Miss Banfield and Mr. Reddie to Play Leading Roles

SETTINGS TO BE ARTISTIC

Part of Nerissa to be Taken by Hildegarde Repinen

With Fergus Reddie and Charlotte Banfield playing the leading roles and with colorful Shakespearean costumes, "The Merchant of Venice" which will be produced March 15, 16 and 17 in Guild Hall, will in all probability be one of the most popular plays produced on the campus this year. It has been the practice in the department to produce at least one Shakespearean play a year. "The Two Gentlemen of Verona," which was produced last year, was well liked by the students in spite of the fact that it is one of the least played of all Shakespearean plays.

The entire cast have taken roles on the Guild stage in other productions this year and several of them have played leading parts. Claire Keeney and John Ellestad, both of whom have been seen in comedy roles on the campus before, will again bring out the humor of the play in the parts of Launcelot and old Gobbo. Hildegarde Repinen, whose work in "The Wedding Guest," produced only a short time ago on the campus, has been said to be some of the best work ever done on the Guild Hall stage, will play the part of Nerissa.

The costumes in a Shakespearean play are always an added attraction and the bright colored costumes to be worn in this play will add much to the production. The settings, although they will be simple, will be extremely artistic.

The play will be seen three nights, as has been the custom during the last few productions. The added interest which has been shown by the faculty and students has made this possible.

AUTHOR'S START RECALLED

Prof. Thacher Accepted First Story of Late John Fleming Wilson

John Fleming Wilson, author and former Oregon newspaperman, whose death was reported in the Oregonian of Monday morning, was a classmate of Professor W. F. G. Thacher at Princeton. Mr. Thacher yesterday recalled the fact that as editor of the Nassau Literary Magazine at Princeton, about 24 years ago, he accepted for publication the first story Wilson had ever submitted to an editor.

Later, as editor of the old Pacific Monthly, Mr. Thacher continued in close touch with Wilson, whose promise as a writer was at one time regarded as greater than that of any other Oregon writer.

Wilson was at one time editor of a newspaper at Newport, Oregon, and is also remembered as a former reporter on three of the Portland papers. Of late years he has been doing magazine writing and fiction in California.

FACULTY HOOPERS TO TRY SECOND TILT WITH O.A.C.

First Contest at Corvallis, Drew Like Circus

The Time: 7:30, Wednesday Eve.
The Place: Hayward Hall sometimes known as the men's gym.

The Who: Such celebrities as "Bo" Bohler, "Shy" Huntington, "Eddie" Durno, "Colie" Coleman, "Dickie" Rutherford, and "Cack" Hubbard.

The What: A basketball game between two teams representing the physical education faculties of the University and the Oregon Aggies.

And it should be some combat, for last week the Oregon mentors journeyed to Corvallis and were forced to take the bitter end of a 39-35 walloping, with Dick Rutherford posing as the hero of the Aggie camp and general high man with 21 points to his credit. But the locals are determined on exacting revenge to the utmost when the two teams meet tomorrow night according to several of the more prominent lights of the five and it should be a real battle.

When the two teams tangled at Corvallis last week it was before a "Homecoming crowd, with the band and everything," according to the deflated players.

Incidentally, a five-minute playoff was necessary before the issue was decided. In the overtime session Coach Rutherford amassed four points. It is rumored however that Shy will be appointed caretaker of Slippery Dick for the evening in the hope of cutting down his total receipts. The Order of the "O" has charge of the proposed fray and will charge one dime to see the whole thing.

Latest advises from the opposing camps indicate the following lineups:

Oregon	O. A. C.
Durno	F. Rutherford
Scott	F. Rathbun
Bohler	C. Hubbard
Huntington	G. Coleman
Ringle	G. Hager
Foster	S.
Dawson	S.
Hodge	S.

SOCIAL NEWS NOTES

Three teas were given during the past week in honor of prominent women. Mrs. A. G. Barker was the inspiration for the tea given by Alpha Phi on Saturday afternoon. That of Alpha Chi Omega was given in honor of Mrs. Irving Brown, of East Orange, New Jersey, who is the council delegate of the sorority and a guest of the chapter here for a few days. Delta Delta Delta's formal tea was given for Miss R. Louise Fitch, who has just returned from Europe and who is the former national president of the sorority. With examinations but two weeks off, entertaining of an informal nature seems to be prevalent on the campus.

The engagement of Miss Elizabeth Bruere, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Bruere of Portland, to Dr. Harry Goldstein, of Spokane, was announced Saturday in Portland. Miss Bruere will be remembered as a former University of Oregon girl, a member of Delta Gamma.

Three hundred persons were included in the invitation list of Alpha Chi Omega for tea given in honor of Mrs. Irving Brown, Saturday afternoon from 3 until 5. In the receiving line were, besides the guest of honor, Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Dean Elizabeth Fox, Miss Sue Badollet, Mrs. Peter Crockett, Mrs. Anna Landsbury Beck, Ruth Sanborn, and Mrs. Albert Sweetser presided at the tea table. Assisting about the rooms were the underclass girls. The rooms were particularly attractive. In the living room, daffodils and pussy-willows were used in profusion. The tea table was centered with a basket of flowers of pastel shades. During the afternoon an orchestra played.

The student body dance given by the Order of the "O" at the Woman's building Friday evening was well attended. Clever stunts were put on by initiates of the Order of the "O" and many received their certificates of membership. An orchestra of four pieces furnished music for the affair.

The tea given by Alpha Phi Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. A. G. Barker, house mother of the sorority, was a large event of the week-end. A color scheme of yellow and green was followed in decorations which were of daffodils. In the receiving line were Mrs. A. G. Barker and Miss Ila Nichols. During the afternoon, Helen Carson, Winifred Hopson, Isabel Kidd, and Maurine Elrod poured. About 150 called during the afternoon.

Sunday afternoon, Woman's League was "at home" in the Alumni hall of the Woman's building to students of the University. This was the third of a series of "at homes" in which students may drop in and in an informal way meet other students. Delightful music was furnished during the afternoon which consisted of vocal solos by Leona Gregory and Arthur Johnson, and selections by an interesting Filipino stringed orchestra. Many students took advantage of this Sunday afternoon event.

Delta Gamma is planning a reunion for next week-end, of all active and alumnae members of the sorority from out of town and from Eugene. Saturday evening they will give a banquet at the Osburn Hotel in honor of the guests.

Miss Olive Johnson who is a national officer of the Y. W. C. A. was an interesting visitor on the campus and guest at the Zeta Rho Epsilon house during the past week, and the inspiration for several affairs given in her honor. Miss Johnson who is at present doing work among immigrant women on the coast is a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority. Friday noon Mrs. Leland Coon gave a luncheon in her honor and in the afternoon from 3 until 5, Miss Ethel Sanborn who is also an Alpha Xi Delta gave a tea for the visitor.

A matinee dance was given Saturday afternoon, by the freshmen of the Sigma Nu fraternity. The dance was given at the house from 3 to 6. The house was decorated to represent frontier days, with a bar at one end of the room. Sandwiches and punch were served to the guests from the bar, and during the afternoon several holdups were made in true frontier style by the western cowboys and bandits. Seventeen couples enjoyed the affair.

Mrs. D. T. Cornell is visiting Mrs. Page, house mother at the Alpha Sigma house. Mrs. Cornell is returning from Seattle to her home in Los Angeles, California.

The upperclassmen of the Chi Omega fraternity entertained the sophomores and their guests with a matinee dance at the house last Saturday afternoon. The rooms were darkened and soft yellow lights were used. Other decorations consisted of daffodils and ferns, with large yellow crepe paper flowers. Seventeen couples were present.

A formal reception was given by Delta Delta Delta Friday evening from 8 to 11, honoring Miss R. Louise Fitch. Miss Fitch was the former national president of Delta Delta Delta and for two years was the house mother at the local chapter house. She has recently returned from Europe, where she has been actively engaged since the war in reconstruction work. The reception was held in the alumni hall of the Woman's building and 275 guests attended the affair. In the receiving line were: Miss Marianne Dunham, Miss Fitch, President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mrs. W. F. Graham, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Dean Elizabeth Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Giffen, and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sims.

LIBRARY GETS BOOK GIFTS

Present is Fine Arts Bibliography and Prisoner of War Narrative

A bibliography of the illustrations and writings of Howard Pyle, prominent illustrator who died in 1911, has been presented to the University by the Society of Fine Arts of Wilmington, Delaware, Pyle's birthplace. The book is one of a limited edition, including 500 copies, which have been distributed among members of the society and libraries of important cities and colleges.

Howard Pyle was born in 1853 and during his life was an illustrator and author. His works appeared in leading periodicals.

The library has also been given a narrative of Y. M. C. A. service among prisoners of the world war.

"In the Prison Camps of Germany" is the title of the book, and it is written by Conrad Hoffman, who was in charge of prisoners of war in Germany.

ABOUT GLASSES

A hurried or incomplete examination of your eyes and your glasses which cost too little to give the efficiency you must have are dangerously expensive in the end.

My glasses are sold as cheaply as the same quality of mountings and lenses are sold elsewhere, but I honestly believe that the painstaking service that goes with them makes them worth more.

Nix on the "Parley-Voo" stuff!

A FRIEND of mine.
WHO COULDN'T speak.
A WORD of French.
WENT to Paris.
AND THE first time.
HE HAD to get.
A HAIRCUT and shave.
HE PRACTICED an hour.
MAKING SIGNS.
IN THE looking glass.
SO THE French barber.
WOULD UNDERSTAND him.
AND THEN he went in.
AND WIGGLED his fingers.
THROUGH HIS hair.
AND STROKED his chin.
AND THE barber grinned.
AND FINISHED the job.
THEN MY friend thought.
HE'D BE polite.
SO HE gave the barber.
AN AMERICAN cigarette.
WHICH THE barber smoked.
AND MY friend pointed.
TO HIS mouth.
AND SAID "Likee voo."
AND THE barber roared.
AND SAID "You BET.
I USED to smoke 'em.
WHEN I worked.
IN INDIANAPOLIS.
AND BELIEVE me.
THEY SATISFY!"

HERE'S a smoke that talks in any language and needs no interpreter. Light up a Chesterfield, draw deep—and more plainly than words your smile will tell the world "They Satisfy." It's the blend that does it—and you can't get "Satisfy" anywhere except in Chesterfields, for that blend can't be copied!
