

WOMEN JOURNALISTS GET OUT ANNUAL 'HANDSHAKE'

Velma Rupert Editor of Paper
Published for Alumnae

The third annual number of The Handshake, official publication of the local chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, women's national honorary journalistic fraternity, went to press yesterday and will be ready for circulation this morning. The publication is edited by Velma Rupert, and Mary Lou Burton, associate editor, and is published for the alumnae of the organization. The third edition is a three-column, four page publication.

The front page of The Handshake contains news of what is going on around the journalism department of the University and the work done by Theta, the local chapter, on the campus during the past year. The feature of the little sheet is a near full column of rippling rhyme by some observer which includes a thrust at the aspirations and exhalations of the "active gang."

The remainder of the publication is devoted to short letters received by the active members from the alumnae, most of whom are connected either directly or indirectly with newspaper work. According to the letters, the alumnae are all making good at their chosen profession. Two members of the chapter, Frances Cardwell and Grace Edgington, a member of the faculty who founded the local chapter, have had short stories accepted by magazines. Most of the letters came from Oregon, a few come from points all over the country and one brings news of Lucile Saunders who is on the staff of the Buenos Aires Herald and also on the United Press correspondence staff from the Argentine capital.

ONE FAMILY IN WILDS SEEKS PRIVATE TEACHER

Interesting Opportunity Offered in Eastern Oregon for Student of University

Out in far Eastern Oregon are four children ranging in ages from six to eleven years who, because they are living too far away from a regular school, must needs have a private instructor. Which seems to be another case of the mountain and Mohammed. The parents of these children are offering a salary of $60 a month, board and room, for a teacher who will come prepared to give the children instruction in elementary school subjects. Fare to their place of residence will also be advanced.

Communication has just been received at the president's office from the parents, to the effect that they desire of employing a young woman who has had University training to act as tutor for the children, for the remainder of the year. School will be conducted in the children's home, where the instructor will live. President Campbell, to whom the identity of the parents is well known, is of the opinion that this situation offers a very interesting experience for some young woman who cares to take up work of this kind. Anyone interested in the matter is requested to make further inquiry at the office of the president.

STUDENT BODY LEADERS TO MEET IN CORVALLIS

Conference of Executives Will be Held
In May; Coast Universities to Send Leaders

The Pacific Association of Student body presidents will hold a conference at O. A. C. in May, according to Lyle Bartholomew, president of the A. S. U. O., and also president of the organization. At this time all newly elected presidents of the student bodies of the universities and colleges on the coast will meet to consider the various problems of the colleges which they represent.

The University of Montana, University of British Columbia, and the University of Utah have all signified their intention of joining this organization and will probably send their executive officers to the conference at Corvallis. The date of the meeting will be announced soon.

EUROPEANS TO BE AIDED

Freshmen Girls Behind Friendship
Fund Drive on the Campus

A student Friendship Fund drive has been started on the University campus and is being carried forward by the freshmen women. This fund is a nation-wide movement to help European students to continue their studies. The appeal for aid by the foreign students is directed only to the students of this country and at the present time, practically all the colleges of the United States are behind the drive.

The freshmen women recently voted to support the movement on this campus and have been making contributions to the fund. Norma Wilson, president of Triple A, is in charge of the matter and a committee has been appointed for the soliciting and collection of the pledges. Those on the committee are as follows: Josephine Evans, chairman, Elizabeth Kerr, Marion Dunsmore, Margaret Rankin, and Florence Buck.

FACULTY COMMITTEE TO ENTERTAIN DR. ZIMMERN

Five Men Represent Fields Scholar is Interested in; Dr. Clark Appointed Chairman

A committee of five faculty members has been appointed to arrange for the reception of Dr. Alfred E. Zimmern, noted scholar, who, with Madame Zimmern, will come to this campus on Wednesday of next week to deliver a series of lectures. Dr. R. C. Clark of the history department is chairman of the committee. Those assisting him are Dr. J. H. Gilbert, of the department of economics, Dr. George Rebec, of the department of philosophy, Dr. James Barnett, of the department of political science, and Dean Colin V. Dymont of the school of literature, science, and the arts. They are considered a representative group from the "active" in which Dr. Zimmern is interested.

Dr. Zimmern and Madame Zimmern are expected to arrive in Eugene either Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning. On Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock there will be given a dinner at Hendricks hall by the faculty members in honor of the distinguished visitors. It is understood that Doctor and Madame Zimmern will speak, for both of them are able talkers. No definite arrangements have been made for Madame Zimmern to speak elsewhere, but social affairs are being planned in her honor by the faculty women under the direction of Mrs. R. C. Clark.

Dr. Zimmern, according to the tentative plan, will lecture before two different groups. Whatever the nature of these groups, they will be opened to the public generally. It is hoped by those in charge of Dr. Zimmern's schedule that he will be heard by all the students in the University.

HIGH SCHOOLS APPROVE STUDENT CONFERENCE

Letters Received by A. S. U. O. Show
Favorable Feeling Toward Editors
and Officers Meeting

That the plan for the conference of high school officers and editors at the University is being received favorably throughout the state by principals of high schools as well as the students is shown by the number of answers which have already been received at the executive office of the A. S. U. O. in answer to letters recently sent out to the high school principals.

The conference will be held on the campus April 14 and 15. Winifred Graham is in charge of inviting all the students eligible to be here at that time. Plans for the entertainment of these visitors will be announced later and all University students will be asked to co-operate in making this conference a success.

NEVADA PLANS BIG HOLIDAY

PROPOSED BUILDING PLAN MAY HELP FRATERNITIES

Dr. Boynton Originates Idea to Work on Bond Basis

A plan is under consideration whereby fraternities will be enabled to build houses, paying for them in installments covering a long period, according to Dr. W. P. Boynton, of the physics department, who is the originator of the plan. The plan would call for the co-operation of several houses, each house issuing bonds covered by a mortgage on the property. There would be nine payments a year, which would cover the interest, insurance and part of the original debt.

A secretary hired by the houses would have charge of the payments that might arise. Dr. Boynton believes that a group of the prominent business men of the town could be interested in forming a company to market the bonds. "The payments," he said, "could be figured out so that they would finish at the same time that the bonds would be due. In case of the defaulting of one of the fraternities, the company could either sell the equity of the house or dispose of it outright." The building expenses could be cheapened by contracting all of the work to the same company.

Though nothing definite has been done Dr. Boynton believes that it would not be hard to put this plan into effect.

CONTEST ENDS MARCH 15

14 Manuscripts Are Now Entered for
Edison Marshall Prize

The judging will be done as rapidly as possible and the award of $30 will be given to the successful competitor some time in the spring.

GOSHEN GOAL OF HIKERS

Dr. Lancefield Will Lead on Last
University Tramp of Term

"Sixteen miles through what is said to be one of the earliest settled regions of the valley with Goshen as the goal is the plan for the all-University hike to be made today, according to Dr. Lancefield, of the department of zoology who will lead the party. The party will leave on the Springfield car at 9:30. This will be the last of the term.

From the end of the car line the hikers will go to Natron, cross the Willamette river and continue to Goshen over the road near Pleasant hill. On the return the party will follow the Pacific highway.

The Condon Club supplies coffee on these expeditions for a charge of five cents. Hikers must bring their own lunches. Cameras may be put to good use during the trip, it is said, for the line of march passes through much beautiful country.

Stanford University, Calif., March 10 (P. I. N. S.)—Many Pacific Coast athletic clubs, colleges, and high schools have entered the invitational swimming meet soon to be held at Stanford. Each organization will be allowed to enter two men in each event, and each man will be allowed to swim in one event and the relay. Several Pacific Coast champions will swim, and it is believed that some records will be lowered.

'POP' CONCERT BRINGS $66.50 TO ORCHESTRA

Success of Entertainment May Cause
Others in Spring; Money to be Used to Buy Music

Receipts at the University symphony "Pop" Orchestra concert last Thursday evening amounted to $66.50, according to Fred Lorenz, manager for the organization. Mr. Lorenz expressed himself as well satisfied with the results of this initial attempt at a "Pop" concert series. The management is planning to give three similar concerts next term in addition to the annual home concert.

Almost all of the receipts of the concert are clear profit. Some of the money will be used to buy music the lack of which has been hindering the work of the Orchestra for some months. The remainder will probably be used in helping to finance the pending eastern Oregon tour, according to the manager.

Some comment was occasioned by the posters which advertised the concert. They were designed by Lucile Garber.
