

ASSEMBLY SPEAKER

last night for Walla Walla, Washington, where he will speak to the students at Whitman College. He is on his way east after an extended tour.

The musical feature of the assembly was a duet by Gwladys Keeney and Vera Price, accompanied by Ronald Reid. The invocation was given by Rev. Frank Fay Eddy, pastor of the Unitarian church.

New Customers
This Year

We are now extending the benefits of modern electric service to more than 1300 new customers each year. To reach and serve them requires a large amount of new property construction.

In order to obtain new capital for the extensions and improvements required by the public, the Company pays a reasonable rate of return to investors.

An investment in our
