

FROSH TRACK MEN BEAT HIGH SCHOOLS IN MEET

Babes Score 69; North Bend Second with 21

VIRDEN'S TOTAL HIGHEST

Coach Hayward Uses Girls as Field Assistants

The frosh track squad were returned easy victors over their high school opponents in the meet staged on Hayward field Saturday afternoon, by nailing 69 points to their pennant. North Bend high school finished second with 21, Eugene high third with 14, and Franklin high fourth with 13.

Ben Virden of Oregon was high point man of the day, taking three firsts, one tie for first, and one second, netting him 22 points in all. He took firsts in the 100-yard dash, 220-yard low hurdles, and the broad jump; second in the shot put, and tied with Bracher of Oregon for first in the high jump.

Among the high school athletes, Kjelland of North Bend was high point man, taking first in the javelin, second in the discus, third in both the broad jump and shot put, totaling him 10 points. North Bend showed superiority over the other two high schools throughout the contest.

Yearlings Look Better
The results of Saturday's competition for track honors speaks well for both the coaches and the men. It has been only by the most persistent efforts on the part of all concerned that the green yearling aggregation has been worked down to fighting trim. They are rapidly developing to a point where they can offer real competition to their athletic rivals.

Coach Bill Hayward started something new in the way of field judges when he appointed some of his physical education co-eds as assistants. They were Misses Rawlings, Clark, Conklin, and Snook. Bill says they are better than the men he has used before because they are not running all over the field like spectators trying to be at the finish of each event. Hayward meets these girls twice a week and has a chance to give them adequate instruction. In Saturday's inter-organization meet the coach is going to appoint letter men as head judges and again use the girls as assistants, so pleased is he with their work.

KING IN RACE

term as president of the Y. M. C. A. He is a member of the Emerald and Lemon Punch staffs and belongs to Hammer and Coffin, and is a member of the Junior Week-end committee. He is a member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

Curly Lawrence, third entrant in the race for the editorship of the Emerald, has put in two years' service on the staff of the publication and a like period on the Oregon staff. He is chairman of publicity for the Greater Oregon committee, chairman of the student drive committee, and for two years has held the post of campus correspondent for the Oregonian. He was president during the past year of Sigma Delta Chi, national honorary journalism fraternity, and is a member of Delta Tau Delta.

Council Jobs Wanted

The two who aspire to become junior representative on the Student Council are Henryetta Lawrence and Betty Pride. Both are well known members of the sophomore class and have been taking an active part in student body and class activities.

Henryetta Lawrence is a member of the Emerald staff and has been active in Y. W. C. A. work. She is a member of Kwama and Kappa Alpha Theta.

TROUBADOURS PLAY FRIDAY

The student body dance which will be given next Friday evening will be under the auspices of the University Troubadours, who will furnish the music. This organization is part of the University orchestra and has proved very popular. The dance will begin at 8:15 at the Woman's building, unless otherwise announced. Fifty cents will be the admission.

DOUGLASS WRITES REVIEW

Prof. H. R. Douglass, of the school of education, is the author of a book review which appears in the April number of Educational Administration and Supervision, on the Monograph Standardized Reading Tests written by C. W. Stone of Washington State college and published by the Teachers' college at Columbia university. "The Questionnaire Method of Educational Research" by Prof. Douglass recently appeared in an issue of School and Society. It is a brief article dealing with the uses and benefits of the questionnaire method in educational research.

THREE CEMENT COURTS REGARDED INSUFFICIENT

Bartholomew Favors Additions; Many Names on Petitions; Dirt Courts to Believe Congestion

"Three paved tennis courts for a University student body of over 1800 is certainly not enough," said Lyle Bartholomew, president of the Associated Students, speaking yesterday afternoon on the need for courts which is being largely agitated on the campus at the present time. "Petitions are being circulated and many have already been turned in with their quota of signatures. The remainder will be out until tomorrow noon so that those who have not yet signed may have a chance to do so."

"The impression has spread over the campus," said Bartholomew, "that since the dirt courts are being put into shape the need will be satisfied, and I wish to correct this rumor. In fixing the dirt courts we intend only to relieve the congestion until the cement courts are ready for play, that is if the intramural sports committee will consent to the construction of cement courts."

DOROTHY DICKEY TO GIVE PIANO RECITAL MONDAY

Date Changed from Tuesday Because of Siefert-Coon Concert; Chopin and Schumann to Be Played

Dorothy Dickey, a senior in the University School of Music, will give her graduation recital in piano at the Methodist church on Monday evening, May 8. Miss Dickey will receive her bachelor of music degree in June and at present holds the John Stark Evans scholarship in piano which was awarded for the winter and spring terms. The recital will be given on Monday evening instead of Tuesday, as was previously announced, because of the conflict with the Siefert-Coon recital which is to be given on Tuesday.

While a high school student Miss Dickey studied music at the University of Montana, and in 1915 was awarded a gold medal in music. Her program on Monday will be a comprehensive one, two Chopin numbers and one by Schumann perhaps being the most interesting from the standpoint of music lovers. The Mendelssohn concerto in G minor which will be played by Miss Dickey, assisted by Annabelle Denn at the organ, will undoubtedly be the climax of the recital.

EDUCATORS WILL SPEAK

Prof. F. L. Stetson of the school of education will address the assembly of a Portland high school Monday, on the development of abilities. C. A. Gregory, professor of school administration, will give an address, "Making an Educative Situation," Saturday, May 6, before the local institute at Jennings Lodge, at which place Superintendent S. S. Duncan, of McMinnville, will also speak.
