

JUNIOR WEEK-END CANOE FETE FLOATS VARIOUSLY NAMED

Seventeen Entries to Change
Mill Race into Fairyland with Birds and Ships

PROGRAM IS ANNOUNCED

Fourteen Hundred Capacity of Completed Bleachers;
Prom Arranged

With the permanent bleachers completed, names of the floats of all organizations handed in, and a large committee actively working on plans for the annual canoe fete presentation, the prospects for a record-breaking mill race event Friday night, May 18, seem good. Rumors as to the ideas being acted upon by the various houses in preparing their floats indicate that some unusually attractive and novel effects will be carried out.

Entries Are Varied
The lineup of entries for the fete is as follows:
Alpha Chi Omega and Sigma Chi—Madrigal.

Alpha Delta Pi and Bachelordon—La Pinta.

Alpha Phi and Alpha Tau Omega—Neptune and his Daughters.

Alpha Sigma and Delta Tau Delta—Pharaoh's Court.

Chi Omega and Sigma Alpha Epsilon—Adoration.

Delta Delta Delta and Sigma Nu—The Spell of India.

Delta Gamma and Phi Gamma Delta—Lalita Fuentes.

Delta Zeta and Beta Theta Pi—The Swan.

Gamma Phi Beta and Delta Theta Phi—The Witching Hour.

Hendricks Hall and Chi Psi—Vanity Garden.

Kappa Alpha Theta and Kappa Delta Phi—"The Ship of the Holy Grail" (from "Solomon's Ship," by Abbey.)

Kappa Kappa Gamma and Kappa Theta Chi—Bon Bons.

Oregon Club—A Grecian Ship.

Pi Beta Phi and Phi Sigma Pi—The Jade God.

Susan Campbell and Kappa Sigma—The Phantom Ship.

Thacher Cottage and Friendly Hall—Utility.

Zeta Eho Epsilon and Phi Delta Theta—The Love Ship.

Bleachers Completed Saturday

The bleachers, which were completed Saturday, will provide seats for about 1400 spectators. An attempt will be made this year to run the floats down the race at regular intervals, and it is the plan to put on the entire fete in one hour and a half. To do this, some of the brush will be cleared off the race, and a system of starting bells will be used. Every effort is to be made to avoid confusion, and send the floats down the race in proper order at the right time.

A novel and attractive summer garden effect, selected as the theme of this year's decorations for the Junior Prom, is working out well. Nothing will be left out to produce the desired atmosphere—stars, lattice work, pale moonlight, beautiful shrubbery—all will be included.

Gaieties Start Thursday
The program for the entire Junior Week-end festivities has been completed, and it leaves the hours from early

Fundamentals of Business Taught in Commerce Courses

"The thing that we want to convey to the new student registering in the University is the difference between vocational and professional training in business," said Dean Robbins in an interview yesterday. "Oregon's school of commerce offers professional training in business," he continued. But there is a real distinction between the two aims of business training.

The aim of this school, according to Dean Robbins, is to get away from the technical training offered by other schools which fit a student for such positions as office clerks, stenographers, file clerks, typists, and the like. The school of business administration of the University of Oregon offers training in fundamental principles of business, not the technical courses, which do not include the basis of business organization.

"The aim of this department is to reach and outline the causes of good

SENIOR MEETING WILL DISCLOSE MYSTERIES

Wearers of the Sacred Headgear Will Work Out Plans for Future
Events Tonight at 4:00

Members of the senior class possess knowledge of a mystic event which is slated to occur within the next few days, but they are guarding their secret zealously and none but members of the lofty clan have an inkling as to what is going to happen. They will meet this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. hut at which time further details of the event will be uncovered. In the meantime rumors of another "Senior leap week" fill the air. President Leith Abbott refuses to shed a ray of light on the situation but further incites campus wonder by urging that seniors turn out 100 per cent for the meeting this afternoon.

Some of the campus wiseacres sent a beauty contest and are grooming themselves so as to make a good appearance at the meeting tonight. Others hold that the coming election has something to do with the contemplated action, but the fact remains that but few students on the campus have anything but prophecies as to what the sombrero wearers are going to spring on the unsuspecting campus.

DOUBLE-HEADER IS TODAY

VARSITY TO MEET HUSKIES AT 11: AND 4 O'CLOCK

Washington State Takes Second Game from Lemon-Yellow Nine by Score of 10 to 0

The Washington-Oregon baseball game which was scheduled yesterday afternoon at 4, had to be postponed on account of the heavy rainfall, and as a result the two games will be played today, weather permitting. The first game is scheduled for 11 o'clock, while the second is billed for 4 this afternoon. The Washington Huskies have already conquered the Varsity twice in opening conference series played at the outset of the Lemon Yellow's northern trip by 13-6 and 13-2 scores, and while they have not tangled as yet this year with Washington State college, the other outstanding conference nine, they are doped by many baseball followers as this year's bunting winners.

The visitors have practically the same lineup that made them runners-up for last year's flag, and that toured the Orient last summer. They may be expected to play some real baseball. They are well fixed as to a battery, with Harper, Setzer and Leonard going good on the mound and with Spike Maloney receiving in rare form. Coach Bohler is uncertain as to who will start in either game today but no men having 11 o'clocks will be allowed to cut their classes, according to the coach. The coach stated that any of the pitchers was liable to be called on to work in the games, with the possibility that one of the infielders may be used.

In Saturday's game on Cemetery Ridge the Washington State Cougars trampled the Varsity under a fusillade of 15 hits and walked off easily with the long end of a 10-0 score. Heavy hitting by the visitors coupled with numerous Varsity errors was responsible for the large score.

Skadan, working for the visitors, held the Lemon Yellow to three lone bingles, whiffed eight and issued one walk. Rollo Gray, twirling for the Varsity, pitched tight ball up to the ninth inning when a fusillade of Cougar hits netted five runs. Gray struck out eight and granted but two free trips to first.

Oregon got off to a bad start in the first frame when one lone safety, numerous errors and loose fielders netted the Staters four runs. The Varsity was held safe throughout the contest and due to their inability to hit Skadan's offerings, endangered the Cougar lead at no time.

CAMPUS LUNCHEON TO BEGIN PROGRAM FOR MOTHERS' DAY

First Meeting of Guests to Be at Meal in Front of Deady Hall

WEEK-END PLANS READY

Music Fraternities Will Give
Concerts; Special Church Services Arranged

Detailed arrangements are now being completed for the entertainment of the mothers of the students of the University next week-end. Wayne Akers, general chairman of the Mothers' Day committee, has completed his organization to carry out the proposed program for the week-end.

The mothers will gather for the first time on the campus for the campus luncheon which will be held at 12 o'clock on Saturday, May 13. If weather permits, the food will be served out of doors in front of Deady Hall. Service tables and chairs for the visitors will be placed on the green sward and the University Symphony Orchestra will be on hand to furnish music with the meal.

Fred Lorenz, in charge of the luncheon, promises that the best food will be provided, since it is to be supplied by campus organizations. A booth is to be established on the campus today where those not members of living organizations may deposit 50 cents in contribution to the fund which will be used to purchase ice cream and other necessaries.

Lorenz Asks Cooperation

"We want cooperation between the houses in coming forward with their share of the provisions for the luncheon," said Lorenz yesterday. "This week-end is a time of importance and interest to the entire student body, and it is only with the support of everyone that such a luncheon as we are planning will take place without a hitch. One way of showing our appreciation for our mothers is to give them the best of attention while they are our guests and it should be especially evident in the matter of a luncheon."

Those working with Fred Lorenz in handling the luncheon are: Managers, Marian Swartz, Francis Altstock; ice cream, Horace Westfield; collections, Vern Bullock, Marian Linn; utensils, Glen Morrow, Maybelle Leavitt; seating, John Gavin, Pat Ireland; serving, Margaret Beatie, Elizabeth Kerr. Girls from the various organizations will assist in the serving.

Knights to Assist

Saturday morning trains will be met. The Oregon Knights will assist in this as well as in conducting the mothers about the city on a sight-seeing tour during the morning. Roy Veatch will manage the guides for the visitors. The luncheon is expected to last from 12 until about 2 o'clock. After luncheon until 4 o'clock there will be a general inspection of campus buildings with the students in charge.

Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock a special reception for mothers will be held at the Woman's building by the Woman's league. Ella Rawlings is in charge of plans for this. Tea will be served and some music is promised.

Students are expected to entertain their mothers and families privately for the evening meal on Saturday. Arrangements are to be made with the Anchorage, Ye Sampa Shoppe and the Oregona to serve special dinners for them. Later in the evening a concert will be given at Villard hall by Mu Phi Epsilon and Phi Mu Alpha, musical organizations.

Special Sunday Service

On Sunday special services for the commemoration of Mothers' day will be held in all the churches. At 3 p. m. a University vesper service will take place at the Methodist church. The program will contain special music given under the direction of John Stark Evans. Very brief talks will be made by P. L. Campbell, president of the University; Lyle Bartholomew, president of the associated students; Professor F. S. Dunn, and Mrs. Irene Geringer, member of the board of regents. Further details of the program for the week-end will be announced later.

DEAN DYMENT POSTPONES TRIP

Dean Colin V. Dymont, who received word last week that a brother in Ontario, Canada, had been seriously injured in an accident, and had expected to leave at once, has received a later message to the effect that his brother is somewhat improved. Dean Dymont will postpone his trip for further news of his brother's condition.

Student Candidates Announce Platforms For Coming Election

President Lyle Bartholomew Makes Appointment of Board to Handle Balloting and Counting;
Time Limit for Filing Petitions Passes with Only
One Application in; Ernest Richter to Run for Position as Junior Man on Student Council

With elections but a day away comes the announcement of platforms by candidates for the two major student body offices and for the editorship of The Emerald and of the appointment of an election board.

To the acute surprise of those who watch and listen but one nominating position was filed Saturday, the last day of grace, and that by a fifth candidate in the race for Junior man on the student council in the person of Ernest A. Richter, sophomore in the school of journalism and a night editor on The Emerald.

Pledges issued by three A. S. U. O. presidential aspirants, George King, Chuck Lamb, and John MacGregor; the two candidates for the vice-presidency, Owen Callaway and Dick Sundeleaf; and the three men who seek the editorship, Ep Hoyt, Curly Lawrence, and Ken Youel, follow in full.

PRESIDENT

John MacGregor, '23—

"Following is my platform:

1. The student body president should endeavor always to serve the interests of the entire student body, regardless of any group or faction.

2. I have faith in the ability of Oregon students to solve their own problems, and through self-government alone can the ideals of democracy be put into practice on the campus.

3. The Greater Oregon committee should include every student in the University. There must be harmony and close cooperation among all student body committees.

4. Traditions that are consistent with Oregon's progress must be carefully guarded. This should include, by all means, the maintenance of the Oregon distinctly democratic 'hello'."

Chuck Lamb, '23—

"If elected to the office of president of the student body, I pledge myself to fully and completely carry out each provision of this platform:

1. A liberal interpretation of the

2. The continuance of all worth-constitution.

while traditions.

3. A thorough investigation of campus opinion on all issues of importance.

4. Unification of the campus through a representative and democratic administration.

5. The installation of student government.

6. A sound business administration.

7. The placing of the interests of the University above any narrow personal issues.

8. A vigorous campaign that Oregon may receive her share of the high school athletes."

George King, '23—

"My platform is as follows:

Constructive measures—The formation of a Campus Congress or student opinion group as a tangible step toward student government, each group and separate interest to select its representatives according to their numbers. They will convene as occasion demands, and as organized, will be able to correctly interpret campus opinions as to matters in hand. At present there is no way of ascertaining campus opinions except by a long-drawn-out canvass of living groups, interfraternity councils, the Emerald, committee opinion, personal canvass, and so forth. I do not think the student body realizes the difficulties and responsibilities connected with student government.

I favor the graduate manager's new system of handling student managers. The minor sports and intramural sports should be on a firmer basis.

General policy—Tightness of organization with fine adjustment of authority and direct fixation of responsibility to accomplish A. S. U. O. business with dispatch and fairness to all. I favor the regulation and enforcement of old Oregon rules and traditions by time-approved methods and with increased vigor."

VICE-PRESIDENT

Dick Sundeleaf, '22—

"If entrusted by the associated students with the office of vice-president of the student body, I will endeavor to discharge the duties pertaining to my office in a business-like and unprejudiced manner. I consider my pledge as a contract to cooperate fully with the students for a mightier Oregon."

Owen Callaway, '23—

"I stand for a progressive policy which will cause the continued growth of the University, and which will provide for changes in methods as conditions warrant them. I favor the new amendment which provides for a centralization of the various activities committees. If elected, I will cooperate with the president in every phase of student life, and endeavor to secure careful committee administration, centralization of all committee activity, careful use of funds, and at the same time do my best to carry on Oregon spirit and traditions in a way which will be to the best interests of the individual students and the University as a whole."

EDITOR

Ken Youel—

"If elected to the editorship of the Oregon Daily Emerald I shall maintain an editorial and news policy which shall at all times be firm and consistent with the best interests of the student body and of the University. My decisions will be based upon a careful study of representative facts and having weighed the evidence on both sides, I shall endeavor to be fair and impartial in the execution of the policy decided upon."

Curly Lawrence—

"If elected my policy will be:

1. To cover the campus news thoroughly and present it in a fair and creditable journalistic manner.

2. To take a vigorous and clearly defined stand on campus affairs, based on thorough, sincere, and conscientious news-gathering.

3. To make the Emerald an unprejudiced medium of student activities and opinion.

4. To create an expansive policy designed to meet the increasingly diversified needs of a growing cultural institution."

Ep Hoyt—

"If elected editor of the Oregon Daily Emerald I will endeavor to the utmost of my ability, based on over two years' experience in the various student publications, to carry out the following platform:

1. To make the Emerald in its news columns and in its editorials the mouthpiece of student opinion and the reflector of campus sentiment.

2. To give publicity and space to all collegiate activities in equal amounts as they are of interest and importance to the student body, and to give the news while it is news.

3. To pursue a sound and constructive policy on all matters pertaining to the University that will make for a mightier Oregon, and to lend the correspondence columns of the Emerald impartially to the expression of student sentiment.

4. To uphold all the better and worth-while traditions of this University, but refuse to follow blindly any traditions, movements or sentiments which are not backed by the student body regardless of outside influences which might be brought to bear, and endeavor to execute the will of the student body in all departments of the Emerald without fear or favor. I favor the proposed amendments."

SECRETARY

Margaret Jackson—

Sole candidate for the secretaryship, has prepared no platform.

Election Board Announced

Norton Winnard, retiring vice-president, has been appointed general chairman of the election board, according to announcement made by Student President Lyle Bartholomew. Twenty-four students have been chosen to work under Winnard in the usual capacities of clerks, inspectors and checkers. Villard

CAMPUS ASSEMBLY WILL BE FEATURED THURSDAY EVENING

Letters Will Be Presented to Men's and Women's Basketball Teams

AFFAIR TO BEGIN AT 8:00

Men's Glee Club to Give Concert; Jensen and Wegner Get Awards

A double program of caroling by the Men's Glee club and the presentation of this year's awards, which were not ready to be presented at the regular show in the Woman's building early in April, will be staged on the steps of McClure hall Thursday evening beginning at 8 o'clock.

The concert is the second of the season and of the series which was instituted for the first time this spring by President Lyle Bartholomew. The first concert was given by Mu Phi Epsilon, woman's musical fraternity, about two weeks ago.

The plan of awarding the letters and pins at this open air concert is due to the delay in the shipment of the awards from the factories, and also the fact that the award day was newly instituted this year, and the plans have not adjusted themselves to existing conditions.

All of the men on this year's basketball team will receive their sweaters at this concert. The awards will be presented by the coaches. The members of the women's basketball team, who have earned their letters, will receive them at this time, and possibly the pins of the glee clubs and orchestra will be given out, although the last is not yet certain.

The members of the teams who will receive awards are—Girls' basketball: Oletta Pederson, Marjorie Flegel, Pearl Lewis, Helen King.

Varsity basketball: Arvin Burnett, Hadden Rockey, Mare Latham, Ralph Couch, Don Zimmerman, Eddie Edlunds, Franz Beller, Leo Goar, Roi Andre, Franz Alstock.

Wrestling: Walter Wegner.

Track: Pete Jensen.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HOLDS ELECTION TODAY

Fred Lorenz Is Only Candidate on List for President; Other Officers
Will Be Chosen

Election of officers for the Oregon chamber of commerce will be held from 9 until 4 o'clock today on the second floor of the commerce building. Only majors in business administration will be eligible to vote. The results of the election will be interesting, and voting will no doubt be unusually close, judging from the long list of candidates nominated for some of the positions. So far, however, only one candidate is mentioned for president of the chamber of commerce, although some other name may be entered on the ballot. This position, Paul Patterson, who was Fred Lorenz is the sole candidate for president previously named, has withdrawn from the list of nominees and so far no other has appeared.

Of the ten named for student trustees, five will be chosen. Three faculty trustees will be chosen from the six nominated.

The list of nominees reads as follows: For president, Fred Lorenz; vice-president, Irwin Adams, Jason McCune; treasurer, Ivan McKinney, George McIntyre; secretary, Miriam Schwartz; student trustees, Marcella Berry, Jean Mitchell, Joe Skelton, Ray Harlan, Victor Brocker, Donald Breakberry, Edward Tapfer, Charles Jost, Joe Bickle, John Simpson; faculty trustees, Dean E. C. Robbins, Dr. R. L. Rutter, P. W. Janney, F. E. Polts, A. L. Lomax and Miss Madeline McMannis, all of the business administration staff.

The election board is composed of James Say, Henry Hierdt, Ila Nichols, Edward Harvey and Professor Janney.

JUNIOR CLASS WILL MEET

A meeting of the junior class will be held Thursday evening at 7:15 in Villard hall, according to Tom Wyatt, president of the class. Special business concerning the arrangements for the junior class picnic and the Junior Week-end festivities will be considered. Other than this any general business presented will be discussed. Because of the importance of the meeting Wyatt urges all members of the class to turn out.
