CLASS IN EDITING PUTS OUT CITY SUNDAY PAPER

Eugene Register Work of University Journalism Students; Raymond Lawrence Is Editor

Reviewing the main aspects of Lane county's industrial, agricultural, literary and social activities, the Sunday Morning Register was written and edited by the editing class of the school of journalism. The usual telegraphic weekly news was practically supplanted by local stories covering almost the whole field.

This is the first time the editing class has ever published a Sunday paper, although it is a yearly custom to put out one issue of the Register. Raymond Lawrence was editor. The others in charge of departments were: Arne Rae, managing editor; Earl Voorhies, telegraph editor; Lyle Bryson, society editor; Madelene Logan, women's editor; Floyd Maxwell, city editor; Ep Hoyt, sports. Others on the staff were: Arnold Anderson, Ruth Austin, Velma Rupert, John Dierdorff, Florence Skinner, Claire Beale, Alexander Brown, Allan Carneross, Ernest Haycox.

DEAN LAWRENCE HONORED

Nomination for Honolulu Art Jury Is Received by Head of Art School

The announcement of the nomination of Ellis F. Lawrence, dean of the school of architecture and allied arts of the University, for the jury which is to go to Honolulu in June to judge the work presented in a competition for a war memorial in that city, came to Mr. Lawrence yesterday in a letter from the representative of the Territorial War Commission of Hawaii in San Francisco. According to the letter, Mr. Lawrence is one of five nominees of which three are to be elected to go to the Island early in June to serve on the jury. The nomination is undoubtedly an honor as the jury was to be selected from the foremost architects on the Pacific coast. In case of his election Mr. Lawrence expressed enthusiasm over the possibility of the trip if his business permits it.

Speed? Say, this guy's name is Man-O-War!

TALK ABOUT being QUICK ON the trigger. ONE OF our salesmen. ONCE SAW a man. ROLL A cigarette. AND STOP to light it. JUST THEN a piece OF FINE French pastry. (YOU KNOW the kind. IN THE one-arm joints. THEY CALL 'em "sinkers.") FELL ABOUT ten stories. FROM THE lunch-box. OF SOME wealthy plumber. AND BEANED the man. OUR SALESMAN dashed up. AND SAID, "My dear sir. WHAT HAPPENED?" THE MAN rubbed his dome. AND BEGAN, "I was just LIGHTING A cigarette." "GEE WHIZ," our man said. "HERE—TRY mine. THEY'LL LET you know. YOU'RE SMOKING. AND THEY satisfy. BUT THEY'LL never. KNOCK YOU flat." AND THE man grinned. AND SAID, "Son. IF YOUR smokes. HAVE YOUR speed. THEY'LL SATISFY, all right."

AND speaking of speed, the fastest-growing cigarette on the market is this same Chesterfield. The reason? Simple enough—people like 'em better. That "can't-be-copied blend"—that air-tight package—that moderate price—that "Satisfy" taste—no wonder Chesterfields are leaping ahead. On every count, they certainly do "Satisfy."
