

FOUR DOUGHNUT GAMES WILL BE PLAYED TODAY

Second Round Tomorrow; All Losers Eliminated

Doughnut baseball operations will be resumed today since there are no Varsity games or other events to compete with. The program so far has been very successful, and as worked out by Eddie Durno is the most successful that has been worked out since doughnut baseball has been of importance.

The remainder of the first round of the series which was postponed on account of the wet weather, and unfavorable condition of the field last week, will be run off this week, the plan being to play four games an evening from now on so that the first round, and the first part of the second round can be run off this week.

No teams have been eliminated, but with the second round which begins tomorrow the losers will go out of the race. The best three teams in each league are to play a round robin for the championship, then the two winners in each division will meet in the championship contest.

The standings of the different teams in the doughnut baseball series were announced last night by Eddie Durno, under whose direction the inter-organization games are being played. No team has yet won enough games to assure them of first honors. Following is the standing as announced by Manager Durno:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Oregon Club	1	0	1000
Kappa Sigma	1	0	1000
Sigma Chi	1	0	1000
Fijis	1	0	1000
Phi Sigma Pi	1	0	1000
S. A. E.	0	1	000
Sigma Nu	0	1	000
Chi Psi	0	1	000
Friendly Hall	0	1	000
Beta Theta Pi	0	1	000

The University high school and the R. O. T. C. fields are to be used at the same time in an attempt to play off the games as soon as possible.

The schedule for the rest of the week is as follows: Wednesday at six o'clock—Kappa Sig vs. Sigma Chi on the University high field; Thursday at six o'clock—Delta vs. Kappa Theta Chi, R. O. T. C. field, and A. T. O. vs. Kappa Delta Phi, University field; Friday at four o'clock—Friendly and Sigma Nu, R. O. T. C. field; and S. A. E. vs. Chi Psi on the University high field.

UNIVERSITY PHYSICIAN ASSUMES NEW DUTIES

Dr. Wm. Livingston, Oregon Graduate, Comes to Campus to Take Charge of Health Work

Dr. William K. Livingston, a graduate of the university in the class of 1913, has returned to the campus to take charge as University physician, relieving Dr. William Kuykendall, who has been acting physician pending Dr. Livingston's arrival.

For a year after his graduation Dr. Livingston was assistant in the zoology department here. After leaving the university he taught in the Pendleton high school and while there wrote his thesis for his master's degree, which was given him here in the summer of 1915. This thesis was on the drugs used by quack doctors and its foundation was an analysis of the drugs used by them, which Dr. Livingston made. Dr. Livingston spent one year at the University of Oregon medical school in Portland and then went to the Harvard medical school from which he was graduated as president of his class in 1919.

Since his graduation Dr. Livingston has been on the staff of the Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston. In addition to being house physician he taught classes in minor surgery and held clinic classes for the medical students of Harvard. Dr. Livingston has worked especially as diagnostician in surgery, and thus, Dean Bovari believes will make him especially valuable to the University.

Though he has not yet decided upon what lines he will carry on the health service work, Dr. Livingston said that its scope should be increased, and that it should branch out since at the present time its influence is felt only by those who are really sick.

The appointment of Dr. Livingston as university physician will not cause any important changes in the staff of the health service.

Picture of Louvre, Work by Bartlett, Added to Sculpture Collection

The most recent additions to the collection of photographs of the masterpieces of American sculpture which is being made by members of the Sculpture club are three autographed photographs of the statue of Lafayette by Paul Bartlett, which is now at the Louvre in Paris. According to Professor Fairbanks of the art department, the club expects to have one of the most interesting collections of photographs in the United States which they will later bind into a book which will be the permanent possession of the Sculpture club.

It will cost the student body of the University of Washington $7500 to send their crew to Poughkeepsie, to participate in the intercollegiate tournament to be held the latter part of June.

Reid Imitates Lamp Post; Is Knocked Down

A tragedy almost took place yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock when "Skinny" Reid, well known bicyclist, was almost run over by two ladies in a Ford who became confused at seeing an unfamiliar landmark in the middle of the street in front of the Co-op, and attempting to swerve around the obstruction, true to custom, ran into it. The obstacle, which the driver evidently thought was a misplaced lamp-post, was "Skinny" Reid, who, while peddling by on his bike, had stopped to converse a few moments with some friend in the middle of the street.

Conversation was abruptly terminated, however, with the arrival of the Ford. Excitement reigned for a moment or two until it was discovered that nothing was hurt except the bicycle. This object of locomotion was bent double, and until extensive repairs are made, will probably be consigned to the repair shop.

The unfortunate owner of the damaged vehicle will be forced to travel about the campus on foot for a few days.

RULES FOR INTRA-MURAL COMPETITIONS CHANGED

Committee Decides to Bar Men Who Represent University; Code of Rules to Be Prepared

The Intramural Sports committee at a meeting held yesterday decided that all men that participate in Varsity athletics under the name of the University shall be barred from entering into competition in the intramural meets. There has been a great deal of trouble caused this year by the different rulings of the men in charge of the doughnut schedule.

The ruling which was decided on yesterday will keep Lyle Palmer and Arthur Erickson out of the swimming meet this week end on the grounds that they went to the last meet in Portland last term at the expense of the University, thus taking part in Varsity competition.

The principal reason for having intramural athletics according to members of the committee is for the purpose of building up undeveloped men and inducing them to take part in doughnut competition, which under ordinary circumstances they would not be doing, and is not for the purpose of deciding which organization has the best and most versatile athletes. If this idea were followed out no man of Varsity calibre would be allowed to take part in any of the doughnut games, thus bringing a great many men out who otherwise would be doing nothing but sitting around the fireplace.

The Intramural committee definitely decided at their meeting that next year a written code of rules would be laid down at the beginning of the year, which made this year in the doughnut schedule, would be patterned on the mistakes and would be modeled so that the prime purpose of Intramural athletics, which is the bringing of men not good enough for Varsity teams into competition, will be better observed.

LAME DUCKS WILL HOLD FIRST MEETING TONIGHT

All Eligibles to Meet at Villard Hall at 7 O'clock; Tour of Campus Will Be Made

The Limpid Order of Lame Ducks will hold its first annual meeting tonight at the election polls in Villard hall. All eligibles will meet at Villard not later than seven o'clock and as soon as the final count is made known the old ducks will proceed to gather in the new ducklets and will make a tour of the campus, headed by the organization's one-piece brass band with banners flaunting to the skies.

Every student who has been defeated at some time in a regular student body election is eligible for the club and as there are about 25 of these now on the campus there should be a good nucleus about which to gather the 18 new members who are to be elected tonight. Full plans for tonight's festivities have not been revealed but according to some rumors the successful candidates are likely to be called upon for anything from drinks to speeches.

An incomplete list of those who are eligible is as follows: Elston Ireland, Helen Nelson, John Dierdorff, Ruth Austin, Margaret Scott, Velma Rupert, John Anderson, Ia Nichols, Harry Smith, Alex Brown, Elaine Cooper, Ogden Johnson, Raymond Lawrence, Harry Ellis, Florence Riddle, Art Kuhnhausen, Frenchy DuPaul, Gene Kely, Florence Furbuset, Harry Mayer, Guy Koepf, Ned Twining, "Shrimp" Phillips and Ole Larson. Any whose names have been left out are asked by the "executive council" to come anyway.

H. S. DEBATES NEAR CLOSE

Grants Pass High Ahead; Bout with Pendleton for Championship

The Grants Pass high school debate team won the championship of western Oregon, and the right to debate Pendleton high school team for the state championship by defeating the Salem high school team by a 2 to 1 decision on Friday evening in Villard hall.

A definite date has not been decided upon for the final debate as Grants Pass high school commencement takes place on the evening of May 19, the date which was previously chosen for the last debate.

EUGENE SHRINE CLUB HOLDS INDOOR CIRCUS

Big Event to Be Staged in Armory Today; 3 Performances Planned; Street Parade Included

Today is circus day again! Al. G. Barnes with his "big top" has departed, but the big Indoor Circus being sponsored by the Eugene Shrine club, with its "show grounds" located inside the big new Armory, promises to out rival the circuses of the past with three big performances, two today, one at 2:30 and another at 7:30 tonight, and a big free street parade scheduled to start promptly at 1:30 this afternoon.

Local Shriners who are putting on the big circus promise to eclipse anything in the way of entertainment ever seen in Eugene and to display all their wares in the big parade this afternoon. Everything from clowns to pink lemonade and circus balloons will be on the city streets today for students who still like the atmosphere of the circus.

The Indoor Circus of today and tomorrow night promises to be of especial interest to students, since a few are members of the shrine organization and practically all are acquainted with a few of those who will take leading roles. President Campbell and Professor F. S. Dunn, for instance, are two of those who will take an active part in the circus, which may mean that they will sell balloons on the streets or act as "barkers" for one of the circus sideshows.

The circus itself includes a galaxy of professional talent recruited from the larger circuses of the country. The lineup of talent will play next week in Portland at the Elks' Peace and Prosperity celebration and students will have an opportunity to see in Eugene the same attractions that will be featured there.

LAW CASES ARE DISCUSSED

Judge J. W. Hamilton Gives Address to Students on Court Practice

Judge J. W. Hamilton of the Oregon Supreme Court delivered an address to the students of the law school yesterday morning.

His speech pertained to the technicalities involved in trying cases. In the hour address he spoke briefly of the preparation necessary for actual court practice.

The distinction between good and poor attorneys was also discussed by Judge Hamilton. A good attorney expedites justice while a poor attorney discourages it, said the judge. He advocated oral arguments and brevity in making pleas. Good preparation is harmony between the judge trying the case and the attorney, according to Judge Hamilton.

In speaking of Mr. Wheelwright's topic, President Campbell said: "Mr. Wheelwright will, of course deal with commercial problems, but he will also devote much of his time to conditions in general throughout the Orient. While in the scene, he and his wife enjoyed much of the scenic wealth of that country and visited such beauty shrines as the Taj Mahal, the marvelous temple built by an Indian prince as a memorial to his wife, and the temples of Calcutta."
