

PLANS NEARLY FINISHED FOR JUNIOR WEEK-END

Tickets for Prom Will Be on Sale Next Week

Plans are now nearly complete for the various events of Junior Week-end, according to the reports of the committees on the prom, the canoe fete, the campus luncheon, and other parts of the program.

Tickets for the prom will be placed on sale during Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. They may be obtained at the Co-op or from members of the junior class who will handle them in the various living organizations. The committee in charge is urging early ticket purchasing to avoid the jam at the prom Saturday night. Tickets will sell at $1.00. The prom is to be formal, but no taxis or flowers are to be included as a part of the evening's gaieties. Dancing will start at 8:30, and a six-piece orchestra has been secured. Punch and programs for the occasion have been ordered.

Campus Luncheon Cost Reduced
Campus luncheon plans have been greatly altered, due to the desire to cut down expense, and a scheme has been devised to reduce the cost per student to a minimum. All girls' organizations will furnish sandwiches, and men's organizations will contribute deviled eggs. Each student will be charged 5 cents each for coffee, salad and ice cream. This 15-cent charge will be the only outlay of money, and no tax whatever will be placed on the various organizations, as has been done in the past.

DEAN FOX SPEAKER AT Y. W. SENIOR BREAKFAST

Affair to Be This Morning in Sun Parlor of Woman's Building; Solos on Program

The program for the Y. W. C. A. senior breakfast to be held in the Woman's building this morning has been announced by the committee in charge. LeLaine West, president of the association, will preside as toastmistress. Dean Elizabeth Fox, representing Mrs. Campbell, will speak to the girls. Mrs. George Bohler, chairman of the advisory board, will greet the senior women on behalf of the board, and Margaret Jackson will give a toast in the name of the juniors to which Grace Tigard will respond in behalf of the seniors. Violin selections will be given by Helen Harper and a vocal solo by Viola Powell.

Freshmen girls, under the direction of the boosters' committee, of which Edna Largent is chairman, will be in charge of the serving, and the clean-up work will be carried on under the supervision of the bungalow committee, in charge of Helen Addison.

Junior women who are attending are reminded to bring 50 cents to pay for breakfast for themselves and the senior whom they are escorting. The girls are asked to meet in the Alumni hall at 8:30. Breakfast will be served in the sun parlor and it is hoped to have it over by 10:30 so that it will not in any way conflict with the campus luncheon. A splendid menu and novel decorations are promised and a large number of girls are expected to be on hand.

KOLB AND DILL COMING

If you were allowed behind the scenes when Kolb and Dill present "Give and Take" at the Eugene theater tonight, you would no doubt think that you were in the shops of some electric construction company or a work room of some inventor.

In order to properly reproduce the factory of the Baur Canning Co. (where the scenes of "Give and Take" are laid) with its motors and machines, boilers and other implements, Kolb and Dill have had a number of machines, electrical contrivances, pulleys, belts, boilers to make steam and run the miniature factory that is shown in the set.

15 STUDENTS VACCINATED

Men Planning to Attend R. O. T. C. at Camp Lewis Evade Disease

At least 15 sore arms are on the campus today. For several days the boys who will go to the summer camp of the R. O. T. C. at Camp Lewis have been dropping around at the dispensary to be vaccinated. The injected serums are to insure immunity from smallpox and typhoid fever.

According to the officers of the R. O. T. C., all cadets who attend the summer camp must be vaccinated if they have not been previously inoculated. The officers have not determined how many of the 30 cadets who will attend the camp will have to be vaccinated.
