UNIVERSITY of OREGON

IT IS MAINTAINED by the people of the state in order that the opportunities for a higher education might be open to every determined boy and girl in Oregon. It contains:

The College of Literature, Science and the Arts.	The Graduate School.
The School of Architecture and Allied Arts.	The School of Journalism.
The School of Business Administration.	The School of Law.
The School of Education.	The School of Medicine.
The Extension Division.	The School of Music.
	The School of Physical Education.
	The School of Sociology.

The Forty-seventh Year Opens October 2, 1922

For a catalogue, a copy of the illustrated booklet, and folders on the various schools, or for any information, write to The Registrar, University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon.

Acknowledgement

"The Little Church of the Human Spirit" gratefully acknowledges in this final issue of The Emerald for the year the attendance of and the interest shown by many of its readers during the past three terms.

THE INVITATION—

is given to such as are to return next September to renew the associations connected with the First Unitarian Church, and we hope your interest may be shown by bringing new-comers with you.

RATIONALIZING FAITH—

is our definite objective. We aim to prune religion of the dead wood of much supernatural rubbish that it may grow to nobler proportions.

"THE CREATIVE STRUGGLE"— will be the sermon topic of our Pastor, Frank Fay Eddy, next Sunday morning, the theme idea will be to show how progress can only result from FUSING FAITH WITH DOUBT.

ROBERT McKNIGHT will be the soloist next Sunday.

The service begins at 10:45 o'clock.

The church is on the corner of East Eleventh and Ferry Streets.

King Saxophones and Trumpets owned and used by the O. A. C. Seven Serenaders. Hear them at the New Armory Friday night.

SOME ONE once said,

"Good will is three-fourths of the business." Our service, and our extreme moderation established our reputation.

SO LONG Seniors,

We will be expecting to see you down here at Homecoming. The rest of you—good luck.

Thank You!

To our countless friends of the faculty and student body who, through the present semester now drawing to a close, as well as through preceding years, have tendered us their patronage, we wish to say, "Thank you." It has been a pleasure to have served you and we look forward with eagerness to the beginning of the next semester and your return.
