

MISS HAIR HOME; WAS EAST A YEAR

Cosmopolitan Group in One of Seminar Classes at Columbia

Miss Mozelle Hair of the University extension division has just returned from New York where she attended Columbia University as a graduate student in sociology. Miss Hair has completed all the work for her master's degree except her thesis, which she intends to complete soon.

The early part of the year she was associated with Dr. Franklin Thomas, former director of the Oregon school of social service in Portland and at present superintendent of an orphanage at Hastings-on-the-Hudson.

Later she had charge of recreation for working girls, holding classes in New York City. This position she held until December 1.

Following this work she was chosen as editor of publications for the extension division of Columbia University but gave the work up on July 1 because her time was needed for other duties in the city.

"One of the most interesting features of the University," says Miss Hair, "is that one meets students from all parts of the world. In one small seminar group in sociology a graduate course composed largely of students working for a master's degree, were men who had been superintendents or principals, a rabid trade-unionist, the wife of a New York City university professor, a Y. M. C. A. man, a Danish newspaper man who had been all over the world and was a red-hot socialist, a former superintendent of the municipal lodging house in New York City, who had dabbled in all sorts of social enterprises, a full-blooded negro from the gold coast of Africa whose father had been instrumental in settling a dispute between the British and natives and who, himself, had been a former Oxford student, a Chinese girl, a protestant minister and two Catholic priests. Needless to say we had some very interesting discussions in that class."

Miss Hair made several side trips to places of interest near the university but she says that nothing interested her more than seeing "how New York is fed." There are three big produce markets which are supplied by farmers in and about New York. The produce, other than fruit, is brought to the city and placed on sale at 2 o'clock each morning and is usually all sold out to retail grocers by 9 a. m. The fruit is handled somewhat differently, cars being made up in Chicago with fruit shipped from all parts of the United States. This is brought over the Erie railroad to New Jersey and ferried across the Hudson to be sold on the docks.

LEMMY IS OUT SATURDAY

Students Asked to Hand in Mailing Address to Solicitors

Lemmy is on the press! The news has come in that the Lemon Punch will be mailed to all subscribers on Saturday. The new mailing machine which has been installed in the Punch office will come into use for the first time.

The old delivery system which prevailed last year has been done away with and, according to "Doc" Braddock, editor, students will be able to get their copies better under the new method.

"Some students forgot to give their addresses to the ones who took the subscriptions," says Braddock. "These addresses are absolutely necessary if we mail the magazines." It was suggested that all such persons call in person at the Punch office in the rear of the Co-op store or phone the manager before Saturday.

All solicitors who have not turned in their receipt books are asked by Braddock to turn them in at the Punch office today any time from 2 o'clock until 5.

"Monte Cristo" Gorgeous

Like the London bus driver, who spent his first day off in eight years riding up and down the Strand with fellow bus drivers, film folk of Hollywood go studio visiting during their few days of rest between pictures. But not in a long time had there been such a general visiting day as that accorded the wonderful ballroom set built in the William Fox West Coast Studios at Hollywood for one of the important scenes in the super-special, "Monte Cristo." In addition to the all-star cast of sixteen principals over 200 "extras" were employed in the scene.

"Monte Cristo" has proven to be one of the biggest successes of the screen that has been seen for a long time. It is now the attraction at the Eugene theater. Here is given to the screen a production that will live for a long time. It is startling and elaborate with a gorgeousness that is beyond comprehension. John Gilbert in the role of Edmund Dantes is splendid and brings to the screen real acting. He is supported by an all star cast, including Estelle Taylor, William V. Mong, Robert McKim, Spottswode Aiken, Virginia Faire, Gaston Glass and George Siegmann.

Y. W. C. A. WILL RAISE $1400 ON THE CAMPUS

Committees Appointed from Each Organization

With a budget of $1400 to be raised on the campus the finance committee of the Y. W. C. A. begins its campaign today with a 6 o'clock dinner at the Bungalow for committee members. Voluntary pledges may be made on Wednesday, October 18, Thursday, and Friday, according to Katherine Watson, chairman.

One girl in each living organization has been chosen to work on the committee. These are:

- Alpha Chi Omega.....Wava Brown
- Alpha Delta E.....Mary Parkinson
- Alpha Phi.....Alberta Garson
- Alpha Sigma.....Margaret Seymour
- Alpha Xi Delta.....Margaret Skavlan
- Chi Omega.....Edwins Riechen
- Delta Delta Delta.....Josephine Ulrich
- Delta Gamma.....Mary Clerin
- Delta Zeta.....Frederica Travis
- Gamma Phi Beta.....Georgia Shipley
- Hendricks Hall, Doris Parker, Harriet Viezie, Elizabeth Griggs.
- Kappa Alpha Theta.....Rebecca Ireland
- Kappa Kappa Gamma.....Catherine Spall
- Mary Spiller Hall.....Josephine Evans
- Pi Beta Phi.....Ruth Fowler
- Susan Campbell Hall, Julia Raymond, Bee Myer, Hazel Borders.
- Thatcher Cottage.....Frances Cochran

Eight town girls will be appointed by Dorothy Cushman to assist her in soliciting contributions in the Oregon club.

"Our idea in this campaign is to raise our budget in the shortest possible time," said Miss Watson. "Pledges of money are purely voluntary, of course, but girls who are interested in the purpose of the association usually wish to contribute. Any amount is acceptable from five cents to five dollars and up. Its going to be short and snappy—and we're going to raise that budget or bust! And there's nothing like feeding the committee to start with."

SOPH PARTY IS SATURDAY

All Hazing Will Be Under Sophomores; Harmful Hazing Opposed

Members of the sophomore class decided definitely last night in Villard hall to hold the annual sophomore get-acquainted party at Dreamland hall, down town, Saturday night, instead of combining the sophomore and freshman parties in the Woman's building.

Due to the unexpected absence from school of Tom Hughes, sophomore class president, the class made no arrangements for the first social event of the season, while the other classes secured all available places which were deemed suitable. The proposition was made that the sophs use the sun-room in the Woman's building and intermingle with the freshmen who had reserved the women's gymnasium.

Rather than interfere with the freshman plans the sophs resorted to Dreamland hall which had been objected to on the grounds that it was too small to hold the entire class.

At yesterday's meeting, presided over by Mary Hathaway, vice-president of the class, it was decided to make the party a no-date affair in keeping with the precedent set by past classes. The music for the dancing end of the program will be furnished by Bob Stewart's orchestra. It should be definitely understood, however, that other pastimes than dancing will be enjoyed.

Definite action toward a correction of certain hazing abuses common in the past was taken in the form of a motion stating that all hazing of freshmen this year would be under the direct supervision of the sophomore class. This measure is supported to put an end to such midnight escapades of the past which have been harmful and dangerous to the victims.

Arguments advanced favoring daylight hazing in public opposed to nocturnal dips in the mill-race were that the real purpose of hazing should be to teach the freshmen humility, at the same time affording amusement to as great a number as possible. One exhibition of this kind is the Soph-Fresh mix to be held next Saturday.

The matter of an advisor for the sophomore class was discussed at the meeting but definite action was postponed. Other business included a report by class treasurer Nat Irwin, giving the present financial status of the class as $628 credited, opposed to a debit of approximately $28, being bills sent in by local citizens as a result of the Fresh parade.
