

OREGON CLUB WINS SIGMA NU CONTEST

Murray Bright Light of Game; Hoops Basket From the Center of Floor

In a rough game, featured by many personal fouls, the Oregon Club defeated the Sigma Nu hoopers 17 to 14. Good teamwork was lacking on both sides and most of the points were the results of long shots or fouls.

At the end of the first half the clubmen led 9-8. Early in the last canto they increased their lead to 6 points, but the Sigma Nus rallied and brought the count to 14 to 15. With but two minutes to go, Murray put one from the center of the floor putting the game away. Murray was the bright light of the winners, making 13 of their points. Dudley and Oeff started for the Sigma Nus, each making 5 points. The score: Oregon Club—17 Sigma Nu—14

Nelson F..... Dudley 5
Sutton F..... Oeff 5
Murray 13..... C..... Starr 2
Cahill G..... Bryson
Taylor 2..... G..... Stannell 2
Stein S.....
Gunter 2..... S.....
Zimmerman.....

Due to a misunderstanding the contest between the Phi Sigma Pi aggregation and the Kappa Delta Phi quartet was postponed until a later date.

Today's schedule:
4:00—Chi Psi vs. Bachelor.
5:00—Kappa Sigma vs. Kappa Delta Phi.
7:00—Kappa Theta Chi vs. Phi Delta Theta.
8:00—Friendly Hall vs. Delta Theta Phi.
9:00—Delta Tau Delta vs. Beta Theta Pi.

DOUGHBOY TO BE UNVEILED

Ceremonies to Take Place in Moscow and at St. Anthony, Idaho

Unveiling ceremonies for the "Doughboy," celebrated statue sculptured by Avar Fairbanks, art instructor at the University of Oregon, will take place on November 11 at Saint Anthony, Idaho, and at Moscow, Idaho. The statue will be placed in Moscow, either on the University campus or on the court house grounds. At present the bronze cast is in New York.

Fairbanks' work was finished in the spring and the cast was sent to New York in the summer. It escaped both the University fire and the railroad strike. The statue was sent through California to Texas and from there to New York by ship.

Fairbanks has been asked to exhibit the "Doughboy" at the National Sculpture Society exhibition to be held next year in New York.

HOMECOMING PLANS MADE

(Continued from page one.)

ship of Owen Callaway grows mysterious and whispers of a "South Sea Island Setting."

Bernice Altstock who is in charge of the campus luncheon, where the committee expects to feed 3000 people promises an entirely new menu. Money for this affair will be raised by contributions of 50 cents from each student. This will apply also to students in organizations which will not be asked this year to furnish food.

As far as the committee knows at present, a motion picture operator from the Fox Motion Picture corporation will be present on the campus during the Homecoming festivities.

ANNUAL STUDENT PLEDGE

(Continued from page one.)

an annual affair and since that time approximately 10,000 students have taken the vow of allegiance to the University.

FROSH COACHES GLOOMY

(Continued from page one.)

bolstered somewhat by the turnout in suit of Howard Hobson, ex-Franklin high school halfback and for two years an all-star in the Portland interscholastic league. Hobson had not intended to play football this fall but the lure of the game finally got him, and despite his lack of practice he has been showing up powerfully in the backfield, and will be taken along to Seattle.

Those Who Will Go

Those who are making the trip to the Sound city are Gosser and McMillan, centers; Hunt, Bliss, Pierson and Carlberg, guards; Mautz and Bass, tackles; A. Sinclair, Peak, and Scriptures, ends; Anderson, quarterback; Purvine, Mills, Poulson, Hobson, and Stoddard, halfbacks; Brosterhouse, fullback. The eleven that will start the game is yet not definitely known but in all probability the Frosh will answer the first whistle with Anderson, Poulson, Hobson and Purvine in the backfield and supported by Gosser, Sinclair, Hunt, Bliss, Mautz, Bass, and Peak in the line.

While in Seattle the Oregon contingent will stay at Hotel Fry which is under the management of Dan Bass, an old alumnus of the University.

CATHOLIC LITERATURE W. N. COLLINS' THEME

Students Held Ignorant of Their Own Religion

The lectures that Wilkie Nelson Collins, of the English department of the University, is giving on Catholic literature on Tuesday evenings in the Newman club were arranged by the Rev. Dr. E. V. O'Hara as necessary equipment for Catholic University students.

In his opening lecture Mr. Collins told the incident of his search in Eugene for a copy of John Wesley's Journals which could not be found in either the University or the city library. He expressed his surprise that in a community where Methodism is so strong it's great literary methodism is so strong it's great records of intense devotion in all literature should not have been sufficiently demanded for the libraries to have had it years ago. Because this same carelessness or ignorance was too likely to be characteristic also of the average Catholic student, lectures definitely upon Catholic literature were inaugurated.

The lectures are dealing with the purely literary products of the Catholic spirit rather than with theological or historical works, however important and, as Mr. Collins pointed out, this literature constitutes mainly a manifestation of the lay spirit in the Catholic church rather than the work of its clergy, its doctors and its saints.

The lectures at present are dealing with literature of Middle Ages with readings mainly from the Grail material. The lectures a little later will cover Catholic English literature during the nineteenth century dealing especially with the great movement in poetry that has characterized the Catholic church in England and America during the past 50 years.

The lectures are being attended about equally by non-Catholics and Catholics who are interested in the literary emphasis thus placed upon Catholicism and the Catholic emphasis thus placed upon literature.

METHODISTS TO BANQUET

Representatives of Mission Societies to Discuss Christian Service

A banquet for Methodist students will be given tonight with Miss Jessie Arbuckle of Chicago, and Mrs. C. O. Bowen of Seattle as the principal speakers. The discussion will cover the work that is being done by Methodist young people in the United States, and the openings for Christian service.

Miss Arbuckle, who has been associated with women's work at Yale, is representing the board of home missions and Mrs. Bowen represents foreign missions.

Rev. J. M. Walters of the Methodist church urges that the girls especially should hear Miss Arbuckle. "She is a very interesting speaker," he said, "and is a strong woman in every way."

The banquet is to be held at the Campa Shoppe at 6 o'clock. Students will be charged only twenty-five cents as the women of the church are bearing most of the expense.

"MANSLAUGHTER" AT CASTLE

Said to be a tremendous picture with many punches, Cecil B. De Mille's new Paramount production, "Manslaughter," will be the feature attraction at the Castle theater for four days beginning today.

MISSION WORKERS AT Y. W. C. A. TEA

Costumes of Nations Displayed To Illustrate Talks; Folk Songs Feature

At the second Y. W. C. A. meeting on World Fellowship, in the Bungalow yesterday afternoon, members of a number of the church boards of Eugene spoke of countries in which the churches and the Y. W. C. A. are now carrying on missionary work. Miss Agnes Hall, Episcopal representative spoke on Japan. She stressed the large number of women working in factories in Japan, and the deplorable conditions under which they work, with very little pay, and for indefinite hours.

"Our contribution," asserted Miss Hall, "should be the introduction of the right social and industrial methods to these people."

Mrs. Charles Bowen of the Methodist board told of the remarkable achievements of Chinese students educated in America, who have applied their training to the problems of introducing the Christian ideals to their own people. Mrs. Bowen believes that the Y. W. C. A. has a great part to play in the education of the Chinese women.

Mrs. Burton, the Baptist representative, gave a talk on the six Union Christian colleges for women in the Far East. These are in Tokyo, Japan, Peking and Nanking, China; Lucknow, Madras, and Vellores, India. Four have come into being since the war. None have the necessary building equipment. Gifts for these institutions are desired. Mrs. Burton emphasized the detriment of the caste system in India.

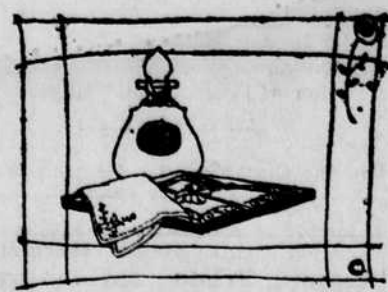

Miss Nellie Cole, a visitor on the campus, and director of a girls' school and orphanage at Smyrna, presented a costume and a face mask in which the Turkish bride appears. Miss Cole read an interesting letter written by a co-worker, from Trebizond, after the Christmas massacre, and the atrocities committed there. The letter told of the destruction of Smyrna, the pitiable flight of refugees to Greece, and of the present need of these destitute peoples, stranded in strange lands.

Mrs. Spelman of the Presbyterian board made an appeal to the spirit of Christian internationalism as the only clue to the assimilation of the thousands of foreign-born flocking to our shores since the war. According to Mrs. Spelman, "We have more Jews in New York than were in Jerusalem before the war. More Hungarians in New York than there are in Vienna. There are groups of Persians, for example, living unto themselves, in little towns in Connecticut."

The Bungalow was decorated for an international tea. Lanterns, fans, and girls in native costumes transformed the room into a garden of nations. The Y. W. C. A. girls sang several national folk songs. The Filipino quartet played a number of selections on their stringed instruments.

EPISCOPAL BANQUET TONIGHT

Miss Agnes Hall, national secretary of Episcopal clubs in the United States, is on the campus and will be the honored guest at a banquet at the Anchorage at 7 p. m., today. This banquet is open to all members of the club and to those who have a preference for the Episcopal faith. There will be a program at which Miss Hall will speak.

Have You Plenty of Handkerchiefs?

We have just received our Christmas stocks of handkerchiefs and are placing them on display today. They're wonderful, to say the least. The assortment is complete. Hundreds and hundreds of dainty 'kerchiefs from the hand-embroidered linens, crepe de chenes, etc., to the practical little cotton ones. See the window display today.

PURE SILK, JAP PONGEE 'KERCHIEFS with colored draw thread borders. 59c or 2 for $1.00

PURE SWISS LINEN HANDKERCHIEFS, scalloped edges and embroidered corners. Colors and white. Dainty boxes. $1.50 box of 3

PURE IRISH LINEN HANDKERCHIEFS in a variety of pretty shades—blue, rose, green, lavender and pink. 15c each or $1.50 dozen

FINE LAWN 'KERCHIEFS, handloom, swiss-embroidered corners. Colors and white. Attractively boxed. 75c box of 3

LADIES' SHEER LAWN HANDKERCHIEFS, colored borders and attractive embroidered corners. 18c each

Ladies' Seal-packerchiefs 3 for 25c.

Linen Seal-packerchiefs 25c each

Our Idea of Millinery Service Is It Yours?

We have a reputation for millinery of smartness, for hats that give satisfaction. We attribute it to our policy of studying first the style and then the customer.

Mrs. Ruth McCallum Carter
(Over First National Bank.)
9th and Willamette Phone 652

If Your Meat Is Good Your Meal Is Good

Meat is a very important factor in every meal. We appeal to House Managers to let us help them with their meat problems. We have just what they want for all occasions.

Eugene Packing Co.

675 Wilamette, Eugene, Oregon
Phone 38 Prompt Deliveries Daily

EXTRA

EXTRA

Dr. Will F. Martin of Washington, D. C.

Field secretary, Religious Liberty Association of America, will address the citizens of Eugene at the

Armory, Tonight

OCTOBER 26TH

on the

So-Called Compulsory School Bill

Come and Hear Him

Judge Stephen A. Lowell will appear with Dr. Martin

Mr. Stivers having refused the opportunity to present his cause, any other advocate of the measure is invited to discuss the bill with Dr. Martin. Questions from the floor or in writing invited.

WILLIAM GLADSTONE STEEL

Secretary of Lane County of the Non-Sectarian and Protestant Schools Committee

(Paid Adv.)

EXTRA

EXTRA

The REX

STARTING TODAY

The captivating star MAE MURRAY in "BROADWAY ROSE"

A glittering romance of the most famous street in the world

CHARLES W. HAWLEY and Our WURLITZER

Rex Feature Comedy "FOOLISH LIVES" "Felix Saves the Day"

The Castle

PLAYING TODAY

Cecil B. DeMille's PRODUCTION "Manslaughter"

with Thomas Meighan Leatrice Joy, Lois Wilson

Adapted from the novel by Alice Duer Miller

BRITZ AND HIS CASTLE ORCHESTRA

Matinee 30c; Night 50c

Why Not

Revel at Our Clever Dinner Dance

Every Friday 6:15-8:15

The Anchorage