

FAMILIAR HAUNTS SOUGHT BY GRADS

Alumni Find Many Changes on Campus, but Oregon Spirit Still Lives as of Yore

"What does it feel like to be an 'alum' and come back to Oregon for Homecoming?"

"Well, it feels lonesome." That was what the 'alum' said first.

Nothing is where it used to be, any more. The school of music? Moved. The school of education? Moved. Too much better buildings, of course, but still these moves make the campus seem new and strange to the homecomer. The art building, and part of the school of journalism? Gone entirely. The new buildings are still, to the sight of the casual observer, nothing but dreams of the future, scaffolding founded upon a wester of mud.

And if you try to find the alumni secretary's office you are turned away from the familiar haunts of the Ad building, where you used to hasten on the last day, to pay your lab fees, and directed to "the little wooden building" back of the Ad building. It's all different. There's no doubt about that.

Pioneer is the Same

Of course the Pioneer's the same—as always was and always will be. Who named him "Pete," anyway? Too bad he can't say "hello" to Oregon's returning sons and daughters—he probably would, if he could. The "hello's" fall for the most part from stranger lips, as the alum goes back and forth on the same old campus paths, where passers-by used to address him by his Christian name, if not by some nickname in which he rejoiced. The "hello's" are different, too, in a way, on account of that—aren't they, alums?

But there's just this about it: the seniors and juniors and the underclassmen may not call you "Bill" or "Skinny" or "Shrimpie," because they don't happen to be fortunate enough to know the nicknames of the old grads. But when they say "hello," though the word comes to you from a stranger, it's the same good old Oregon HELLO. And don't you forget it, you alumni.

Growing School Changes

Of course the place seems different. It ought to. You wouldn't give much for a University that didn't change a good deal, as the years went on, would you? You wanted it to change; and still Homecoming gives you a feeling of a little wistfulness. You don't want the Oregon you knew to be here today and gone tomorrow.

And it isn't here today and gone tomorrow, either. For the Oregon you knew and we knew—the Oregon that "Takes you as a freshman in" And changes all except your skin. Then shakes you freely by the fin. And turns you out in life to win. —well, that's the part of the University that doesn't change and isn't going to change.

For that's the Oregon spirit that keeps us standing in the bleachers, or the grandstand, singing "Mighty Oregon" whether the game was to us or to the other fellow—and by the way, alums, that's a new idea, and isn't it a good one?

And it's the Oregon spirit that gets behind a roughneck party—how many of these did you get in eh?—and runs the Paul Joneses.

And it's the Oregon spirit that makes us all friends while we're here on the campus, and makes us fighters and rooters and loyal Oregon students in our undergraduate days and afterwards—long afterwards.

It's the Oregon spirit that says hello to every fellow Oregon student, old and new. That's the part of the University that hasn't changed to a new building, or burned down, or got lost as the University grew from a small school to a big one.

FRESHMEN REPORT

The following freshmen are to report on Hayward field today at 8:30 for work:

Emerson W. Haggerty, Leonard W. Hagstrom, Howard M. Hall, John C. Herbert, William H. Haverman, Geo. Y. Hayakawa, Wilbur C. Hayden, Rollen W. Hayner, Gilbert L. Hermande, Robert Y. Herren, Leo G. Herren, Ralph E. Herren, Derrel Hess, Edwin D. Hicks, George W. Hillis, Alvin H. Hillis, Mahlon S. Hobbitt, Howard Hobson, Asabel Hockett, Jos. F. Holder, Thos. D. Hodler, Orlando J. Hollis, Bert Halloway, William H. Holman, C. P. Horn Jr., Wilbur G. Horn, Charles E. Hoyt, Cecil A. Hugh, Percival A. Hunt, Dale J. Ickes.

DELTA TAU SQUAD LOSES FIRST GAME

Fijis Victors; Sigma Nu Wins From Delta Theta Phi in Slow Contest

Team	Games	Won	Lost	Pct.
Oregon Club	7	7	0	1.000
Sigma Nu	6	5	1	.833
Kappa Sigma	4	3	1	.750
S. A. E.	6	4	2	.666
A. T. O.	6	3	3	.500
Friendly Hall	8	3	5	.374
Phi Sigma Pi	6	1	5	.166
Kappa Delta Pi	6	1	5	.166
Delta Theta Phi	7	1	6	.142

Team	Games	Won	Lost	Pct.
Phi Delta Theta	5	5	0	1.000
Delta Tau Delta	6	5	1	.833
Fiji	6	5	1	.833
Bachelordon	6	4	2	.666
Kappa Theta Chi	6	3	3	.500
Sigma Chi	6	2	4	.333
Beta	7	1	6	.142
Alpha Beta Chi	7	1	6	.142
Chi Psi	4	0	4	.000

The rangy Sigma Nu basketball team proved too much for the Delta Thetas last night, defeating their smaller opponent 35 to 7. The one sidedness of the game was due largely to the fact that the Sigma Nus literally played over the heads of the Delta Thetas, caging baskets almost at will.

The Sigma Nus now hold second place in their league, being headed in percentage by the Oregon Club.

The fast Fiji quintet handed the Delts their first beating of the season last night in a game that was billed as part of the entertainment for old grads attending Homecoming.

Although the score was 35 to 11 the game was hard fought. Staley and Shaefer were responsible for most of the Fiji points, Shaefer piling up a goodly amount of fouls.

Say Hello to Alumni

"O" BANQUET TONIGHT

One hundred "Order of the O" members, both past and present, are expected at the banquet of that organization this evening at the Campa Shoppe at 6 o'clock. The banquet, according to George King, president of the lettermen, will be a general get-together meeting for all past Oregon athletes who are on the campus for Homecoming. Speakers at the banquet will be those who wore the "O" in past college days.

FALLING HAIR?

We specialize in treating scalp diseases. We carry the most complete line of tonics and perfumes in town.

OSBURN HOTEL BARBER SHOP
A. J. Daniels, Prop.

Where is the Scarlet Pimpernel?

Hauser Bros.

Outfitters to Athletes and Sportsmen

Just received—shipment of Saxony Knit Blue Heather Jersey Coats, four pockets Rain Coats—Bass Packs, 15 inch. Athletic and Gym Suits and Shoes. Mazda House Lamps, all sizes. Flash Lights—Safety Razors.

To please is our one ambition.

The Lunch Box

Good Food, Fair Prices Efficient Service ---Our Aim

Fair prices—honest weights—cheerful and efficient service and quality groceries is the standard we work for. With cool weather comes new interest—a keener zest for foods, and the kind you buy at this store have an appeal that adds character and distinction to any meal. Come in and see for yourself, or phone 183 and we'll be glad to deliver—8:30, 10:30 a. m., 1:30 and 4:30 P. M., both East and West side. Our own delivery cars are operated on schedule time.

Visit Our Bakery Department

Something different every day—fresh from our electric ovens. The Golden Brown Doughnuts served at the Campus Luncheon today are one of the many products of our Model Kitchen.

Store Will be Closed 1:30 to 5 P. M. Armistice Day Please Shop Early Saturday.

Dice Grocery Co.

8th and Olive

3 Phones, 183

SPECIAL

Prophylactic Tooth Brush . . 40c
Lilly Tooth Paste 50c
90c

Both for 69c

Office 408-9
C. & W. Bldg.

Pacific Telephones:
Office 613-J; Res. 613-L

Osteopathy stands for truth wherever it is scientifically proven

DR. JOHN SIMONS
OSTEOPATHIC
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON.

EUGENE

OREGON

Winners? Yes Sir!

The Oregon Team

with its unconquerable spirit of fight—with its undisputable fairness to every rule of spirit—with its never ending reliability to do its best at all times and under any conditions is a winner—Yes sir! Win or lose they're winners.

Kuppenheimer Good Clothes are to be compared to the Oregon fight. They show you all the new ideas. They're made of dependable woolen fabrics and contain "hidden goodness," which means fine hand workmanship. Clothes that have real style distinction at closely margined pricings.

Like the Oregon Team--They're Winners

McMoran & Washburne Store
FOR STYLE, QUALITY & ECONOMY

