

SOPHOMORES PLAN ANNUAL BIG DANCE

Committees in Charge Named by Mary Hathaway, President

The sophomore dance which is one of the biggest events of the year and is the occasion on which the sophomore class entertains the entire University, will be given this year on Friday, December 8, in the downtown Armory. Plans to make this sophomore dance the usual success are being formulated, according to Mary Hathaway, president of the class of '25, and the following committees have been appointed: Patroness: Edwina Riehen, chairman, Martha Shull, Lucille Douglas.

Program and dance: Ed Papfer, chairman, Henry Heardt, Lars Bergsvik, Geraldine Root, Gertrude Butler, Maude Schroeder. Refreshment: Mary Dustin, chairman, Catherine Spall, Don Woodward, Lawrence Robertson. Decoration: Edgar Bohlman, chairman, Penelope Gehr, Hazel Borders, Wava Brown, Ralph Hamilton, Clara Meador, Alice Tuthill, Betty Kerr, Dorothy LaRoche, Helen Cantine, Jeff Nelson, Jack High, Fred Young, Dick Caruthers, Milton Brown, Donald Peake, Paul Staley.

Clean-up: Hesden Metcalf, chairman, Bert Haynes, Myron Shannon, Armond DeMerit, Gordon Wilson. All members of committees are asked to report at Dean Straub's office tonight at 7:15 for a short meeting where plans will be outlined.

HOMECOMING HANDLED WELL, SAYS MacGREGOR

Believes Bonfire Question Has Been Answered in Work of Freshmen During Day and Half

Expressing his pleasure with the way in which the big Homecoming was handled by the students, John MacGregor, student body president, said in an interview yesterday, "I wish to congratulate the students on the way in which they managed the Homecoming events. The parade was especially good, and the freshmen deserve to be congratulated on the bonfire they built in a few hours' time and in very inclement weather."

Mr. MacGregor believes that the bonfire question has been answered in the plan followed this year, whereby the frosh are limited to a day and a half for the actual building of the bonfire. The first-year men worked from Thursday noon until Friday night under a serious handicap in the form of pouring rain, and the bonfire they produced was far in excess of expectations, under the circumstances.

Judge King Dykeman, ambassador from the University of Washington, was enthusiastic over the reception he received at Oregon during Homecoming week-end. This, he said, will do much to increase the good feeling that already exists between the two state universities.

SCHOOL OF MUSIC SHOWS LARGE GAIN IN 3 YEARS

Enrollment This Year Is Largest Since Department's Organization; Growth Signifies Ability, Says Dean

The violin department of the School of Music has an enrollment this year of approximately 75, the largest number since its organization. The department has been growing steadily, and during the last three years there has been an increase of about 50 per cent. "This is significant," said Dr. John Landsbury, dean of the school of music, "because the violin department is usually the smallest in any school of music, and it is only when an institution has big men that registration is large.

The department is under the direction of Rex Underwood, who has been here several years, with Miss Alberta Potter as assistant. Mr. Underwood was a student at the Leipzig conservatory and the Royal Bavarian school of music. He studied in Berlin and London with Michael Press and Ostrovsky, and in Chicago with Joseph Olheizer. Miss Potter is a senior in the University.

HELEN I. REYNOLDS IS YOUNGEST STUDENT

Helen I. Reynolds Less Than 16 on Matriculation; Alfred Meyers But Little Older

The distinction of being the youngest student in the University goes to Helen I. Reynolds, of Eugene, who at the time she matriculated was 15 years, 11 months and 15 days old. The men's nearest approach to the infant prodigy is Alfred L. Meyers, of La Grande, who, at registration, was 16 years, 1 month, and 21 days old. The record cards in the registrar's office give the date of Miss Reynolds' birth as October 17, 1906 and that of Alfred Meyers as August 11, 1906.

Miss Reynolds is a graduate of the University high school where she took her junior and senior years' work. Her freshman year was spent at Galeton high school, Idaho, and her sophomore year at Eaton high school in the same state. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Reynolds of 493 E. 8th St., Eugene.

Quite surprised and somewhat pleased to learn she was Oregon's youngest student, Miss Reynolds was a little confused as she began to outline for the Emerald reporter her major subject and courses pursued during the term. Journalism is her chosen career, and in her first term in the University she is taking fifteen term hours' work in the following courses: botany, news writing, political science, second year French, fine arts life class and physical education.

Mr. Meyers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Meyers of La Grande. He is a graduate of the La Grande high school where he took his entire four-year course. In his senior year he was manager of the student body, member of the high school glee club and an honor student.

Mr. Meyers is majoring in journalism and is carrying seventeen hours' work, divided among news writing, dramatic interpretation, voice interpretation, political science, French, physical education and military tactics. He is a member of Kappa Theta Chi, men's fraternity, and of the University Men's Glee club.

Through an error, the honor of being the youngest girl on the campus was given to another girl student in a Sunday Emerald, two weeks ago.

EMERALD TYPEWRITERS OFTEN GO ON RAMPAGE

Failure of Machines to Work at Necessary Moment Brings Woe to Reporters

Titttt! Grrrr! Squash! Plunk! Plopf! So endeth the manuscript that the cub reporter was whacking off on the Woodstock in the Emerald shack. The ribbon had slipped out of the roll. This was the tenth machine that the cub had tried. Torn ribbons, broken carriages, defective releases and many other chronic ailments are affecting the little hunks of mechanism that supply the campus with news.

Every few days the trouble shooter is brought to the Emerald abode to fix the battered cripples. But it always happens that the minute he disappears around the corner of Villard, the Royals, Smiths, Underwoods, and Woodstocks go on a rampage and refuse to function, much to the joy of the news staff.

But there is one machine, an antique Remington undershot, which stands in the corner and is never molested by the zealous scribes. Unable to see the copy as it is pounded out causes the newshound to steer clear of the old veteran unless he is a slicker at the touch system. The old "hunt and peck" won't go.

Failure of the machines to percolate in the late rush of the night crew often results in a blue atmosphere about the little white home of the Emerald. Would that typewriters never went wrong!

"MAN IN THE MAKING" CONDON CLUB LECTURE

Lantern Slide Illustrations Will Be a Feature

"Man in the Making" will be the subject of the lecture to be given in Condon hall of the Administration building this evening at 7:30 by John Herbert Doran, chautauqua speaker and Presbyterian minister, under the auspices of the Condon club. Mr. Doran, who comes here from Ashland at the request of the geology department, will touch on the history of man from the earliest beginnings.

The feature of the lecture will be the showing of stereopticon views, illustrating the story of man in his progress through the ages. The slides were obtained from the American Museum of Natural History. After the lecture, an informal discussion will be held.

Members of the Condon club have extended an invitation to all interested in anthropology or its allied sciences to attend the meeting. The lecture will be over in time for the persons attending to go to the Dadmun concert. From the University, Mr. Doran will go to Corvallis where he is to speak to O. A. C. students tomorrow evening.

MANY PETITIONS RECEIVED

Requests for Withdrawal Average Seven a Day; December 1 Last Day

A large number of petitions for withdrawal from classes are being received each day at the registrar's office. The number of withdrawals averages at least seven a day but students are not allowed to enter classes now.

A few individuals who have been seeking permission to withdraw from school, must petition to withdraw from school as well as to withdraw from classes.

University Tailors 24 West 9th Avenue

Various names have been suggested; The Gift House, the house that the Faculty Built, and the Campaign Headquarters. The latter I personally disfavor for it suggests a shabby third-story room and a milk bottle drive. We are after the dollars and not the pennies, this takes a dignified drive for the people are more willing to give to a dignified institution and to support a growing concern.

The gift campaign has two offices in this shack that has been built back of the Administration building. W. K. Newell is director of the campaign quarters, Lamar Tooze is field director while John MacGregor and Miss Louise Davis are on the staff. Miss Grace Edgington, the alumni secretary, and the physical education department have offices in this building.

BEN TURPIN AT BEX

Every scene in Mack Sennett's latest two-reel picture comedy, "She Sighed by the Seaside," is set on the beach except a few (and thrilling) episodes set far out from shore. Naturally the beholder will glimpse many evidences of good form in bathing suits. The Sennett contingent of beauty will be seen in all their seaworthiness.
