

WASHINGTONIANS PLAN FROLIC FOR THURSDAY

Novel Entertainment for Christmas Party at Y. W. Bungalow Dated; Committee Is Named

Instead of having a regular meeting this month the Washington club plans to give a Christmas frolic. LeLaine West, vice-president of the organization, is in charge of the affair, and she plans something novel and interesting in the way of entertainment. Those who were appointed to serve on her committee are Madeline Conner, Mary Brandt, Doc Braddock, Dorothy Bell and Leon Byrne. An hour of mirth is promised all the Washingtonians who attend and since the committee has secured a list of all those who have lived in the state of Washington, there will be something of special interest to everyone.

The frolic is scheduled for Thursday evening at the Y. W. C. A. bungalow from eight to nine o'clock and cartooned invitations have been mailed to everyone.

OREGANA PICTURES DUE

December 15 Is Last Date for Submissions; Work Is Progressing Well

Only four days are left for the taking of pictures for the Oregana, which must be done by December 15, according to a statement made by the Oregana staff.

The Junior write-ups are to be handed in at the office by December 15. All money for the reservation of space by honor and living organizations is to be in on or before January 15.

The work on the book is progressing and many of the department editors have already turned in the outline of their plans.

Soiled, muddy shoes? That's where you lose, appearances will tell.

Here in this chair I'll put a glare upon them something swell. I'll also fix those yellow kicks and make them black as night! No acids used, no shoes abused, with black I treat you white! Each pair I shine is right in line with patent-leathers, pard! Selected stock that none can knock, so keep this little card—

It points the way to the only kinds:
