

UNIVERSITY ORCHESTRA CONCERT IS EXCELLENT

John B. Siefert Praises Work of Campus Artists

By John B. Siefert

The University orchestra, directed by Rex Underwood, gave its first "pop" concert Thursday evening in Villard hall, Aurora Potter Underwood, pianist, was the soloist.

Occupying first place on the program was Offenbach's Overture, "Orpheus in the Underworld," played in fine fashion. The orchestra this term surpasses that of last year, one of the most noticeable features being the splendid volume of tone obtained by these young musicians. Precision, fine adherence to tempos and very good ensemble work, marked an excellent reading of the overture. A short violin solo in the overture was played very well by Alberta Potter.

A delightful ballet suite of three numbers, "Minnett," "Musette" and "Tambourin" by Rameau and arranged for modern orchestra by Felix Mottl, was the second offering. This charming suite pleased the audience immensely, and particularly effective was the muted violin section in the "Musette." The "Tambourin," played with much spirit, was truly a splendid bit of finished orchestral work.

Brahm's Hungarian Dance, numbers 5 and 6, given with fine sense of rhythm and tone, brought to a close a well balanced, splendidly played and highly enjoyed program.

Mr. Underwood is to be congratulated on the high standard of work his players are capable of producing, and of the finished manner in which his performers played.

Mrs. Underwood played in splendid manner Chopin's Waltz in A flat and Ballade in A flat and for an encore gave Friedmann's Old Viennese Waltz. Her's is a very ample and splendid technique, coupled with excellent executive ability, and her splendid success was truly well deserved. She is a most accomplished pianist, and played in a very delightful manner.

ORGANIZATIONS AID NEEDY

Sororities Have Christmas Parties for Destitute Tots in Eugene

Many of the organizations on the campus are participating in charity work for the coming holidays. Some houses are having parties and others are sending contributions through Mrs. M. S. Ady, Eugene relief worker.

The Kappa Alpha Thetas had a Christmas party last night, entertaining some of the children of Eugene. Tonight the Alpha Chi Omegas and Hendricks hall will have Christmas trees for some little tots. The Tri Deltas are planning a similar affair for Sunday afternoon. A Christmas party will be given next week-end by the Gamma Phis.

The Alpha Xi Deltas, Delta Gammas and the Kappas are going to hold Christmas parties this week-end, later sending the gifts they receive to children, whose names Mrs. Ady will furnish.

The Chi Omegas are planning to prepare six Christmas baskets, filled with all the necessities for a Christmas dinner. The Pi Phis will do their usual work in the Pi Beta Phi settlement school besides sending donations to poor families in Eugene.

LAWYERS HOLD ELECTION

Phi Delta Phi, national honorary law fraternity, announced the pledging of Jack Schumaker, Los Angeles, California, yesterday. Mr. Schumaker is a transfer from Stanford and is a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

COSMOPOLITANS TO FROLIC

Club Members Not Leaving Campus to Hold New Year Jamboree

Rollieking fun, ghostly dances, and plenty of games will mark the night of Monday, January 1, for members of the Cosmopolitan club who do not leave the University for Christmas vacation, according to C. S. Pil, president of the organization.

As many of the members are from foreign countries a large attendance is expected. Estimates are that about two-thirds of the membership of 65 will enjoy the bounteous meal to be supplied to the foreigners by the Y. M. C. A. The Filipino club will supply music for the occasion with their stringed band.

Those who plan to come to the affair, scheduled for 7 o'clock in the "Y" hut, should notify Lester Turnbaugh at 1162-Y before Friday.

Do You Leave the Table Hungry?

HAVE you ever thought about nourishment in connection with your studies? You know you can't do good scholastic work if you are under-nourished. It is up to your house managers to give you the best on the market and to see that you have a well-balanced diet.

EXAMS will be here in a few days and you will want to put your best efforts on them. Have the best meals possible then. A prime rib roast of beef, a joint of veal, loin chops of pork, sirloin steak, or veal cutlets—all make wonderful meals. Balance it then with eggs and vegetables, and with fruits for dessert. Remember that coffee is the most important part of your breakfast—we carry only the leading brands.

HOUSEMANGERS—Have the best meals possible during exam week. We can promptly serve you with the best in all kinds of meats and provisions. Just call 38.
