CALERICE V-DERE TOPLEC OREGON SUNDAY EMERALD

MANY COLLEGE STUDENTS MISDIRECTED IS CLAIM

EDUCATION IS NOT REAL MOTIVE.

SAYS DARTMOUTH HEAD Vision and Broadness Aim of Colleges -Limiting of Enrollment is Modern Problem

A serious warning is better uttered in the press of the country. That warning is directed to the half million young men and women who are yearly attend-Dr. Hopkins, President of Dartmouth College. It is so directed because the leading educators feel too many students are entering college for less cation.

possessing wealth," says Dr. Hopkins. behind a gray clod of earth. One insigbe restricted."

even within college halls.

But the vast majority of them would swollen rheumatic hands. profit far more by some other kind of education than that given by the tradi- sat down stiffly. "Hot." I commented. tional American college. Every man "Any chewin'?" should be educated, but only a minority gates of the American colleges." pared with 418 the year before.

That university required the passing of two psychological tests before the admittance of any student. It was forced to this stand because of the many who yearly came for other reasons than study.

the present but the possible future, vile tobacco. "Gotta match?" mastery of the subject so that it may be carried through to success.

"WEARY FEET" ORGANIZE College Men who Have Bummed One ally sallied into the hot gully where we Thousand Miles Eligible an Indiana University student, is presi-factory fer a spell, then she closed track I found myself near the approach river. of a long bridge. I stopped and shifted ing colleges of higher education, says a thin breathless wavery voice from somewhere nearby.

"Don't try it-you'll be killed-train comin'-wait an' follow it over." I turned and for a moment could see worthy motives than to secure an edu- no one; then a slight stir focused my eyes on an insignificant figure crouched,

"It would be incompatible with all half hidden, behind a gray boulder. I the conceptions of democracy to as- had walked right by him, within ten feet. sume that the privilege of higher edu- without seeing him. But he was so color- stricken whisper. cation should be restricted to any less and so quiet that one wouldn't orclass defined by the accident of birth dinarily have seen him any sooner than or by the fortuitous circumstances of they would have noticed a field mouse

"But there is such a thing as an aris- nificant detail blended into another-a tocracy of brain, made up of men in-tellectually alert • and intellectually draggled, drooping gray moustache, dyed the wheel of a hard existence; whose only total enrollment of 17,909 students. eager to whom increasingly the oppor- brown on the inner fringes from tobacco tunities of higher education ought to juice, ragged clothes of some nondescript stuff, a pair of ripped, run-over shoes-

Unfortunately intellectual hypocricy then I saw the hands and the rest of and its complement, intellectual smug- him faded away. All his life, all his ness are not sufficiently infrequent personality were written plainly on them. a long, long saga of toil and drudgery. Dr. Faunce, president of Brown Uni- They were pitifully misshapen and creasversity, holds that "All the young men ed and calloused and warped out of all who want education ought to have it. proportion to the rest of his body. dark

I crossed over, dumped my pack and

He fumbled in a pocket. "Nawthin' to get grub?" are mentally or morally benefitted by but this here Six Brothers-dunno what seclusion for four years within the sort of chewin' it makes-weak fer smokin'-maybe you kin smoke it-dunno-It is something to think about. try-" His talk trailed off to an inde-These educators are doing more than terminate, indecisive end and he handed talk about their convictions. They are me a dingy package of cheap tobacco. putting them into effect at their uni- Those hands again; somehow I couldn't versities. Brown university this year refused admittance to 100 men. The ed so infinitely stronger than he ever new class numbers 350 students as com- could be; they possessed so much more man fumbled about the rope of his huge personality.

"Where y' goin'?" he asked me with a timid curiosity. "Oh, North. Where're you goin'?"

"Reedsport-I guess. There's work there-leastwise they says there is-I dunno-hope so-I'm 'bout broke." He

The day was clear and the sun fell on rays. Far away stretched the farther bank. A faint odor of salt sea air came with the vagrant breeze which occasionsat.

"Lord, but she's great today," I said. University of Nevada, Jan. 27 .- The I was twenty-one and the open road was Sundowners of the Sagebrush is the before me and life seemed filled with appellation of a vagrant society of nothing but a succession of just such twelve men organized recently at the glorious days. I filled my chest with the me. University of Nevada. The only re-quirement for a candidate to be eligible "bummed his way" by land or sea at least one thousand miles. Ernie Pyle, half-heartedly,—"worked on at th' box "Sorry dad hut I'm in a hurry I're-transition of the sea to be below to be blow to be below to Coming around a sharp curve of the tackle," said I, looking at the broad lazy French stories. The pictures called

The Straggler

By E. J. H.

the weight of my pack, wondering if I Worked fer m' board 'n room at one more. could make it across before the passenger place—a dairy—five in th' mornin' t' ten came along, and half disposed to try. I at night—don't seem right somehow that had very nearly persuaded myself to go a man should work so hard fer to eat sale of these magazines, merely to on when the whistle of the train came and sleep-but a man has t' live-mebbe show you that "all is not gold that to me from behind and shortly afterward there's justice in it-dunno-funny."

> pack. "It's sure a great day for hiking. same! The editors realize that month I ought to make thirty miles today." "What's th' hurry"

the bridge. "I-"

"Don't point-don't point," interrup-ted the old fellow with a gusty panic-

"What's the matter?" I asked, some what startled.

"Don't point-bridge tenders might see you doin' it-get suspicious-might not let us across." It was the timid, self. tained its lead again as the largest Unidesire now was to keep out of sight as much as possible and inconspicuously ex. HEALTH SERVICE SETS

I noticed the huge blanket roll by his side; it was almost as large as he.

"Must be pretty heavy carrying that oll," I said.

"Yes. Couldn't stay in Marshfield ne more-eatin' up m' money-doin' noth-in'-gotta get to Reedsport t' work-'bout broke. Fierce th' way they soak a fellow fer things-'tain't fair." "Roads pretty blank for the next thir-ty miles," I said. "Where are you going

He jerked his thumb toward a small paper sack-"There."

I mentally divided the two or three bits of food that it contained into four meals, meagre rations, I thought. But old men don't need much.

The train came rushing down on us and went by with brakes screaming. I rose and pulled on my pack. The old bundle, slowly and painfully. I looked about me, at the bright blue sky, at the dazzling water, and at the road stretching across the bridge and disappearing around a huge sand dune in the distance. Road behind and road in front-stretching away. "Some day!" I said, more to Breadth of vision and mastery are what students should acquire in college. Vision broad enough to view not only the present but the possible future for the the stuffed full of that weak, apprehensively behind as if he expected another train. Then he squinted anxious the river with a shower of sparkling ly at the little bridge house perched in the middle of the center span. "Think they'll let us acrost?"

"Sure." I stepped between the rails and headed across with a light-hearted stride. It was good to be alive on a day like this-to be up and moving. "Well, so-long old scout," I called over my shoulder. He was limping, painfully, slowly after

"Don't go too fast fer me-don't go

"Sorry, dad, but I'm in a hurry. I've digging through these things for a wild story. When it comes to thrills a good classic, Dumas or Balzac, even in translation, has it all over the whole bunch of supposedly shocking presentday stories. One doesn't realize just off hand how many of America's most popular names are taken from these The Eternal Flame," is a splendid ". . .Seemed like it was a hard winter. example of this, and there are dozens

Now do not misunderstand the Book Worm. It is not trying to kill the glitters," and titles are often mislead-The train was roaring around the ing. Enter the heroine, enter the vil-curve, and I fumbled at the straps of my lan, enter the hero. They're all the after month the attractions are the cover and the table of contents, and I laughed and waved my hand toward month after month they become more brilliant and the material less, but still

> UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA STILL LARGEST IN COUNTRY

University of California, Jan. 23 .-

NEW WEEK-END HOURS

During the recent epidemic of colds on the campus the University Health Service will observe the following

On Sunday, at the dispensary, from 10 a. m. to noon. On Saturday and Sunday afternoons, at the infirmary.

SIGMA DELTA PI GIVES

NAMES OF NEW PLEDGES Sigma Delta Pi, honorary Spanish fraternity, elected the following members Saturday afternoon:

Esther Dennis, Lois Morthland, Freda Goodrich, Norma Wilson, Leonard Jor-dan, Miss Florence White, honorary.

CLASSIFIED ADS

Minimum charge, 1 time, 25c; 2 time, 45c; 5 times, $1. Must be limited to 5 lines, over this limit, 5c per line. Phone 951, or leave copy with Business office of EMERALD, in University Press. Payment in advance. Office hours, 1 to 4 p. m.

For Rent-Room for girls at 1315 13th Ave. E. Phone 1005-L. 163J25-tf.

Room for two students, $15.00 a month. Board if desired. Mrs. Dunwoodie, 1331 High street. 169 J27-30.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 28, 1923

"Watch Us Grow"

NOW IS THE TIME

and this is the place

To have your Watch repaired or your Diamond reset. Our prices are right and work done right.

Have you seen the new Diamond mountings. Just received. They are just beautiful.

> SKEIE'S Jewelry Store EUGENE, ORE.

Jim the Shoe Doctor SHOE BUILDERS-NOT COBBLERS

986 Willamette Street

"We live on old shoes"

Eugene Steam Laundry

The place to get your laundering done when you want it done right and with a snap.

Phone 123

ALREADY! Eugene's Largest Piece Goods Section

Is the Scene Of New Weaves

An air of refinement is pervading Schaefer's Bros. popular priced dress goods department

And So Colorful Are the New Tissue and French Ginghams, yard 45c to 65c

-First glimpse of the spring 1923 ginghams in rare color effects, seemingly more beautiful than shown in any previous season. Indeed a delightful change to see the new arrivals and all are of Alltyme Knitted Silk Crepe Charming Indeed. Only $2.75 vd.

-A new beautiful knitted fibre silk with a satine finish. Firmly knitted, with a brilliant, lustrous finish and an exquisite fibric for dresses and blouses. Colors are cocoa, Deer, Seal, Navy, also

Phone 867

dent, having "bummed his way" 25,- down." 000 miles with Hoosier athletic teams. "Wish I had a boat and some fishing

Two University Deans

By Clinton Howard

Take one-third artist, a third execu- of the guild system so that worker as there was any work to be had. Not that tive, and another third man of vision, well as architect may create. sprinkly with hard common sense, add the craftsmanship of the Middle Ages a dash of reason, and you have-an to each individual workman on our buildings," he says. Notre Dame, the ideal college dean.

Double every ingredient in the above famous cathedral of Paris, for in- and husky they might put you on." recipe, and you have two university stance, one of the achievements of the leaders-Dean Ellis F. Lawrence of the Middle Ages, is the product of the school of architecture and allied arts craftsmanship of the workers. In of the University of Oregon, and Dean those days every workman was not Eric W. Allen of the Oregon school of only a workman, he was a craftsman journalism. The Oregon school of as well. Into those medieval cathedrals journalism is nationally recognized for they wove not only the plan and pat Having fed on the deep and learned its efficiency. The school of archi tern of the architect, but also their food required for mid-term prepara tecture ranks equally high. Recently own ideas-expressions of mind and tions for the last week, the Book Worm Dean Allen was elected president of ideals and fancy. Each workman decided to partake of a little lighter the American Association of Schools carved as his instinct guided him and repast, and began to brouse about and Departments of Journalism. Both so were produced the gargoyles, the magazines noted for their "lightness." these important departments of the wonderful carvings, design and treat- It was an awful shock! But not University of Oregon were founded ment, and the wonderful tracery in as you think-the point was, there was in 1912, with Professor Lawrence and stone which graces the Gothic ca- no shock there! To be perfectly frank, Professor Allen in charge, respectively. thedral.

To work for ten years-and then to Dean Allen is a man of medium the most shocking literature easily oblose much by fire is not a cheering ex- height, with a genial, albeit slightly tainable. It began with Breezy and perience, and yet that has been the re- worried, expression. Whether the dean Snappy Stories and went through the cent trial of both Dean Allen and Dean is chasing the elusive golf ball over whole list down to True Confessions. Lawrence. In the summer after the the fairway, or whether he is busy to The titles were gorgeous. Some of college year of 1921-22, fire destroyed the last degree in the very midst of an them even sounded right develish. the larger part of the physical plant editorial conference, he is always on of both schools. And then the deans, the qui vive. Dean Alien looks into standing figuratively knee-deep among the future to help plot the path of a the ashes, promptly packed up and better journalism. He is a practical moved back to their old structures- man with a vision of what is necessary the school of architecture to the small, in the progress of the newspaper and brick annex, and the school of jour- to him must be given much credit for nalism to the "shack," a building not the phenomenal growth and advance of unlike the "portable" attached to many the Oregon school of journalism.

of our city grammar schools. Dean "The problems of journalism can Lawrence and his students doubled up never be disconnected from the delem had made a rare choice, and almost a little bit; a room here and another mas that confront society as a whole, were purring as we were curled bethere, with the temporary use of rooms and every newspaper office decision fore the fire-place for a wild evening. in other buildings on the campus, and arises in some way from, and has a We read, and read, and read, always all was well.

But right here a bit of description of cial forces that operate within the com- came. For instance "The Hotel Regthe two deans is in place. Corn-colored munity at large," he says. "In per- Ister Wife" counded inviting, but that but graying hair, mild blue eyes, and feet society good journalism would be was as far as it got. It consisted of the face of a scholar. Dean Lawrence easy, yet he who proposes to reform About eight pages of rambling words. strikes one at first glance as an inter- society as a necessary precedent to de- There was nothing wild, interesting, esting person, and this first impression veloping a better journalism is lost to mysterious, horrible, or even shockis retained. He is a man of enthu all sense of proportion. The very fune- ing to our extreme sense of propriesiasm and vision. He desires to do his tion of good journalism is to work ty. In fact there wasn't much of anypart in improving the architecrure of toward a better society. The news- thing. We had started with an absothe period, and to make the Oregon paper is to be justified as an instru- lutely open and unprejudiced mind, school of architecture a suitable tool ment and not as an end." in the accomplishment of this purpose; This article appeared in "The Spee-he is seeking to re-create the spirit tator," January 27. Never again shall got to reach Reedsport tonight. I'll have to step out. So-long."

I hurried on. Once, when nearly across the bridge, I looked again. He had slowed down to an infirm limp. That's the last I saw of him-a bent, lonely figure, receding in the distance-just struggling painfully ahead.

That evening I pulled into Reedsport, dusty, tired, and supremely hungry. Out of curiosity I asked a man I passed if I wanted work myself. I was foot loose "We would give much to bring back free to roam the roads of the earth. I was thinking of the old man.

"Nops," was the answer. "Only one mill runnin'. Course, if you was limber

Books

"The Book Worm is branching out it made a collection of what looked like

They ran something like this: "The First Fifty Years Is Easy." "Flames of the Storm."

"The Diamond Garter Buckles." "The Woman Who was Afraid." "The Hotel Register Wife." "When a Live Wire Plays Dead." "When Heart Meets Law." "The Dance of Death."

We finally were convinced that we reactive effect upon, economic and so preparing for the shock-but it never and came out with the impression that

Never again shall we waste time

Mr. I. M. Right Says	:
Believe you me it i no fish story—the rea son for many a young m a n's popularity i that he keeps himsel looking neat. The se cret is, the Electri Cleaners did it.	g sf

White. a wonderfully fine quality.

The Biggest Stir Now Is in the Showing of Pretty Cotton Ratine, yard 65c

-You might as well make up your mind this day that your wardrobe is going to contain one or more dresses fashioned of this rough-threaded, soft-draping material, 36 inches wide and such a splendid selection of new shades-nearly a dozen. Already our saleswomen have cut off several lengths.

Dainty New Neckwear That Will Delight the College Miss

-The freshness of a carefully selected collar or an appropriate bit of white at the cuff is oftimes the determining feature (right now especially, in between seasons) in the costume of the well-dressed miss. Featuring innovations in the popular Bertha style collars, Peter Pan style-and this season's dress styles become doubly charming when allied with softly becoming collar and cuff sets such as we are showing in abundance. Moderately priced at 65c to $3.00.

The Rainbow

Herm Burgoyne

E. A. C. S.

A Big Steak---

-juicy, tender, and brown, done to a turn, a dish overflowing with crisp, brown, french fried, sweet, tender petit pois, a big fruit salad with a luring, appetizing, tang, in a quantity that you can't surround, a cup of wonderful coffee that actually satisfies, and then-a big piece of delicious butterscotch pie. It's waiting for you.