

EVERYTHING READY FOR FROSH GLEE

Class of '26 Asked to Appear at Woman's Building Friday at 3:30

Everything is in readiness for the Frosh Glee, according to Floyd McKalson, general chairman of the function. Everything but the decorating is ready. No actual decorating can be done before four o'clock Friday afternoon. All freshmen are urged to be on hand at the Woman's building at 3:30 Friday to begin the work. The general scheme of black and yellow will be carried out, although some minor changes are necessary. Two truckloads of frosh made a trip to the woods Tuesday afternoon to get decorations, but just what they brought back, they would not say. Programs and refreshments have been ordered. The programs will be here Thursday afternoon. The refreshment committee guarantees plenty to eat.

The patrons and patronesses are Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. DeCou, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, Mayor and Mrs. C. O. Peterson of Eugene, Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Smith, Governor and Mrs. Walter Pierce and ex-Governor and Mrs. Ben W. Oleott.

The orchestra has spent much time at the Woman's building this week to determine the most effective place on the floor from which to play, according to Mary Ellen Ray, chairman of the music committee.

To give everyone time to attend both basketball games and the glee, the Frosh-Rook game has been scheduled for four o'clock Friday afternoon. The varsity game will begin at 7:15.

The chairmen of the committees have been working hard to put the Frosh tees:

Floyd McKalson, general chairman; Program—Joe Frazer, chairman; Florence Campbell, Gordon Bennett.

DIVINE NORMA AT CASTLE

Among the exotic settings to be found in "The Voice from the Minaret," Norma Talmadge's offering, is the interior of a resort known as "The Club of the Seven Flags," situated in the heart of mystic Bombay. It resembles a harem in every respect, and is the gathering place of residents of the Indian city—of men and women of all classes and stations in life.

The club is the center of a series of exciting episodes in "The Voice from the Minaret," showing at the Castle for the remainder of this week. Frank Lloyd, was the director of this production, and he has injected into it all the color and romanticism of Bombay and its life."

LARGE GIFTS GIVEN TO OREGON BY PRESIDENT

Sum of $25,000 Donated Over Period of Years

State Capitol, Salem, Or., Feb. 5.—(Special)—A financial secret, never before revealed to the public of this state, was divulged here tonight when P. L. Campbell, president of the University of Oregon, appeared before the joint ways and means committee and urged an appropriation for the medical school of that institution.

As President Campbell concluded his address Senator LaFollett asked the amount of his annual salary.

"I receive $8000 a year," replied President Campbell.

Senator LaFollett then held aloft a sheet of paper, and at the same time asked the educator as to the amount of taxes he paid toward conducting the affairs of the state government.

Before President Campbell could answer the question, Mrs. George Gerlinger urged the committee to allow her to reply.

It was then that the secret of President Campbell's generosity was unfolded.

"President Campbell is one of the most generous men in Oregon," said Mrs. Gerlinger, "and I can vouch for the statement I am about to make that during his incumbency as an official of the university he has returned to that institution more than $25,000. This money is in addition to other smaller gifts made by President Campbell, of which I have direct knowledge."—Portland Oregonian.
