Illinois Rules

The closing hour is a little earlier as set in the rules of the University of Illinois: "Men callers shall leave at 10 p. m., excepting Friday and Saturday, when they shall leave at 10:30 p. m." Their rules also state that "There shall be no loitering on the porches after functions of any kind." A resolution of the Woman's League of this University is that "As a rule, callers shall not be received only on one night between Sunday and Friday;" that is, that there shall be only one midweek date.

In comparison with the preceding rules, those at the University of Minnesota are rather lenient, and exception is made for seniors.
