

Society

By Catherine Spall

With only two week-ends remaining before Easter vacation, that are open for social functions, campus society is keenly anticipating each of the few remaining events. As for the past week-end informality took precedence among the dances. It is noticeable that the elaborate decorations and programs for dances of previous years are being replaced by simple although very effective motifs. Musicales and concert recitals continue to be smart events of University life.

The Co-ed Whirl, a dance which the Women's League of the University sponsors, was an enjoyable event of Saturday afternoon at the Woman's building. A hundred girls, composed of sponsors and their spouses were at this affair which is the second of its kind this year.

Sigma Delta Chi, men's national journalism fraternity, entertained with a formal dance Friday evening at the Phi Kappa Psi house. Lights covered with colored shades, piano lamps, palms, and spring flowers composed the decorations of the rooms. The programs of black and white with the name in gold, were very dainty and opened in a clever manner. For the original feature dance clipped from papers. Special guests at partners were obtained by matching up the heads to the bodies of news stories the affair were Jasper King of New York, and Jorgen Holck of Denmark, foreign students on a brief visit here. The patron and patroness list included President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Dean and Mrs. Eric W. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Colin V. Dymont, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, M. and Mrs. Ralph Casey, and Mr. George Turnbull.

Sigma Nu underclassmen were the hosts at a matinee dance Saturday afternoon at their house. Spring flowers decorated the rooms for the affair which was of a very informal nature.

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon house was converted into a veritable country club Saturday evening when the underclassmen entertained with an informal dance. Sport clothes were worn by the women and white "ducks" by the men. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Humphrey, and Mrs. Wells were the patrons and patronesses. Wes Schulmerich of Columbia university was an out-of-town guest present at the dance.

A futuristic motif, very bizarre and and bohemian was used in the decorations for the Chi Omega formal held at the Woman's building Saturday evening. Gayety in all shapes and colors with gray and mauve, and black and cerise predominating in the color scheme, was presented by fantastic figures in a frieze around the walls, silhouettes, and splashes of riotous colors. Conventional laurel trees made a tiny arbor leading to a table decked with brilliant dainties, where colored ices were served throughout the evening.

The patrons and patronesses for the affair were President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Professor and Mrs. Alfred Schroff, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Snodgrass, and Mrs. Agnes O'Day. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Maxwell of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Linn McCready, and Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Tooze of Eugene, Miss Margaret Matheson, Miss Agnes Kennedy, and Miss Carmel Sheasgreen of Portland. Eight Portland girls who will enter the University in the fall were guests of the chapter house over the week-end.

Decorations of blue and gold made an effective background for the informal dance with which Sigma Chi upperclassmen entertained Saturday evening at their residence. Blue and gold candles and spring flowers were used for the attractive table centerpieces. The programs were also of blue and gold with the fraternity's crest upon them in gold. Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Lynn McCready, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nichols.

Floyd Maxwell, '22, of Portland, was an alumni who spent the week-end at the Sigma Chi house.

Hendricks hall had an exchange dinner with Phi Kappa Psi fraternity Thursday. Fourteen Phi Psis were present at Hendricks hall.

Following the concert of Mr. John Siefert and Mr. Ronald Reid Tuesday evening, Mrs. John Stark Evans entertained with an informal reception and party at the Woman's building, the occasion being Mr. Evans' birthday. Eighteen were included in the guest list.

The Phi Kappa Psi house was the scene of an informal matinee dance at which the upperclassmen of the fraternity were the hosts, Saturday afternoon. Flowers, palms, and shaded lights were artistically used in the decorating scheme.

Kappa Delta Phi were the hosts for five Chi Omegas at dinner Tuesday evening.

At a delightful tea given Wednesday afternoon in her apartment in Bartle Court, Mrs. E. E. DeCou was the hostess for an interesting and charming group of young women, members of the Women's League executive council, the woman members of the student council, and the president of Pan-Hellenic.

A rustic motif was very interestingly carried out in the Hermian club dance which was held at the Anchorage Saturday evening. The affair was formal for girls. On the dainty little programs was the name of the club engraved in gold. Twenty-five couples attended the function. Patrons included Dean and Mrs. John Bovard, and Miss Florence Alden.

Delta Gamma sorority entertained a number of Phi Gamma Deltas at dinner Wednesday evening.

The engagement of Miss Hildegard Repinen to William Enke was announced Sunday evening at the Tri Delt house, in a unique manner. Late in the evening after all the girls had been assembled in the den, a Persian cat was allowed to escape from the bag in which it had been imprisoned. Around his neck he bore a card on which was written "Hildegard and Bill." Miss Repinen is a junior in the University and very prominent in campus dramatics. She is a member of Kwama, and Mask and Buskin. Mr. Enke is a member of '24 also, and well known on the campus.

Phi Beta Kappa entertained with an informal reception and tea in the Woman's building Thursday afternoon from 4 until 6 o'clock.

At the Craftsman club dance at the Woman's building Friday evening, the DeMolay and Order of the Temeidns were also joint hosts, and hostesses. The event was of an informal nature.

Alpha Beta Chi fraternity gave a very enjoyable informal dance at their residence Saturday evening. Professor and Mrs. C. L. Kelly acted as the patrons for the affair. Ten couples were present.

The members of the Home Economics club and the students of the Household Arts department will be entertained with an English tea this afternoon at the home of Miss Lillian Tingle, at which she will be the hostess. There will be exhibited various antique books, shawls, pictures, costumes, old China and other ancient articles, which will be made the basis of an interesting talk on English manners and customs of early and mid-Victorian England. Tea will be served in English style as well as muffins, scones, and favorite English cakes.

The basketball girls of each class, together with the executive council of Women's Athletic association composed the guest list at a banquet given at the Osburn hotel Thursday evening. The girls' basketball teams were the guests of honor at this occasion which marked the close of the basketball season.

An informal gathering of all students and faculty members of the department of zoology and medicine was an event of Thursday evening at the Woman's building. The program consisted of a lecture by Dr. Charles Sears of Portland, discussions and musical numbers, followed by a social hour. Mrs. Charles Sears, and Mrs. Harry Beal Torrey of Portland were in Eugene to attend the gathering.

Alpha Kappa Kappa, national medical fraternity at the University of Oregon medical school in Portland, initiated as honorary members Dr. Otis F. Akin, Dr. Charles D. Bodine, and Dr. Joseph M. Short, at the chapter house February 26. The initiates are all members of the medical school faculty.

"THE GIRL AND THE TRAMP"

The management of "The Girl and the Tramp" which comes to the Hellig theater tomorrow, promises the show is built around a melodrama, with vaudeville actors essaying the principal roles and insuring a laughable performance. The fact that the show has been such a tremendous success in the East has induced the management to bring the attraction to the Pacific coast where this style of entertainment will be a novelty, owing to a dearth of "tramp" shows these last few seasons.

With comedy, drama, high class vaudeville features "The Girl and the Tramp" is a strong box office attraction and pleases the public who need a good laugh. The tramp's cure for every ill is laughter. He proclaims his panacea throughout the play. "Indignation is on the increase because laughter is on the decrease. Where there is a famine of laughter, apoplexy, paralysis and heart failure stalk as grim spectres. Laughter will reduce your blood pressure. Laughter will reduce arterial sclerosis. Laughter oils the wheels of the universe. Laughter drives little miseries away as the sun does bats and turns hate into loving kindness. Laughter keeps your face young, your body supple and your brain active."

CASTLE

Making burglary a profitable pastime ought to furnish any wealthy man, suffering from ennui, with something different in the way of thrills.

At any rate, this leads to some most surprising situations in "Nobody's Money," a Paramount picture starring Jack Holt which will be the feature at the Castle theater next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. For in that picture, William LeBaron's well known stage success, Mr. Holt has the role of a young man who is advised by his physician to "lay aside his work and get into something exciting to escape a nervous breakdown." He chums with a burglar, Eddie, whose fingers naturally cling with pertinacity to everything they touch.

Pastries That Serenade---

your sense of taste, that really make your mouth water. French pastry, fresh, tasty delicacies that awaken you to the fact that there really are new things to eat. Pies that are put in crisp, brown crusts, the filler delicious and delicately flavored. Then coffee, coffee that is wine rich, the aroma itself an inducement to drink more than is good for one. There is quality and a very pleasing richness in all our pastry.
