

DONUT SWIMMERS TO VIE MARCH 24

Varsity Team May Compete in Interfraternity Event at Women's Gymnasium

The intramural swimming meet will follow close upon the finish of the donut wrestling tournament.

Information blanks have been sent to all the men's houses and living organizations, and in a few days these will be followed by registration blanks.

A list of the maximum times for each event will be posted in the pool and on the bulletin board in the men's gym.

Since swimming is not recognized in the University, the varsity swimmers will be allowed to compete and this will make the meet a fast one.

The events with their maximum time are as follows: 160 yard relay—1 minute, 50 seconds.

Fancy diving will not depend on the time but it is urged that the house captains consult with Barnes about these events.

Last year the meet was won by Oregon club with 24 points. In second place came Kappa Theta Chi, now Phi Kappa Psi, with 14 points and Kappa Sigma with 12 points.

CHAMPIONS TO PLAY HERE

Greenleaf and Byers Will Exhibit Skill at Mascot Parlors

E. Ralph Greenleaf of Chicago, pocket billiard champion of the world, and Clayton Byers of San Francisco, pocket billiard champion of the Pacific coast, will appear in matches and exhibitions playing in the Mascot billiard parlors, Friday, March 16.

Matches will be held at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and at 8 in the evening. Following the matches each player will display his skill with the ivory spheres in exhibition shooting.

JINKS PROGRAM CHOSEN

The program for the Hendricks high school jinks to be held Friday evening was announced yesterday by Fred Chess, manager of the affair.

First stunt, seniors, Miss Kinsey and Miss Taylor coaches, "The Trysting place." Second stunt, sophomores, Mr. Sill and Miss Blais coaches, "The Evolution of High School Amusements."

An intermission of 25 minutes for sale of ice cream will take place after which will occur the fifth stunt, Miss Anderson and Mr. Christenson, coaches, "Quaker Dice, Quaker Vice."

Many Features at Rex

A notable addition today and Saturday to the current two feature program presented at the Rex, is the second round, "The Knight in Gale," of H. C. Witwer's famous Collier's Weekly stories, "Fighting Blood," a series of twelve complete features, one of which is shown every other Friday and Saturday at that theatre.

Charles Chaplin in his new four-reeler, "The Pilgrim," already acclaimed the only rival of "The Kid," is the top notch feature of this Rex bill, while Ruth Roland in "The Log Jam," is the first of "The Timber Queen," is the third member of this all star trio to be shown today and tomorrow.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR NEWSPAPER SESSION

Editor Lands Oregon School of Journalism in Article in Professional Paper

Plans for the annual Oregon newspaper conference which is to meet in Eugene on March 22, 23 and 24, have been practically completed, says Dean Eric Allen of the school of journalism.

Bede, who is editor of the Cottage Grove Sentinel, has an article in the current number of "The Washington Newspaper," a publication dedicated to the study and improvement of journalism in Washington, in which he pays special tribute to the journalism department of the University of Oregon, and to the instructors, Dean Allen, Professor Turnbull and Colin V. Dymont.

"In Oregon," he writes, "the journalism school at the state University has taken a deep interest in editorial affairs. Cooperation between the Oregon State Editorial association and the University of Oregon journalism department has been most profitable to both."

"The spirit displayed by each side," he continues, "has been that of helpfulness to the other, and both have grown in influence and popularity during the time that there has been such cooperation, which period extends back to the very inception of the department. To my knowledge the heads of this department have been guided in their actions by the advice of practical newspapermen of the state, who have never attended a journalism school and some of whom have never so much as graduated from a high school. On the other hand, these same newspapermen, in my opinion, have greatly benefited by what they have learned through the efforts of the journalism department, and by being able to employ its graduates, many of whom are already making their marks in the newspaper and literary world."

PUNCH OFFICE RENOVATED

Order Is Established, Curtains and Pictures Are Added

The Lemon Punch office has put on such a changed appearance in the past few weeks, according to visitors, that it is hardly recognizable as the staid, business-like place it used to be.

Reason?—Feminine hands have been at work cleaning up and renovating and making the old office a respectable establishment. Curtains of burlap now hang at the windows, pictures of all descriptions adorn the walls, desks and tables are neatly piled with papers, magazines and books in stacks, and the floor is swept clean of all cigarette stubs and unfinished manuscripts.

CAMPUS PICTURES TAKEN

John L. Bogue, pastor of the Methodist church of The Dalles, was on the campus yesterday. Mr. Bogue, a talented amateur photographer, spent some time photographing the buildings and beauty spots on the campus. When these are printed they will be sent to Mr. Ralph Casey, of the school of journalism.

DEAN STRAUB WILL TALK

Dean John Straub left last night for Portland and other northern points, where he will give talks on the value of education before various groups of high school students. Forest Grove, Beaverton, and Hillsboro high schools are among the places listed for the dean to speak.

O. A. C. FACULTY WOMEN WIN FROM UNIVERSITY

Physical Education Staffs Vie in Hard-Fought Game

The staff of the women's physical education department of O. A. C. crushed the University women's staff 56 to 11 last night in a hard but well fought basketball battle in the Woman's building. Considerable excitement prevailed during the game in the rooting section.

The visitors showed good team work and were consistent gainers over their opponents. Helen Moore and Mrs. O. M. Hennis worked well in combination as centers and kept the ball going in the direction of the O. A. C. court much of the time. Ruth Thayer, forward for the O. A. C. tossers did good work and was responsible for 34 of the 56 points annexed by her team. The Oregon team played a steady and fast game, but were easily outclassed by their opponents. Dr. Bertha Stuart, guard for the home team was continually on the job tracking her speedy opponent. The last quarter Oregon fought hard to score, but was unsuccessful in dropping any baskets.

Following the game last night, the Oregon staff entertained the O. A. C. team in the Woman's building where refreshments were served.

The line-up was as follows: Oregon L. Rankin.....G.....D. McKee R. Hjertaas.....G.....B. Stuart H. Moore.....C.....L. Stupp Mrs. O. M. Hennis.....F. Alden Mrs. R. Rutherford.....E. Waterman R. Thayer.....F.....C. Cannon

AUTHOR GETS NOBEL PRIZE

Of special interest, due to the forthcoming production of "La Malquerida" at Guild theater on March 22, 23 and 24, is the recent announcement that the Swedish Academy has awarded the Nobel prize in literature for 1922 to Jacinto Benavente, "La Malquerida" (The Passion Flower) is Benavente's masterpiece. The award serves to emphasize the fact that Benavente is essentially a modern and it further acts as a guide in the placing of the Spanish author as one of the foremost dramatists of his time. The award further indicates that Benavente's contribution to literature has been not only to his contemporaries, but for all time.

STUDENT TAKES EXAM

Aubrey S. Tussing, a major in the school of law, is in Portland taking the state bar examination which began yesterday and ends today. This is a special examination, the regular examination being sometime in July.

SIGMA NU MAY BUILD

Sigma Nu fraternity has obtained an option on a tract of ground next to the Kappa Sigma fraternity. The site will probably be used for a new building if the deal, now pending, is completed.
