

ORCHESTRA BACK AFTER COAST TRIP

Program Given Contained No
Jazz or Comic Numbers;
Soloists Carried

The University Symphony orchestra, directed by Rex Underwood of the school of music, returned Sunday evening from its annual trip, which was successful in every way. It was made this year to coast towns.

The orchestra left directly after the winter term examination, giving concerts in Marshfield, Bandon, Coquille, Myrtle Point and Reedsport. The same program was given at each performance and it did not include any stunts, or solos of popular appeal. Mr. Underwood has made this a special feature of his programs, and has discovered that a dignified musical concert program is as much appreciated as one containing several popular compositions and comic numbers.

"While there are undoubtedly some who miss the jazz," Mr. Underwood said, "there are, at the same time, enough music lovers in each town to make it worth our while to take the good things, and they appreciate our efforts in that direction."

Soloists were John B. Siefert, tenor, of the school of music, Alberta Potter, violin, and Lora Teshner, cello, seniors in the school of music. Mr. Siefert sang two songs, as the second part of the program, accompanied by the orchestra — "A Dream," Bartlett, and "Love Like the Dawn Came Stealing," Cadman.

The second group part of the program was given over entirely to solo work, Alberta Potter opening it, playing "Fantasie Appassionata," Vioutemps. She was followed by Mr. Siefert, who sang, "Yesterday and Today," Stross; "Under the Lantern," Sanderson, and the "Waters of Minnetonka," Lieurance. Miss Teshner accompanied Mr. Siefert, and the group was closed with a string trio, "Gypsy Rondo," Hayden, played by Alberta Potter, Katy Potter and Aurora Potter Underwood.

The orchestra numbers were, "Orpheus Overture," Offenbach; "Reve Angeli," Rubenstein; Selection from "Mile. Modiste," Victor Herbert; Hungarian Dances No. 5 and 6; Brahms; Selection from "Pagliacci," Leoncavallo, which was alternated with a suite from Bizet's "Carmen"—Prelude, Aragonaise and Toreador song. "Mighty Oregon," Perfect, completed each program.

WEST HAS CHARM FOR FRATERNITY OFFICER

Delta Delta Delta Province, Deputy Enjoying Visit to Western University Campus

Western universities are far ahead of middle states colleges in respect to spring weather, green buds, and pink blossoms, admits Miss Ernestine Block of Denver, Colorado, Province Deputy of Delta Delta Delta, who is a visitor on the campus this week.

This is Miss Block's first trip to the Pacific Coast, and she has expressed herself as being particularly impressed with the democratic attitude of the students in the West. Miss Block also spoke highly of the spirit which put the Woman's building on the campus before many other needed buildings were erected.

"In most schools, said Miss Block, a building for the women is the very last thing thought of and one quite so beautiful and complete as yours is seldom thought of."

Miss Block is being entertained by the local chapter of Delta Delta Delta, and several affairs have been arranged in her honor. Wednesday afternoon there was a tea in the Woman's building. In the receiving line, besides Miss Block were Mrs. W. F. Graham, Miss Mattie Patterson, Mrs. A. R. Sweetser and Miss Tekla Haynes. Thursday evening,

Miss Block will be guest of honor at a dinner at the chapter house. Guests invited are President and Mrs. Campbell, Dean and Mrs. Colin Dymont, Professor and Mrs. A. H. Schreff, Professor and Mrs. A. R. Sweetser, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Giffen, Miss Grace Edgington, and Mr. Ben Horning.

CABINET AND COUNCIL MEMBERS ARE NAMED

Y. W. C. A. Lists Appointments, Discusses Coming Work; Mary Clerin, New President, in Chair

A discussion of the work for the coming year, and announcement of the new appointments for the cabinet and council, were important topics taken up at the Y. W. C. A. council dinner held in the bungalow last evening.

As yet both the cabinet and council membership is incomplete, but the most of the appointments were announced last night. For the cabinet, Maurine Buchanan was chosen for the meetings committee; the world fellowship committee will be headed by Charlotte Winnard; finance will be led by Margaret Seymour; Mary Kinner is freshman commission advisor, and Freda Runes will supervise the infirmity service. The following were appointed to the council: Religious activities, Edna Largent; service, Mary Bartholomew; social, Bernice Myer; finance, Luella Hausler; church cooperation, Elizabeth Phelps.

The meeting last night was the first for the term, and Mary Clerin, the newly elected president of the Y. W. C. A., presided.

Y. M. ASSEMBLY PLANNED

Conference at Seabeck, Washington;
Will be Held June 15 to 25

According to the opinion of the campus Y. M. C. A. officials it is almost time to start thinking about the Seabeck assembly of Christian students which is held annually at Seabeck, Washington.

Gale Seaman in a talk to about thirty people at a luncheon at the Y. M. C. A. hut yesterday said, "To the individual, the conference gives character and education and Christian ideals which are imparted by great leaders and educators of the nation who are chosen to deliver lectures at the conference."

"The zeal for furthering Christian ideals which the conference instills in every student attending will be a great factor in aiding the Christian movement on the campus. The conference also is a wonderful help in training men for efficient Y. M. C. A. work on the campus." Mr. Seaman gave an interesting short talk on his experiences in the Orient. Rev. Bruce Giffen stressed the importance of attending the Seabeck conference and urged everybody who would be interested in a religious training, coupled with an enjoyable vacation, to attend.

The conference will open with the evening meal June 15, and close at breakfast time June 25th.

Detailed information concerning rates, fares and expenses will be gladly given by Mr. Putnam or Mrs. Donnelly at the hut.

POLA NEGRI AT CASTLE

Few film stars of the day command the popular attention and admiration that picture-goers of this country award to Pola Negri in each new film in which she appears. Her latest picture, "Mad Love," distributed by Goldwyn, which will be the attraction at the Castle theatre today and Saturday, is bound to create more comment than any other in which she has been seen. It is from an original story written especially to exploit Pola Negri's command of the great emotions which sweep the hearts of woman-kind. It is the exceptional role, the depiction of exotic, hot-blooded women, that has brought Mlle. Negri's art to its finest flowering upon the screen and "Mad Love" exhibits such a woman in her struggles with her woman-nature.

THE SHOE DOCTOR

It's the sole of the people we keep in view,
For I am a doctor of the boot and the shoe.
I serve the living, not the dead —
Use the best leather, wax and thread.
I will stitch on a sole or nail it fast —
Do a good job, and guarantee it to last.
I will give you a gift along in life —
Not only you, but your family and wife.
So many patients come to my door,
All run down and feeling so sore,
I don't use poultices, plasters or pills,
But I can cure you all of your shoe ills.
