Get Into the Fresh Air

The Oregon Journal recently ran an editorial commenting on Portland's inattention to the natural beauties that surround her. Particularly to that magnificent mountain that rises so majestically to the east. . .

We are all alike. Frequently on the campus, someone will say, "I have never climbed Spencer's," "I have never been up Baldy." Able-bodied they are too—but many of them do not know of the beauty spots around Eugene that are reached with an even less expenditure of energy than are the two hills.

The Women's Athletic Association is stimulating considerable interest in hiking this year. It is offering a silver cup to the house that can run up the highest average mileage, and competition is unusually keen among the women.

This is a good thing. We in the West, and particularly in Oregon should appreciate the beauties of the country about us more—and in place of spending our spare minutes poring over unedifying literature in stuffy rooms, or viewing cheap movies, should refresh our souls with a few hours in Oregon's out-of-doors.

PINOCHLE FINALS WILL DECIDE WINNER TONIGHT

"Hard" Gents From Geology Department to Shuffle Cards in Final Round; Glen Walkley Bouncer

Tonight at 7 o'clock, two smooth fingered "gents" from the geology department and one from the school of business administration will scrape the sawdust from their feet and shuffle the cards in the final round of the pinochle tournament. After five fingers, served from the bar, the miners, Karl Vonder Ahe, Ed Haney and Ian Campbell will cast aside their guns and break the new deck of cards, cutting low for dealer.

The official announcer will be present to chalk up the score in approved Monte Carlo style. For the benefit of the uninitiated, he will call out the winner. Dr. Warren D. Smith, head of the geology department, will cast his eye over the players to see that no sleeve working is indulged in. Don Zimmerman, president of the G. and M. society, officiates as host to the gamblers. He will see that the rook artists do not scar the furniture in their speedy action. Phil Brogan, managing editor of the Emerald, will assist Troy Phipps, former champion, in the difficult mathematical process of keeping score.

Glenn Walkley, for two years bouncer for the Chemists club, has been signed up by the geologists for floor manager. The mineralogy lecture room in the basement of Johnson hall will be the place where the curious tenderfeet, masculine and feminine alike, may view the had-boiled westerners in action. Ten cents admission and you get your money's worth declare the promoters. All those who have taken part in the tournament will be admitted for half price, five cents.

STUNTS TO BE REPEATED

Unheard of Privilege Will Be Extended University Men on May 9

Who'd have thought that a mere man would ever reach the height of attending an April Frolic stunt and even be admitted with the permission of all those present? Yet such is to be the privilege of the men of the University on May 9, when Mu Phi Epsilon, Women's honorary music sorority, will sponsor an affair to be held in the armory, at which the stunts will be repeated and a jitney dance staged as an added attraction. These organizations which have signified their willingness to take part in the event are Delta Gamma, presenting "The Ten Million," Susan Campbell hall, staging "All on a Summer's Night," Delta Delta Delta presenting "Patchwork" and Gamma Phi Beta with "Tut, Tut." "A lively orchestra has been engaged for the evening and the affair promises to be worth the price," says Mildred Hall, who has charge of the presentation.

CONSTRUCTION OF NEW PI PHI HOME TO START

Three-Story Structure Costing $30,000 To Be Erected at Kincaid and Fifteenth Streets

Ground is to be broken tomorrow for the new Pi Phi house which is to be located on Kincaid street at Fifteenth avenue. Contracts for the house which will cost approximately $30,000, will be let this week.

The house is to be Dutch Colonial in design and built of brick. It will be three stories high and contain about 25 rooms, including a large chapter room. There will be two sleeping porches, one each on the second and third floors.

The construction of the house is to be financed on a purely business basis. The money is to be advanced by a holding company composed of alumnae of the fraternity and active members. The house will be owned by this holding company until the chapter has paid off the notes.

The house will be finished and ready for occupancy by the beginning of the fall term of school.

LONDONER WILL PAY VISIT

Henry Higgs, Economist and Publicist, On Campus Saturday and Sunday

Henry Higgs, of London, prominent economist and publicist, will be on the campus Saturday and Sunday. The committee, of which Dr. Cameron and Mr. Crockett are in charge, is planning a Sunday dinner at the Osburn for him. All faculty members interested in meeting Mr. Higgs at this dinner are asked to notify the committee.

Mr. Higgs was educated at University college, London, and the University of Berlin. He was special commissioner to Natal to reorganize the civil service and later was inspector-general of finance in Egypt.

CO-EDS AFFECT EARLY MORNING STUDY CRAZE

New Members of Y. W. C. A. Cabinet Meet at 6:30 To Prepare for Examinations in Training Work

Now that the craze for setting the longest dance record has sort of lapsed into history, a group of University co-eds have seemingly started a new contest.

Yesterday morning the newly elected members of the campus Y. W. C. A. cabinet became so enthused over their approaching examinations in training work to be given Thursday, that they decided to assemble in the Bungalow at 6:30 and hold an early morning class. Every member reported promptly and got in a good hour and a half study before the ordinary 8 o'clock classes began. Not being content with making this record the girls unanimously decided to hold the regular cabinet meetings at that hour.

Although the last thing last night no other class or group had challenged the record, it may be expected any day that notice will appear in the paper announcing that some class will meet to discuss their course in time enough to enable the members enrolled in the work to watch the sun rise.

CLOUD-BURST IS TIMELY

Army Personnel Votes in Favor of Issac Walton; Drill Dismissed

Looks bad! The rain had ceased. The sad-faced R. O. T. C. boys were gathering about the barracks. The word passed along that drill was postponed on account of wetness. A murmur of surprise passed around the crowd; for it is a tradition that nothing less than a cloud-burst will interfere with instruction in the art of war.

At three o'clock an Emerald reporter called at the office to see Colonel X. He was informed that Colonel X was out. He asked for Captain Y. Captain Y was out. Where? "Fishing," said Lieutenant Z.

GIRL'S TENNIS STARTS

All women wishing to play in the interclass tennis series during this term must sign up before May 3, according to those in charge of the sport. There will be four girls on each class team. Three out of the group playing in the interclass games will be chosen to play in a match planned for the near future with O. A. C. Each girl who makes the class team will receive 100 points toward a sweater.

SWIMMING MEET TO BE HELD BY WOMEN MAY 4

Water Polo New Sport To Be Played At Event

The department of physical education for women will give a swimming exhibition on May 4, at eight p. m. in the Woman's building. The program which is a varied one includes a swimming meet between the sophomore class, winner of the interclass championship, and a team picked from other class team members; a demonstration of life saving work; exhibition diving, and water polo. The members of the sophomore team are Cris Heckman, captain, Maude Schoreder, Yvonne Smith, Helen Atkinson, Beatrice Fish, Katherine Sartain, Marion Hayes, and Isobel Stuart. The opposing team of picked swimmers is composed of Winifred Hopson, captain, Muriel Myers, Florence Baker, Marion Hill, Elizabeth Garrett, Emily Houston, Anna McCabe, Vida McKinney and Wenona Dyer.

The various carries, holds, and breaking for grips, disrobing, and Schaefer method of resuscitation will be shown by members of the American Red Cross life saving corps. The girls participating in these features are Alladeen Scroggins, Hilda Chase, Grace Caviness, Katherine Sartain, Emily Houston, Marguerite McCabe, Rosalia Keber, Henryetta Lawrence, Yvonne Smith, Beatrice Fish and Frances Simpson.

In the exhibition diving the following girls will perform: Yvonne Smith, Muriel Myers, Elizabeth Garrett, Katherine Sartain, Florence Baker, Anna McCabe and Anna DeWitt. Water polo is a new sport for the women at Oregon and the teams have had but ten days of practice under the coaching of Fred Howard, former student and swimming instructor at the University. Two halves of seven minutes each will constitute the game.

Officials for the exhibition will be: judges, Miss Emma Waterman, of the staff of physical education, Gerald Barnes, of the department of physical education, and Fred Howard, swimming instructor and coach; announcer, James King; starter, Gerald Barnes; score keeper, Cecile Johnson. Order of the "O" girls will usher. All faculty members, students and townspeople are invited to witness the exhibition.

"CHICAGO SAL," AT REX

Opening today for two days at the Rex, "Chicago Sal," a crook melodrama, features two prominent players in Alice Lake and Milton Sills. Anyone who likes a photoplay packed with thrilling action, with a story that is moving from the first scene to the final fade-out, and who would see Miss Lake and Mr. Sills heading a wonderful cast in parts that suit them to perfection, will do well to go to the Rex Theatre and see "Chicago Sal." "Chicago Sal" is one of those fascinating crook stories which is peculiarly suited for picturization and Irving Cummings has made a photoplay that will enhance and charm picture fans the world over.

DICKERSON HAS OPERATIONS

R. S. Dickerson, head of the history department of the University high school, is recovering from two minor operations. He expects to resume his work in about two weeks.
