

DEAN LAWRENCE TO REPRESENT STATE

Architect Will Attend Lincoln Memorial Ceremony in Washington, D. C.

Dean Ellis F. Lawrence of the school of architecture will be Oregon's representative at the Lincoln Memorial ceremony to be held May 18 at Washington. At this gathering, Henry Bacon, designer of the memorial, will be presented with a gold medal by the American Institute of Architects. Dean Lawrence represents the state chapter of the organization for Oregon.

Other participants who will represent Oregon are two former members of the faculty and two former students. They are Allen Eaton and Louis Rosenburg, formerly instructors in the school of architecture and allied arts, and Joe Tominga and Russell Collins, ex-students.

An elaborate pageant will be held at the ceremony. Banners, symbolically representing the states from which the participants came, will be used. Those from Oregon were designed and made by the students of the normal arts department. The affair has been put in charge of the two greatest pageant directors of the world, and no pains are being spared to make it a gorgeous spectacle.

Dean Lawrence is a member of the committee of education and the jury of fellows of the American Institute. President Warren G. Harding will open the ceremonial and will present the medal that the Institute is offering. The diplomatic corps, foreign legations, high officials of the church, navy and army will be present to witness the affair. Many of the best known architects, schools of architecture, and architectural associations, will be among those present.

Before going to the Lincoln Memorial ceremony, Dean Lawrence will represent the University at the meeting of the Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture. This convention will be held in Washington May 14 and 15. Oregon recently adopted a five-year architectural course. The members of the convention will discuss the advantages of the five-year course.

Alternate representatives are H. M. King, former instructor, L. J. Ellis, and Roscoe Hemenway, graduates of '19 and '22. King and Ellis are taking post-graduate work at a Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Hemenway is a graduate at the University of Pennsylvania. Rosenberg, Eaton and Tominga are living in New York while Collins is a student at Massachusetts.

MISS SANDERSON TALKS

Y. W. C. A. Council, Cabinet, Advisory Board and Mothers Attend Breakfast

Thirty-six women met at the Y. W. bungalow Sunday morning to hear Miss Edith Sanderson, national Y. W. C. A. officer, discuss the student volunteer movement. The meeting was in the form of a breakfast, and those who attended were members of the campus Y. W. C. A. council, cabinet and advisory board. There were also a number of mothers at the meeting who had come to the campus for Mothers' Week-end.

Besides Miss Sanderson's talk, Mrs. C. A. Bemis, also a national official in the Y. W. C. A., spoke on the work of the national association.

Yesterday afternoon a group of University women held a conference with Miss Sanderson in the Bungalow on the student volunteer work. Miss Sanderson left the campus this morning to make trips to other institutions on the coast.

SUMNER SENDS BOOK LIST

Advice about Religious Works Received for Use in University Library

In reply to the request of M. H. Douglas, librarian, that he compile a list of works of a religious nature that he deemed suitable for the University library, Bishop Walter T. Sumner of Portland, has sent to the library a list which he considers covers important religious writings of note, and which he states is the "product of several minds."

The Sumner list includes some books already owned by the library, and those already not possessed will likely be ordered, according to the librarian, who is endeavoring to get the opinions of a number of men who are ministers or in

DO-NUT SERIES TO GET UNDER WAY THIS WEEK

Five Baseball Games Scheduled; Frays Postponed Last Week May Be Played Teams Tie for First Place

The largest part of the do-nut baseball games scheduled for last week were postponed on account of the freshman games here and the Varsity games at Corvallis. This week five games are scheduled, and these will no doubt be added to by the postponed games that were to be played last week.

The games scheduled for this week are:

Tuesday, May 15, 6 a. m., Varsity field. Sigma Nu vs. Delta Theta Pi.

Wednesday, May 16, 6:00 a. m., Varsity field. Phi Kappa Psi vs. Chi Psi.

Thursday, May 17, 6:00 a. m., Varsity field. Phi Sigma Pi vs. Kappa Delta Phi.

4:00 p. m., R. O. T. C. field, Phi Delta Theta vs. Bachelordon.

Friday, May 18, 6:00 a. m., Varsity field. Alpha Beta Chi vs. Delta Tau Delta.

Two teams of the tournament have played two games so far. In the first game of the do-nut season, Bachelordon defeated Alpha Beta Chi by a score of 15 to 2. Their second game was lost to Sigma Chi by a score of 10 to 7.

The Beta Theta Pi team defeated the Delta Tau Delta nine by a score of 10 to 3 and were in turn beaten in their second game by the S. A. E. team by the score of 11 to 1.

Kappa Sigma won from Phi Sigma Pi by a score of 13 to 0. It was in this game that Ashby, the Kappa Sig pitcher, struck out 17 men. The Phi nine defeated the Kappa Delta Phi team by a score of 9 to 2. The A. T. O. team defeated the Phi Delt team by the score of 14-5. Sigma Nu, Phi Kappa Psi, Chi Psi and Delta Theta Phi have not played yet but are scheduled this week.

Plans for the sodding of the entire grounds about the new Journalism building can not be completed, according to H. M. Fisher, superintendent of grounds. The sod which was to be used for this work was found to be unsatisfactory. The remainder of the grounds which have not been sodded will be seeded so that a lawn may be had as soon as possible.

Several parts of the campus have been covered with sod this spring, under the direction of Mr. Fisher. The court in the new Arts building has just recently been sodded and the lawn near the Y. M. C. A. hut was given a coat of grass some time before that. The sod for the work by the hut was obtained behind McClure hall and the Journalism shack. The sod for the more recent work in the Arts court and for the Journalism building was taken from the lawn of the Extension building which is to be moved to make room for the new heating plant. The supply here, however, has been used up and a new supply must be found. Mr. Fisher had planned to use the sod from Hayward field until it was found to be unsuitable for transplanting work.

To do a good job in transplanting, a workman must be very careful in his work. The process is much more tedious than merely seeding the lawn, but when the work is once finished and the lawn watered, the grass will be growing nicely in a few days, said Mr. Fisher. He prefers to sod a new lawn whenever a sufficient supply of sod can be obtained.

TURNBULL HAS POSITIONS
Superintendent L. W. Turnbull of the Tillamook schools, is a visitor on the campus. Mr. Turnbull is looking for several teachers to fill vacancies in his schools.

FACULTY TO MEET
There will be a special meeting of the faculty on Wednesday in Johnson hall to continue the discussion of the report of the Portland Center Credits committee.

GREAT BROXOPP NEXT COMPANY PRODUCTION

English Comedy Unusual in Situation and Fun

"The Great Broxopp," by Milne, the next play to be produced by the University Company, is an English comedy with an altogether different brand of humor, many clever lines and a number of funny situations. "The Great Broxopp," admittedly a lowbrow who aspires to polished manners and continually forgets to remove his hat in the house or to remain standing while ladies are standing, is cheered on by his adoring wife.

Broxopp's special line is advertising, and he has a gift for euphonious phrases which make wonderful selling slogans, gain him plenty of money to buy the chops he loves, but bring upon his family an undue amount of publicity which proves fatal when the girl his son falls in love with objects.

Iris does not like to be the daughter-in-law of the maker of "Broxopp Beans for Babies," nor the wife of the man who in his youth posed for the picture which adorns the profuse advertisements, smiling to the public, "I'm a Broxopp Baby, are you?" So poor old Broxopp has to be a highbrow and the only way he can live his advertising down is to change his name. Chillingham, his wife's name, seems sufficiently imposing so the change is made.

As the play goes on amusing situations develop and in the end the old lovely lowbrow Broxopp wins out. Nor is Mrs. Broxopp without her laurels.

Kate Pinneo and Vern Fudge, both well-known Guild hall stars, will play the scior leads in this production. Their work in the past recommends them for success in the present play. Elizabeth Robinson and Dave Swanson will play the junior leads. Miss Robinson is a sophomore, and is in the Company for the first year, although she was prominent in dramatic work at O. A. C. Since coming to the campus she has done some exceedingly good work in a number of parts. Dave Swanson is a sophomore also, and has played well a number of the smaller parts in Guild productions this year. Both were in the Mask and Euskin play, "Come Out of the Kitchen" which had a phenomenal success.

The Company has produced on an average of one play a month this year, and it is probable that they will take a play to Portland some time in the near future.

PREPPERS DEBATE MAY 17
Astoria and Pendleton High Schools Will Meet on University Campus

Word was received yesterday from the Astoria and Pendleton high schools, saying that Thursday evening, May 17, will be satisfactory for the state championship debate which will be held on the campus.

Astoria is the winner of the western Oregon preliminaries and Pendleton of eastern Oregon. The final state championship debate will be a feature of the Junior week-end program, but because of the canoe fete Friday night and the Junior prom Saturday night, Thursday was decided as the best time to hold it.

Astoria will take the affirmative and Pendleton the negative side on the question, "Resolved, that the United States should adopt a policy of ship subsidies." The judges have not yet been selected.

PLENTRY OF HEAT ASSURED

A definite date for the removal of the old heating plant and the tearing down of the big brick flue is as yet undecided, according to H. M. Fisher, superintendent of the University grounds. No action will be taken in removing the old plant until it can be definitely ascertained that the new plant can be completed in time for the opening of the fall term. In case it were not completed, a removal of the present plant would leave very inadequate means of heating the University buildings next fall.

NEW INSTRUCTOR COMING

Garritt Demmink, Michigan, to Assist in Public Speaking and Rhetoric

Garritt Demmink of the University of Michigan will come to Oregon next fall to act as an assistant in public speaking, according to an announcement made by the public speaking department the other morning. He will assist in both written and spoken English classes and with debate and oratory.

Mr. Demmink comes to the campus strongly recommended by both the public speaking and rhetoric departments of the University of Michigan. He is a veteran Michigan debater and all-state orator, as well as an inter-state orator.

An Old-Fashioned Favorite

There are still a few old-fashioned girls and some old-fashioned mothers, but one fact remains—old-fashioned strawberry shortcake is a delight forever. Its joy remains as long as there shall be confectioners who cater to that old-fashioned appetite that never dies.

In the spring a lad's and lassie's fancies happily turn to plates of light heavenly shortcake. It's fairly crushed under its load of big red strawberries and whipped cream.
