

OLD OREGON WILL APPEAR JUNE 14

Commencement Number Tells Story of Graduation and Orations of '97

An account of an old fashioned commencement with a list of the fourteen orations delivered, will be a feature of the Commencement number of Old Oregon, appearing on the campus on June 14.

The story was written by Laura Miller of Portland, a member of the class of '97, and contains among other things a list of 14 orations, which were given at the commencement exercises on that day. These ranged in subject matter from "The Omnipotence of Thought," "The Omnipotence of Character," "The Posers of Nature," "The Wings of the Soul," and "Liberty Engulfed in the Seething Waters of Political Chaos."

"Commencement in those days, was second only to the Fourth of July," says Miss Edgington, "and people came for miles around, whether they had sons and daughters graduating, or not."

Another feature will be a picture of Opal Whitely, the author of "The Story of Opal," who has lately published a new book of poems entitled "The Flowers of the Stars." Miss Whitely was at one time a student at the University of Oregon, for a period of three years.

There will also be an article by Judge R. S. Bean of Portland, who is coming to the campus to celebrate his forty-fifth Commencement. Judge Bean was for 38 years a member of the board of regents of the University, 25 years of which he served as president. He has had five sons attending the University, four of whom are graduates of this institution.

A picture of the class of 1893 as freshmen, will also appear in the issue. "Mrs. L. H. Johnson and Elizabeth Stevenson's mother are the only two I have recognized so far in the picture," says Miss Edgington.

Plans are already underway for next year's Old Oregon, according to Miss Edgington. A medical section with news from the Medical School in Portland will be a new feature.

"The poetry page will probably be continued," says Miss Edgington, "since that one section has attracted more interest from alumni than any other one department. We are also hoping for a number of articles from Herbert Thompson, ex-'96, who is a member of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce Publicity Department. His article on Eugene in 1890 was one of the most popular features and a large number of calls were received for the issue in which it was published."

A department of campus comment and criticism will also be a new feature of next year's Old Oregon.

"I have been rather disappointed in the response from the alumni this year," added Miss Edgington, "but I believe that it is because they are not in the habit of hearing from the alumni association so often and therefore they do not respond as often as they should. However the alumni magazine will continue to be run as a monthly next year, and will not decrease in size but will probably be larger."

ALTSTOCK WINS CONTEST

Second Place in Extempore Speaking
Held by Eagy and Robbins

Frances Altstock won first place in the extempore speaking contest held in Villard hall last evening. Clarence Eagy and Edward Robbins tied for second.

Altstock will be awarded the first prize of ten dollars, while honorable mention will be given those who tied for second place. The subjects of the speeches were restricted to topics of state, national, international or scientific interest.

Miss Mozelle Hair, Dr. M. K. Cameron and Professor Donald Barnes acted as judges. Eight students, all members of the extempore speaking classes under Professor C. D. Thorpe and Aileen Cooper, spoke at the contest.

The speakers and their subjects follow:

Reese Wingard, "All Within the Law;" Shelby Carter, "Is the Campus Over Organized?"; Francis Altstock, "Why We Are in College;" Irwin Adams, "Conservation;" Wayne Meek, "Race Suicide;" Edward Robbins, "What Radio Means to the Blind;" Florence Walsh, "Child Health;" and Clarence Eagy, "The Twentieth Amendment."

ORAL EXAMINATIONS TAKEN

Six Medical Students Successfully Try
for Masters Degree

Six students from the University of Oregon Medical school in Portland took their oral Master's examinations last Friday. These exams were passed by all the candidates and the M. A. degrees will be given at Commencement. Six faculty members from Portland came down to be on the Examination board. Faculty members of the campus and students were invited to hear the examinations. The students who passed them and who will receive degrees are: Katharine Kerr, major-Pathology, minor-Bacteriology; W. C. Foster, major-Anatomy, minor-Physiology; Raymond Hausler, major-Anatomy, minor-Physiology; Clinton Thienes, major-

Anatomy, minor-Pharmacology; Lester T. Jones, major-Physiology, minor-Anatomy; Homer P. Rush, major-Physiology, minor-Pathology.

The faculty members who came to Eugene were Doctors William F. Allen, Olaf Larsell, Robert L. Benson, George E. Burget, Frank A. Menne and Harold B. Myers.

UNIVERSITY CATALOGUE COMING OFF THE PRESS

Edition of 58,000 Copies of New Book
Will be Printed; Changes in Style Made

The first run of the 1923-1924 issue of the University catalogue came off the University press last night. It is expected that it will be the latter part of June before the entire 58,000 copies will be printed and ready for distribution.

There will be several changes in the style of the book this year, according to Mrs. George Fitch who edited the catalogue. For one thing it will be larger and of different typographical style. There will also be a change in the courses listed, in that courses listed as A, B, and C must all be taken before credit can be given as they will be year courses.

It takes about three months to make up the catalogue, as courses must be checked up to see if they are given at proper term and if they are going to be given. Heads of departments must also rewrite their statements.

The catalogue is primarily for student use, but a copy is sent to all the high schools to the colleges listed for exchange and to faculty members of the University. There is no charge asked for the book.

JUNIORS TO SIGN CARDS

All Juniors who expect to obtain degrees next year should go to the registrar's office before the close of school and fill out "an application for degree card." This will enable the office to check up on their records in the summer and tell just what credits they lack towards obtaining their degrees. It will not only be doing the registrar a favor but will be of material aid in outlining programs for next year.

OFFICERS TO GO TO CAMP

Three members of the staff of the military department, Captain E. G. Arnold, Lieutenant M. E. Knowles and Sergeant F. I. Agule, will leave tomorrow for Camp Lewis to attend the R. O. T. C. summer session. Colonel W. S. Sinclair and Sergeant Edward Conyers will stay in Eugene over summer. The 25 men who will go to the camp will leave immediately after final examinations. One man, Jack Meyers, will attend the camp at Del Monte, California.

EXPORT MAN TO SPEAK

Christian Peterson, foreign export manager for the United States National Bank of Portland, will meet with Pan Xenia national foreign trade fraternity Wednesday. He will report on the foreign trade convention at New Orleans May 2, 3 and 4. Mr. Peterson was present at the convention and his report will be from first-hand information.

NEW COURSES AT U. H. S.

Several additions have been made to the University high school curricula. A class in bookkeeping will be given next year, as well as one on the History of Science, a senior class to be taught by E. L. Hoskin, head of the science department. For the benefit of students about to graduate who must make their two-year foreign language requirement, a class in Spanish will be added.

RETURN OF R. O. T. C. EQUIPMENT

Although there is no definite date set when all R. O. T. C. equipment is to be turned in, the military department requests that uniforms be brought in as soon as possible so that the job can be wound up. The uniforms will all be looked over, repaired or returned to headquarters if they are beyond repairing this summer.

SCHOOL TO HOLD PICNIC

The Portland School of Social Work will hold its first annual spring convocation today. Luncheon will be given in the Y. W. C. A. social hall and President P. L. Campbell will be one of the speakers. President Campbell will preside at the public meeting held in Library hall in the evening. Dr. P. A. Parsons will also speak at that time.

BUREAU GETS PLACES FOR SENIOR STUDENTS

Thirty-five Obtain Positions;
Others Expected

Thirty-five seniors are awaiting the coming of September with more or less anticipation in that they already have a definite idea of where they will be located.

The University appointment bureau which takes care of placing all seniors who wish positions, has so far obtained appointments for 35 students. Tentative appointments are being made for several more, but definite word has not been received as to whether or not the students have been elected.

Following is a list of graduates with the positions, which they have secured for the coming year:

Lawrence J. Boyle, Ashland; Ruth T. Nye, Myrtle Point; Adelaide H. White, Haines; Audrey Perkins, Bandon; Marjorie Holaday, Bend; Frances MacMillan, Estacada; Helen M. Addison, Bandon; Earle P. Coburn, Gold Hill; Lulu C. McLaughlin, Estacada; William F. Beck, Mill City; Gertrude E. Toole, Brownsville; Paul W. Cook, Brookings; Zetta Mitchell Cook, Brookings; D. W. Boitnott, Junior College, Flat River, Mo.; F. Kelsey Guilfoil, Hermiston; Rex Putnam, Redmond; Marion Mitchell, Hillsboro; Charles G. Smith, Estacada; Edna Agnes Scott, Lincoln high school, Portland; Zoe Allen, Astoria; LeLaine West, Klamath Falls; Frank L. Grannis, Cottage Grove; Virginia Tomlinson, Springfield; May C. Feno, Klamath Falls; Frank R. Bennett, Klamath Falls; Anna F. Vogel, Corvallis; Henry H. Dirksen, Monroe; Alta B. Landon, Elgin; Aulis Anderson, Tillamook; Ferd W. Jones, Gates; Margaret Phelps, Kelso; Mary A. Parkinson, Ilwaco; Victor C. Sether, Medford; Mary E. Moore, Medford and Marvel Skeels, Coquille.

SUMMER CONSTRUCTION WORK TO BE EXTENSIVE

Location for New Heating Plant Causes
Great Deal of Moving and Tearing Down of Campus Buildings

The carpenter shop will be one of the busiest departments in the University this summer if all the construction work on its program is carried out. The Extension building, the Post office, the carpenter shop, the "pest house" and the infirmary are to be moved to make room for the new heating plant, according to one of the men employed in the construction department.

The men employed on the work could not tell which buildings would be moved first or where they would be placed. It is probable, however, that the old infirmary building will be moved across the alley, and the Extension building moved to the present site of the infirmary and "pest house."

The old repair and carpenter shops in the rear of the Extension building will be moved or torn down to make room for the new heating plant. These buildings as well as the "pest house" are very old and probably will be torn down.

A new heating plant was deemed necessary when the old plant near the Sociology building, was unable to heat all the buildings comfortably last winter. Work of tearing down the old plant will begin as soon as the heat is not needed in the buildings. Scaffolding has been placed on the smoke stack preparatory to the work of razing the plant.

DEBATERS TO SELL BARS

Campus Will Have Chance to Cool off
for Ten Cents June 7

Ice cream bars, 90 in the shade and exams seem to go together. The first two we have because we like 'em and the last, we have because we must. The weather man promises a nice warm day for next Thursday, June 7, and Zeta Kappa Psi, women's debating society, will furnish the ice cream bars.

Girls will be stationed at all points of vantage on the campus and will sell the dainty confections for the small sum of 10c a bar.

Remember the day—Thursday—and don't forget to bring you dimes, say the orators.

STUDENTS STUDY BY MAIL

Correspondence study for May showed 41 students enrolled in 47 courses, according to Dr. Dan E. Clark, of the extension division. There were 51 students who completed 55 courses during May, earning 155 term hours of University credit. These hours correspond to the average number earned by ten students on the campus during one term. Few students taking correspondence work fail in their courses, said Dr. Clark. This is usually because students who cannot keep up their work withdraw rather than fail in a course.
