

COMMITTEE PLANS SPECIAL FEATURES

Ideas for Homecoming Stunts Under Consideration

LIST OF ROOMS WANTED

Women's Houses Have Paid Tax for Luncheon

Special features, serious and frivolous, of the Homecoming ceremonies, campus luncheon, and the housing of the returning grads, were the topics of the Homecoming committee meetings yesterday.

The feature committee plans four events. The first of these will be the Order of the O parade at the Homecoming game. Old grads who wear the letter, from the white-haired man of fifty or sixty to the boys still in college, will parade around the field before the members of the University to whose athletic fame they have contributed. Every Oregon letter man is urged to be here for the parade. Come and bring your sweater, is the invitation of the committee, and of the Oregon student body.

Flag Will Be Raised
There will be a flag-raising ceremony before the game after the teams have come out on the field. The players and the crowd will stand uncovered while the bugle plays and the flag is raised. The band will play the "Star Spangled Banner." The committee is working on an snappy feature to be staged between halves of the game, immediately after the naturalizing ceremony. They have not yet decided whether this feature will be of a humorous nature or not. It will be good or it will not be staged, they declare.

This year the campus luncheon committee is preparing for an increase of 1000 guests over last year. Then the number at the luncheon was 200. A musical program of seven or eight numbers will be put on during the campus luncheon present plans show. Possible numbers will be by the band and the University men's glee club. This idea of a program is a new thing. The committee feels it will add greatly to the luncheon.

Tax Now Due
The 50 cent tax for the luncheon is now due from every student. All the women's houses have paid in their quota. The money from the men's houses is beginning to come in. The menu will be decided upon later. The food will be prepared in the Friendly hall kitchen.

The canvass for rooms to house the guests of the University has begun. The committee asks that anyone who can supply a room will phone to Miss Grace Edgington's office, number 1593, and list the room. There will be a house to house canvass among the townspeople later, but Mason Dillard, chairman of the rooms and accommodations committee, wants as many as possible to list their rooms now. 400 rooms are wanted in all.

Another feature of the work of the accommodations committee will be an information desk at the Administration building to be open from Friday noon to 2 p. m. Saturday of Homecoming week-end. All alumni will be brought directly to this desk and registered upon arrival. Here rooms will be assigned and badges distributed. The committee will also maintain an information bureau at the Osburn hotel.

CLASSES IN SWEDISH ATTRACT 20 STUDENTS

Language Declared Valuable in Literary Scope; Professor Studying for Scientific Treatises

There are about 20 students enrolled in the Swedish classes under Professor Thorstenberg of the language department. Those taking this course are, in nearly all cases, of Scandinavian descent. The class in elementary Swedish contains one member of the faculty, Professor Stafford of the chemistry department, who is taking the course in order to be able to read Swedish scientific treatises. Many of the students plan to visit the homeland of their parents and desire to be able to speak the language.

"We Americans, because of our large country, are inclined to think that there can be nothing of value or interest in learning the language of a smaller nation," said Professor Thorstenberg, "while in fact we often find them further advanced along certain lines than ourselves." This is especially true regarding Sweden. Her literature is valuable for its scientific treatises as well as for many writers of high literary ability, such as Ibsen.

Y. W. C. A. TO GIVE TEA AT BUNGALOW TUESDAY

Magazines for University Infirmary and Bungalow to Be Obtained from the Proceeds

Home made mince and pumpkin pie, ice cream sundaes and cinnamon toast with tea. Such is the menu which the Y. W. C. A. has planned for Thursday, November 8, when the members of the association will convert the Bungalow into a tea room, and entertain the campus from 1 o'clock until 5. Reasonable prices will be asked for the food, and the proceeds are to be used partly for a fund to secure magazines for the University infirmary and the Y. W. C. A. Bungalow.

Last June the association gave a similar function, known as the "Bird Cage" tea room to raise funds for the Seabeck conference loan fund.

This year the decorations will conform with Thanksgiving time, and committees are actively at work to make the affair a most attractive one.

Women appointed to take charge of the tea are Virginia Keeney, Margaret Boyer, Catherine Spall, Ardis Welch, Betty Rauch, Phyllis Coplan, Beatrice Morris, Margaret Phillips, Frances Dodds, Meryl Allman, Dorothy Dazell, Ruth Cochran, Mary Cogswell, Dolores Pearson and Beulah Smith.

CLUB ENJOYS NOVEL GAME

Spanish Organization Meets; President Appoints Committees

A game in which each person had a chance to converse to his heart's content in Spanish was a feature of a meeting of the Spanish club, held Wednesday evening in the Y. W. C. A. Bungalow. Another number on the program was a vocal solo by Virginia West.

Standing committees were appointed by the president, Norma Wilson, and work for the year was begun in earnest.

LHEVINNE TO APPEAR IN CONCERT NOVEMBER 13

Famous Russian Pianist First of Artists to be Heard

Josef Lhevinne, noted Russian pianist, will appear in concert here November 13 in the first of the series of concerts to be given this year under the direction of the University music committee. Seven concerts will be given during the college year, and admission will be by student body ticket.

Lhevinne is a well known artist who is noted for the excellent technique and brilliant style in his playing. During this season he has been engaged in a series of successful concerts and recitals with his wife, Madame Rosina Lhevinne, and they have been most successful in their presentation of two piano music programs.

Lhevinne studied in Russia, entering the Moscow conservatory at the age of 17. He studied there in class, and because of his brilliant playing won the conservatory gold medal and later the Rubinstein prize at Berlin.

He came to America for the first time in 1907, creating a sensation, and until the outbreak of the war, his visits were yearly events.

In 1919 he made a triumphant return to New York before a vast Hippodrome audience. During the season he appeared as soloist with several leading symphony orchestras, and also gave several recitals in Carnegie hall. Completing the season in the east he then toured Mexico and later the north.

Josef Lhevinne has many times been his poetic feeling and imagination held in control by a keen intelligence and ripe musicianship. He occupies a place among the leading pianists of the day as a master interpreter, and his playing is noted for beauty of tone and called the "pianist of pianists." He virility.

PHILIPPINENSIS GIVING BIG BANQUET TONIGHT

Members to Celebrate Anniversary of Flag Day and Hear Talk by Dr. Warren Smith

The Oregon Varsity Philippinensis, a Filipino club on the campus, is giving its annual banquet tonight at the Osburn hotel. The occasion is Filipino Flag Day, the anniversary of the first legal displaying of the Filipino flag on October 30, 1919. The banquet is set for November 2 instead of October 30 because the latter fell on a school day.

The purpose of this club is to bring together socially the Filipino students of the campus, and to promote better understanding between Filipino and American students and citizens. The club was organized last year and has been steadily growing in size and influence since then. Its members participated in forensic work, last year having a strong debating team which took the honors from the O. A. C. Filipino society. They also intend to go out for do-nut tennis this year. Three new students were taken into the club since school opened this term. Dr. Warren D. Smith, of the geology department and adviser for the Filipino students, will be the chief speaker at the banquet. His subject will be "Present Filipino-American Relations," on which subject Mr. Filipe Gamboa, president of the club, feels he is very able to speak, as Dr. Smith has spent 14 years in the Philippine islands and is sympathetic with the ideals and aims of their people. The guests will also be entertained by vocal solos by John B. Siefert, piano solos by Donald Reid, and selection by the Filipino stringed orchestra, composed of boys on the campus.

BOTANY SOCIETY ENTERTAINS MEMBERS AT NOVEL DINNER

Samara honorary botany society entertained with a dinner in a transformed botany laboratory in Deady hall Tuesday night in honor of majors in the department. Thirty persons were present, including Dr. Albert Sweetser, Mrs. Sweetser, and some town alumni. A fall color scheme was carried out. A novel feature was the use of beaker dishes and instruments that are used in the laboratory.

FOOTBALL GAME PICTURES ARE FEATURE AT REX TODAY

cesses, "Cameo Kirby"—is a film of the Oregon-Idaho game. This film will be shown at the Rex theatre for the last time today.

John Gilbert is starring in "Cameo Kirby" with Gertrude Olmsted in the supporting role. The picture is said to be one of the most exciting and entertaining dramas that this popular star has produced.
