The Rooming Situation

Amelioration of the room and board situation for independent students has been brought about by the research made by the dean of women and the Y. M. C. A. Coincidentally, a degree of hardship has been imposed on some of the fraternities as a result of the action taken by these agencies in behalf of the householders of Eugene.

The Emerald believes those citizens housing students are performing a valuable service to the University and the state. But the Emerald does hold the view that those students pledged to fraternities who have been prevented from joining the organizations in their living quarters are more or less imposed upon by the rules.

A student living in rooms held on the "preferred list" of the Y. M. C. A. is obliged to sign a contract to keep these rooms for a term. Should the student affiliate with any of the living organizations after having made the contract he is prevented from moving out of his rooms unless he provides a satisfactory substitute. This circumstance is exceedingly objectionable to the fraternities especially. The pledge, if he is to secure the maximum benefits from the associations afforded him and the instruction proffered him in the organization must live with his fellows. In most cases the pledge desires to move into the house, and the organization desires it. But as yet no means of circumventing the provision of the contract has been found.

Indeed, better living conditions for independent students exist on the campus. At the same time, however, an obstacle to the success of the training and discipline of a first-year man by the organization is encountered. Here is a situation which should be rectified, one which should have the consideration of the inter-fraternity and pan-hellenic councils, and the student body and administration working together for the best interests of all concerned.

There are only 19 school days left in the fall term. With the Homecoming festivities and Thanksgiving vacation breaking in to divert the student mind from preparing, it is well to remember the usual scholastic agony that precedes every period of examinations and eliminate some of it by early reviewing. The ideal way is to do every day's work well, clean up term papers soon after they are assigned and have a set of notes that are clear, concise and comprehensive. One student in a hundred lives up to this ideal. The rest of us find considerable work piled up at the end of each term. The earlier we begin to clear the decks the better.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL LAGS

Dates Arranged for Games to be Played Before Thanksgiving; Standings

It will be necessary to play three games every afternoon for the remainder of the basketball season in order to get all the games played off. Florence Baker, head of basketball, announced yesterday. So many games have been postponed during the three weeks of play that the leagues are far behind in their schedule and will have to work doubly hard to catch up. It is suggested that games be scheduled during the evening whenever possible. By the end of this week enough games will have been played to permit a statement of the comparative standings of the teams. It will not be hard then to pick out the probable leaders in each league.

RED CROSS DRIVE NOT GOING WELL ON CAMPUS

Subscriptions Coming in Slowly From All Organizations; Lucinda Dell in Charge of Work.

Subscriptions to the Red Cross are coming in slowly from the students, reports Lucinda Dell, who is in charge of the drive on he campus. Representatives were appointed in each living organization to get subscriptions, but a small average only has been collected. This lack of subscription is attributed to the various other drives which have recently taken place on the campus. No house yet boasts of a one hundred per cent membership.

Tomorrow a table will be placed in the vestibule of the library from 9 to 12 and from 1 to 4. All those who haven't been reached by representatives are asked to subscribe then. All representatives must turn in their money from 1 to 4. This is urgent, since all money has to be turned over to the Eugene drive committee.

The Eugene people have until Thanksgiving in which to raise $3,600. Of this sum, $1,500 have already been collected. Memberships are $1, which may be paid in one sum or on the "in-

Take a Look at This Parker D-Q $3

A New Banded Black Pen
A Special Pen for Students

Has large ring that links it to your note-book or a pocket-clip—Free

THE idea of a super-smooth medium priced pen with good ink-capacity and a large ring-end to link to the ring of your note-book originated with students themselves. We acknowledge our indebtedness, and we know their idea is a winner for wherever this new Parker D. Q. has been introduced it has stepped right off in the lead of the medium-priced class.

Moreover, this Parker D. Q. is produced by the makers of the Parker Duofold—everywhere acknowledged as the fountain pen classic. Not only in craftsmanship, but in all mechanical features save the color and point, it is like the Parker Duofold. Yet even the point of this $3 Parker D. Q. is 14k gold, tipped with NATIVE Iridium and polished to the super-smoothness of a costly jewel bearing. The cap is reinforced by a strong metal girdle—the only pen we know of, of equal size, at less than $5 with a banded cap.

Try this new Parker D. Q. at any near-by pen counter. It is your idea of a pen—made to the students' own specifications.
