

REUNION PLANNED FOR CLASS OF '14

Grout Summons Members For Homecoming

MEETING IS AT GUILD

Alumni Urged to Back Team in Saturday's Game

The class of '14 has been summoned by Alva Grout, of Corvallis, to meet during this Homecoming to plan for a reunion to be held next June. Grout was president of the class. He urges all members to meet at the semi-annual reunion of all classes, in Guild hall, at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

A letter appeared in the October issue of "Old Oregon," written by Carlton Spencer, '13, telling all members of that class what took place at the reunion last commencement. Spencer is permanent secretary of the class. He expressed regrets that all members were not present and thanked those who were able to be there. A special edition of "Old Oregon" was put out for the meeting.

Class to Aid Fund

Another feature of the '13 reunion was the re-dedication of the fountain which was given by this illustrious class. After a speech by Ed. Bailey, a member of the class of '14 was "immersed with due and fitting solemnity as in days of yore." The class voted $13,000 to be given to the endowment fund. Members of this class now on the campus are Karl Onthank, Dean Walker and Dr. William Livingston. The president of the alumni, Robert Kuykendal also belongs to the class. Grout knows what he has to compete with in rivalling the '13 reunion.

Letter Given

His letter about Homecoming is as follows:

"To members of the class of '14. "This is our year. Ten years have elapsed since we were preparing for our last football season as undergraduates. Many things have happened since that time. We have traveled far and accomplished much. "Now it is our Homecoming time, our time to gather 'round the old halls and renew the feeling of good fellowship that was ours. But it will not be Homecoming for you unless you are there. Make it your Homecoming. "Let us all be back and help the team again clean up the Aggies. Let us all be back and make Nov. 24 the biggest and best Homecoming the class of '14 has ever had. "Alva A. Grout."

UNIVERSITY TO ADOPT OUTSIDE GRADUATES

Alumni of Other Schools Cooperate in Plans for Pledging as Sons of Oregon

The plans for the adoption of alumni from other colleges as Sons of Oregon, carried on as part of the Homecoming program, have received much cooperation and appreciation from those to whom invitations have been extended. Many letters have been received by the president's office expressing interest in this plan of the University.

One of these letters contained the following as expression of the writer's appreciation: "I am most happy to receive and accept your invitation to become by adoption a son of the University."

Another graduate wrote: "It a hearty invitation to become a son by formal adoption of the State University."

"I assure you that I appreciate the honor," wrote another who had received an invitation to adopt Oregon as his alma mater. "The idea is capital—it is so thoroughly western."

No idea as to the definite number of graduates from other colleges who will attend the adoption ceremony has yet been formed, but Karl Onthank says that the University expects from 200 to 300 representing from 40 to 50 different colleges and universities.

O. A. C. SOCCER TEAM PLAYS HERE SATURDAY

Aggie Booters Have Already Beaten Locals at Corvallis; Hot Contest Is Expected

Coach Fahl's gang of soccerites are in for a real tussle when they meet the strong O. A. C. aggregation Saturday morning. O. A. C. has greatly improved since the Oregon game. This was shown in their game last week with the North Pacific Dental team.

The two schools played a tie game, each team scoring one goal. Two extra overtime periods were played in order to break the tie, but the two squads were so evenly matched that the game ended even up. Oregon lost the first game to the Corvallis kickers. The game Friday will be the fourth for O. A. C. and the second for Oregon this season. The visitors will have a great deal more experience than the locals.

NEW STADIUM FINISHED

California's $1,300,000 Structure Ready for Stanford Game.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, (By P. I. N. S.)—California's new $1,300,000 stadium has been completed and is in readiness for the game with Stanford this Saturday. Friday it will be officially dedicated to the memory of those Californians who lost their lives in the World War. The American Legion will be in charge of the ceremonies.

The stadium will seat 70,000 spectators. Two mammoth score boards will give the spectators an accurate account of the play. An extra space is provided for reports of any other game being played at the time, which on this occasion will be used to report the Yale-Harvard battle.

CO-OP BEING MOVED INTO NEW QUARTERS

Transfer of Stock Expected to Be Completed by Saturday, Says Manager

The Co-op will soon be housed in its new quarters. Wednesday was planned as moving day, but delays in finishing the Co-op section of the building caused them to wait until yesterday to start transferring the goods. The finishing touches have not yet been completed, but books and other things are being moved over, little by little.

"Just 90 days ago ground was broken for the new building," said Marion McClain, manager, and work has progressed on the structure with unusual rapidity. "Today the Co-op stands unique in its class, and to W. R. B. Wilcox goes the credit for this uniqueness."

"We will be better able to serve the needs of the student with our increased floor space and better facilities," Mr. McClain concluded. The complete moving will not be finished before Saturday, but by next week the Co-op will be "at home" to its friends and customers.

TED RICE RECOVERING

Other Students Moved to Infirmary Following Operations

Ted Rice, well known journalism student and member of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity, who has been seriously ill at the Eugene hospital, is reported to be improving. Attending physicians state that they are pleased with his present condition.

Charles Jost and Chester Luelling were yesterday brought to the infirmary from the Eugene hospital, where they both underwent operations for appendicitis. Ted Graham and Harold Llewellyn, also under the care of the University health service, are still at the Eugene hospital but are reported as doing nicely.

Kenneth Moore, student assistant in the University library, was dismissed from the Eugene hospital last Saturday following an attack of smallpox. He is convalescing at his home.

THETA SIGS ENTERTAIN WITH TEA "DANSANTE"

Dancing Not Allowed, But Name is No Misnomer; All Hearts Are Light and Gay

Wild gales of mirth issued forth in large quantities from Theta Sigma Phi room yesterday afternoon during the silver tea dansante (minus the dansante). A convenient little sign near the door, "Cough up for the coffers here," had a desirable effect on the callers to the point of $11.69. And the tea? The excellence has no better recommendation than the fact that the girls lost count of the amount Colonel Leader consumed after the eleventh cup.

The guests were entertained with music "received from KGW, Portland," and some of the most advertised tea hounds found it difficult to restrain from wearing down the oaken floor, but rules is rules.

Prominent campus personages enjoying the affair included Dean Virginia Esterly, Leonard Jordan, Douglas Farrell and the Professors Turnbull, Hall, Dunn, and Casey.

FROSH TEAMS TO HOLD ANNUAL TUG-OF-WAR

Beta or Delt Yearlings Must Take Plunge Into Millrace; Band and Rooters to Be Out

Either the Beta or the Delt freshmen are due for an extremely wet bath tomorrow morning when these two groups meet in their annual tug-of-war across the mill race. The affair will undoubtedly be hotly contested, as the leaders of each group express the utmost confidence in the ability of their yearlings to pull those of the rival group across the race.

At 9:00 o'clock Saturday morning, the Delt team, accompanied by its band and rooting section, will parade to the Beta house, and from there the parade will proceed to the railway bridge across the race, where the contest will be staged.

The contest is being held as a part of the Homecoming festivities of the two houses, and is rather unique, in that these are the only two groups which have a meet of this sort. In past contests of this kind, the Deltas have had somewhat the advantage of the Beta tribe, raving won the majority of the contests. The Betas insist that the score will be more even after Saturday.

They wanted the roses without the thorns—the easy road without the ruts, but—
