

SPORTS EDITOR GIVES SHY'S SIX YEAR RECORD

Table with 2 columns: Item, Points. Rows include Oregon (592), Opponents (280), Games won (26), Games lost (12), Games tied (6).

After graduation, Shy entered the Marine Corps and played on the famous Mare Island team of 1917. On the following year he returned to the Oregon campus and took the football coaching job at a time when the conditions were anything but favorable for a winning football team.

Shy's second year was his biggest year as it will be remembered that it was during this season that his team lost to the big Harvard team by the scant margin of one point. His other loss of the 1919 season was in Portland when the W. S. C. Cougars slipped over a 7 to 0 victory on Oregon.

Last year is in the memory of most of the student body, but for the benefit of those who do not remember, let it be said that Oregon's football squad under the mentorship of Shy hung up a record of six wins, one defeat, and one tie. The defeat was at the hands of the Multnomah club, while the tie was a three to three affair with Washington at the end of the season.

This year's record is to well known to need recapitulation in this story. Suffice it to say that Oregon won three games, tied one and lost four. The summary of the whole affair is that, during the time that Oregon's football fortunes have been guided by Shy Huntington, the Lemon-Yellow has won 26 out of 42 contests, 12 have been lost and six tied. During this six year period, Oregon teams have amassed a total of 592 points, while the teams that have opposed them have succeeded in scoring 280 points. Shy's teams have won three games from O. A. C., tied two and lost one.

BETA QUINTET STILL LEADING IN LEAGUE A

Westergren with six and Calloway were the stars for the winners. Harding, with 10 counters and Rice scintillated for the losers.

S. A. E. came back with a bang in the division "B" contest last evening and defeated the Bachelordon team, 28 to 18. The game was fast throughout, with the winners leading at all stages of the contest. The passing and shooting on both sides was fair, and the teamwork of both aggregations was such as to keep the fans excited at all stages of the game.

Phi Delta Theta won from the "dark horse" Friendly hall five Monday afternoon by a score of 16 to 10. The play was fast and was featured by a determined comeback on the part of the losers in the second period. The winners held such a lead, however, that it was impossible for the Friendly hall players to overtake them.

FOOTBALL PROBLEM LACK OF MATERIAL

big league baseball team can go through a season with two pitchers and one utility man each for the infield and outfield. We actually tried out nine men at center this year. Some were hurt—three dropped off the squad entirely—others were used to patch other holes in the team, and we wound up with Wilson in the game and McMullen the only substitute on the bench, in case Wilson had to be taken out, as in the Stanford game.

We had four men battered to pieces backing up the line, and had to send in a fifth, an untried man to finish the last game. By a miracle, we only had to use two quarterbacks, with Anderson in reserve in case both were out. But he went out first, and if anything had happened to Sax at Seattle, there was no one else to call the plays.

We are not only playing a hard game every week now, but we are playing opponents who have much larger lists of available players than any oldtime coach, even Dobie, ever had. All our coast conference opponents, except Idaho, have two, three, or even four players of varsity calibre on the bench, waiting to replace each man on the team. We must have more players, to have winning seasons. Why don't we? Is it the coach's fault, or the graduate manager's, or the alumni's?

COACH HUNTINGTON GIVES RESIGNATION

have ever been commended for their clean playing and good sportsmanship. Nor have I used hired men. No University of Oregon player in my time has ever been subsidized. Perhaps that is one reason we have lost a few games; but I could not bring myself in this University, nor could I bring myself ever, to subsidize college players.

Be that as it may, I now desire to get out as soon as my present contract expires, and in order that you may have plenty of time to find a successor, I give you my resignation now. I sincerely hope you may find a good coach to fill my place. One that will please the alumni, and one that they will support, for it is only through solid support from the alumni that Oregon athletics can be built up and maintained.

In going out I want to thank you personally for the aid and personal friendship you have given me.

Sincerely yours, (Sgd.), C. A. HUNTINGTON.

Although he has let it be known that he will not be a candidate for coach of next year's varsity, he will continue in his present capacity as an employee of the student body and of the school of physical education until his contract expires with the close of the University year. No statement has been issued as to prospects to fill the now vacant position of football coach. It is assumed that the athletic committee of the executive council will take steps at once to fill the place. The date of the committee's meeting has not yet been set.

His letter was held by those who gave the the story of the resignation to the reporters as being fair to a student body which has been friendly to Mr. Huntington.

STUDENTS EARN MONEY WORKING AT ODD JOBS

Occupations Cover Variety of Fields; More Earned This Year Than Ever Before

Approximately $10,895 has been earned by men students of the University working at regular and odd jobs so far this term. "This is more than $1,000 better than at this time last year," says Mrs. C. R. Donnelly, Y. M. C. A. employment secretary, who gave out the report. Of those men working at regular jobs, 61 are making board and room or more, 28 are making board or better, and 11 are making more than room rent. Fellows working at odd jobs usually earn enough money to defray minor expenses. The jobs that the men work at

MANY FOREIGN BORN STUDENTS ON CAMPUS

Canada Leads With Twenty-One, Philippines Next; One Born in Iceland

Ninety-five students attending the University of Oregon were born outside of the United States proper, statistics compiled by the registrar's office show. These are divided among 28 different countries, with Canada leading with 21 of the 95 being born in that country.

The Philippine Islands rank next to Canada with 16 students claiming them as their birthplace. There were seven born in England, one in Scotland, and one in Wales. Russia has six who were born there and India has five. Germany is the birthplace of four students and Austria-Hungary of three. Four students were born in Sweden, two in Switzerland, three in Finland, and two in Norway.

There were three students born in China and three in Korea. Japan is the birthplace of one and Syria of another. Hawaii is the birthplace of three and France of two. Greece, Iceland, Holland, Egypt, Italy and South Africa each have one student who was born there. In the countries with several students whose birthplace was there, many different parts are represented. In the Philippines several islands were mentioned.

cover a variety of occupations. Some of them are as follows: loading and unloading freight cars of shipments and automobiles, painting, carpentering, sign-writing, window-decorating, rug-making, window washing, cooking, waiting on tables, etc. One fellow has a job as circulating agent for the Portland Telegram, another has a job as an oil station attendant, still another has a job out on a farm.

Mrs. Donnelly says that many of the boys freely admit that if it wasn't for the opportunity of working on the side they would be obliged to leave the University.
