OREGON DEFEATS DENTISTS 62-24

Varsity Players Excel in Passing and Shooting Throughout Fast Game

TEAMWORK IS SMOOTH

Frosh Win Contest From the Jefferson Aggregation With Score of 51 to 22

The Oregon Varsity offensive got started last night and ran up a 62 to 24 score on the North Pacific Dental college five of Portland in the first of a two-game series. The Webfoots outplayed the opposing team and managed to retain possession of the ball during the greater part of the game.

The starting combination for Oregon, Hobson, Gowans, Latham, Chapman and Shafer worked well together and formed a fast, smooth-working aggregation. King went in after about five minutes of play and the lemon-yellow steam roller swung into action and had amassed a total of 35 points at the end of the first period, holding their opponents to 12 counters.

The dentists showed up well at times but could not seem to maintain a pace in the face of the close checking of the webfoots. Bus Douglas, former Oregon freshman star, was pivot man of the visitors offense. He looped a total of 10 points and played an exceptional floor game as well.

Varsity Offensive Improved

The Oregon players showed signs of beginning to round into a form that it is hoped will make them a factor in the conference race this year. The five man defense that Reinhardt is using promises to become strong although it must be improved a great deal yet, he said after last night's game. Shafer and Chapman are both going great on the offensive and caging baskets regularly. Shafer made 13 points in the game and Chapman 6. "Hunk" Latham carried off high point honors of the evening with a total of 21.

Tomorrow evening the two fives will meet again on the armory floor at 7:15.

Summary is Given

Summary:
North Pacific (24) (62) Oregon

Substitutions: North Pacific, Rassier (4) for Webster, Mikkelson for Rassier, Rogaway for Lawrence; Oregon, King (10) for Hobson, Hobson for Gowans, Jost for Latham. Referee: Coleman.

Frosh Win Game

The Oregon freshmen went through their first game last night in good shape, against the strong Jefferson high team of Portland, and walked away with the long end of a 51 to 22 score.

The game was sluggish in the first period. The babes could not get started and the Jefferson five held them nearly even. However, the freshmen started finding the basket

CONFERENCE SET FOR NEXT MONTH

Special Press Problems Will be Considered by State Newspaper Men

DEAN ALLEN IS SPEAKER

Oregon Ben Franklin Club Plans to Take Part in Program of Convention

The sixth annual conference of Oregon newspaper men will be held at the University under the auspices of the school of journalism on Friday and Saturday, February 15 and 16. The meetings this year will consider professional journalism problems, business office and print shop problems, advertising problems and business problems.

The program is not yet complete but will include an address by Dean Eric W. Allen of the school of journalism on "Some Experiences in European Newspaper Offices." Heretofore the faculty of the school of journalism has not been especially active on the conference programs, but in response to a number of requests from persons interested in the conference, part of the program this year will be given by faculty members. Dean Colin V. Dymont, of the college of literature, science and the arts, is organizing a short course in newspaper writing in which a number of the editors of the state will take part.

Alleged Tradition Breakers Punished by Sayre

First Meeting is Friday

Yesterday morning the members of the law school walked forth from their homes with bright and shiny canes. Discussion on the school concerning a distinguishing mode for themselves had previously led the students in that school to pass resolutions adopting the cane as a conventional part of their equipment.

Yesterday at noon the senior men of the University held an indignation meeting in front of the library, at which the action of the law school members was discussed. The male members of '24 held that cane carrying was traditionally permissible only to seniorhood, and consequently the first came carrying junior from the law school to appear was halted up before the gathering to hear charges of tradition breaking brought against him.

That section of the Oregon "Hello" book pertaining to canes and seniorhood was read to him, and a verdict of guilty meted out by the wearers of the sombrero. A paddle figured intensively in the sentence passed by Prexy Paul Sayre to the seniors.

Printing Problems Saturday

The Ben Franklin club, of Oregon, will meet with the conference and will play an important part in the discussion of print shop problems on Saturday afternoon and evening. A get together at the College Side Inn has been planned by this group for Saturday evening.

In one instance, a new and shiny walking piece, just secured from a junior by members of the class of '24, was given to Prof. J. H. Gilbert by them—he accepted very graciously the gift from the senior class and proved more than adept at the art of cane twirling as he walked away.

Two days and the time for paying registration and laboratory fees will be here. The week from January 21 to 26 has been allotted for that purpose, and all students should see that their fees are paid promptly. The penalty imposed on those that fail to pay their fees within the prescribed time is quite severe. One is automatically dropped from the University. To re-enter it is necessary to petition the faculty for reinstatement. If allowed to re-enter, one has to pay an extra $3 in addition to the regular fees.

Dr. Parsons to Discuss SUBJECT OF NEW DEITY

Doctor Philip A. Parsons, head of the school of social work in Portland, and a well-known sociologist, will lecture to the Philosophy club Monday night. His subject will be "The Social Influence of the Need for a New Deity." The lecture will be given at eight p. m. in the men's room of the Woman's building. The meeting will be open to everyone and there will be a discussion after the lecture.

Mining Mimickers Cook Crisp Cakes for Faint Folks

Gay Garbed Gophers Shuffle Skillets

"Aw, go out to the back alley and practise some more."

"Gimme one, I didn't have any breakfast." "What's in these things anyway?" Such remarks that floated up from the crowd that surrounded the Condon club neophytes on Kineaid field yesterday morning. The scene resembled an animated Alber's flapjack flour ad, and attracted a great mob. One member of the club was eventually compelled to assume unwonted dignity and shout in stentorian tones, "Don't crowd, folks, don't crowd; everybody back to the sidewalk to give those on the outside a chance to see."

The miners were, as one person called them, rough-looking customers. The consensus of campus opinion was that they "did their stuff" well. They kept their garb on all day, giving the campus a wild west look; a bit of "local color." The seven young miners are Don Johnson, Don Fraser, Ollie Mercer, Si Muller, Manuel Souza, Mac McLean, and Wilbur Godlove.

DELEGATES TO SPEAK AT VESPER SERVICES

Echoes From Indianapolis' on Program Tomorrow

The January vespers service of the University choir will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 p. m. in the Methodist Episcopal church. This service will afford the first opportunity for the public to hear from the University students who attended the Indianapolis convention. Among those speaking will be Mary Bartholomew, secretary of the Women's league and Lester Turnbaugh.

Special music during the service will include a vocal duet by Ruth Akers, soprano, and Aubrey Furry, bass, "Hark, Hark, My Soul," by Shelley. "Crossing the Bar," by Charles H. Marsh will be sung by the choir. This version of "Crossing the Bar" is considered by critics the most beautiful ever written. "Gloria," by Buzzi-Peccia will be sung by Roy Bryson, tenor.

Dr. Neihardt has appeared extensively in colleges and universities all over the country and has been enthusiastically received everywhere, in some instances appearing the second and third time. He is not only a poet, but a scholar, and a speaker of exceptional ability, as well.

He has received recognition every where for his lyric poems and for some years has been considered a leading writer of the present age.

Universities have sought to bestow honors and recognition upon him and his works have been very much in demand.

John G. Neihardt, Lecturer and Poet, to Give Program from His Poetry Tonight

John G. Neihardt, nationally known poet and lecturer, will appear tonight at 8:15 in Villard hall in a program of readings from some of his lyric and dramatic poems.

Dr. Neihardt has appeared extensively in colleges and universities all over the country and has been enthusiastically received everywhere, in some instances appearing the second and third time. He is not only a poet, but a scholar, and a speaker of exceptional ability, as well.

As last year, the price of admission to tonight's lecture will be 25 cents, with which the committee merely wishes to cover expenses. Tickets will be on sale all day at the Co-op and downtown at Kykendall's drug store. Representatives in living organizations also have tickets to sell.

Dr. Neihardt will arrive this afternoon at 1:47 from Portland and will be shown about the Oregon campus. Last night he spoke in Portland under the auspices of the Portland Library association.

CONFERENCE DISCUSSED

Means of Raising Funds for Seabeck is Problem Considered

A discussion group of the University women on the Seabeck committee is meeting once every two weeks to talk over means of raising funds for the Seabeck conference to be held from June 25 to July 5.

It is hoped that by the latter part of March or the first of April definite action may be taken to arouse interest in the conference.

The committee is headed by Florence Buck.

Seabeck conference is an annual event held at Seabeck, Washington, for the student associations of the Y. W. C. A. in the northwest. Oregon was represented by a large delegation last year, and it is hoped by the committee that as many or more women will be interested in going this year.
