Evergreens will form the background for the formal dinner dance to be given by Kappa Sigma on the evening of February 2. Places will be prepared for 55 couples. Patrons and patronesses are to be: Mr. and Mrs. Benefiel, Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Stannard, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Earl, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Earl, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Culin, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bellar, and Mr. and Mrs. David Graham.

The Freshman Glee, formal for women and informal for men, will be held at the Eugene armory, Friday night, February 1. The features and decorations are to be a surprise.

The underclass girls of Chi Omega entertained the Beta Theta Pi underclass men at an informal dinner-dance Saturday evening, January 26.

Medieval ages were recalled by the decorations and toasts at the banquet given by Delta Gamma at the Osborn hotel, Friday, January 25, for the five initiates of that evening. Thirty-four guests, alumni and members of the local chapter, were present.

Lattice work and streamers in purple and white were the interesting keynote of the decorations for the informal pledge-dance held by Kappa Delta Phi the evening of Saturday, January 26. The couples present numbered 31.

The Alpha Phi under-class dinner was held at the Anchorage Friday, January 25.

Blue sky and bubbles, an idea adapted from a Maxwell Parrish picture, will be a beautiful setting for the Alpha Tau Omega formal to be given at the Women's building, February 2. Forty couples will attend. Patrons and patronesses are to be: Dean and Mrs. John Straub, Prof. and Mrs. F. Folts, Dr. and Mrs. Peter Crockett, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Underwood, Rev. and Mrs. Frank F. Eddy, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Onthank, Mr. and Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. Anna Landsbury Beck, and Dean John L. Landsbury.

The Campa Shoppe will be elaborately set with palms for the Phi Sigma Pi formal dance, Saturday night, February 2. Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Lewis, Dean and Mrs. W. G. Hale, will be patrons and patronesses. Thirty-five couples will be present.

Forty couples attended the Pi Beta Phi formal dance, given at the house Friday, January 25. There was a profusion of decorative cut flowers.

The Bachelordom formal dinner-dance was given in a roof garden at the Anchorage Saturday, January 26.

The home of Mrs. Campbell Church was the scene of the Kappa Kappa Gamma formal dance held the evening of January 25. There were many beautiful palms and cut flowers.

"The Hour Hand," a folk-opera by Anna Landsbury Beck, will be presented at the Heilig theatre Thursday evening, January 31. The play presents a picture of the seventeenth century Alpine village, being exceptionally true to life, since the author has travelled extensively in Switzerland and is well acquainted with traditions of that country.

Speaking of the Sigma Pi informal dance of January 26, it was very deep. Business always is. The guests were given check books for programs, and they chose partners by turning in their statements to an account window and receiving the "certain persons" in exchange. The 42 couples bid for oil stocks in a good representation of the "pit."

A tea for guests was given by Delta Delta Delta at five o'clock Sunday afternoon, January 27. Spanish lamps were placed on the individual tables, and a Spanish dance was given. Special food was served in place of the ordinary refreshments.

Sigma Nu will use black and white decorations for an informal dance to be given on Saturday evening, February 2. Fourteen couples will attend.

That there are gifted quick-change artists at Sigma Alpha Epsilon house was demonstrated Saturday, January 26, at the informal dance. In ten minutes, following the program, there was an elaborate display of the fraternity colors, purple and gold. A canopy of these colors covered an entire end of the room, and there were many palms placed. Patrons and patronesses were: Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pitman, Mrs. H. C. Lindthicum, and Mrs. Sanderson Reed, of Portland.

Miss May Robson was entertained at dinner Monday evening, January 28, by Sigma Chi mother, played the lead in "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary," which was given at the Heilig theatre last night.

Two children, dressed in rosebud costumes, distributing rosebuds containing the names of the girl guests, were the features of the Alpha Xi Delta formal dance, given at the Women's building, Friday, January 25. The rosebud effect was interestingly carried out in the programs and refreshments.

MAY ROBSON CAPTURES CROWD WITH ACTING

some turn of humor, there was that sympathetic something which one senses in coming in contact with a genuine personality.

Not only on the stage but following the performance, was this noticeable. The reporter had a few minutes, not alone with her, but in the presence of a group of friends and it was here that she expressed her feeling for youth and her appreciation of the reception recorded her.

"It pleases me more than I can tell you," she said, "to know that my work is really enjoyed. When one has spent a life-time in perfecting an art, it is good to know that it has been worth while."

Miss Robson has a deep and resonant voice, which fills the theatre without any seeming effort on her part, making it a pleasure to listen.

Real music, sincere and excellently rendered, was an appreciated feature of the performance. Frank Beaton, the likeable, carefree nephew of Aunt Mary, not only played his part perfectly, but could play the piano, and sing—and in addition composed many of the numbers. Three others in the cast assisted him harmoniously and each assisted Miss Robson in the pleasing effect of the whole.

'DOUGHBOY' WILL BE PRODUCED FOR PUBLIC

was almost completed the artist became dissatisfied with the head, tore the old one off, and made a new one with a younger and more spiritual face as being the example of the young manhood of the west.

"In the opinion of man, the most notable piece of American sculpture growing out of the world war," is the description given of the work of art by the American Art News. It was described by Lorado Taft, well-known American sculptor, as the best doughboy in art that he had yet seen. The Sculpture club is thus giving the opportunity to the people of Eugene to see the processes through which this work of art was made. The artist has made it so many times that every line of the figure and face is familiar.

The medallion for the Old Oregon Trail, and a portrait bust of Ezra Meeker, Oregon's aged pioneer, are the present works of the sculpture who won a scholarship in the Art Students' League of New York at thirteen, and at the age of fourteen had exhibited in the National Academy of Design.

ORATORICAL CONTEST WORK TO BE STARTED

Next Few Weeks Will be Devoted to Delivery

With the time set for various oratorical contests coming on apace, H. E. Rosson, of the public speaking department, is desirous of having all persons who expect to go out for the Peace, State Old Line or Failing-Beckman contests begin working on the drafts of their speeches right away, so that the last weeks before the events can be devoted chiefly to delivery. Anyone who intends to compete in any of the oratorical meets this year should, in the opinion of Mr. Rosson, have such a draft made very soon.

The State Old Line is the first contest scheduled. It will take place at McMinnville, March 14. Other schools participating will be: Willamette, Pacific college, Pacific university, Linfield, O. A. C., and Albany. The prize is a bronze statuette of President Lincoln. Tryouts for this event will be a week from this coming Saturday, February 9, in Villard hall. Contestants for this should turn in the first draft of their speeches sometime during the present week. Final speeches will be 1,500 words in length.

Aspirants for the state peace award will meet for tryouts Saturday, March 1. The state prizes are $75 for the winning oration and $50 for the second best. In addition, the recent $100 Jewett donation will make it possible to offer to the winner of the campus tryout a first prize of $20 and a second prize of $10. The first draft of the peace oration will be due February 12.

The Failing Beckman oratorical contest, which is open only to seniors, is always held the Friday before commencement. Even though that date is a long way off, Mr. Rosson is anxious to have potential contestants see him very soon, that the primary work can be over with before the rush of spring activities starts. He points out that with four months to work in, a little done each week of February and March would be the means of getting the orations in shape, and then the polishing and perfection of delivery could be done in the last two months, making an even distribution of the time and work, and preventing a last-minute rush.

OVER 2000 PAY FEES

Check on Number of Students Registered Not Completed

Two thousand fifty-nine students had paid their fees when the cashier's windows closed at the business office yesterday. This is an increase of sixteen over the number recorded at the close of business Saturday. There were two thousand forty-three at that time. Five of these sixteen had to pay the late fee of three dollars, the other eleven having sent their fees in by mail.

The business office is unable to give out any definite information as to the number who have failed to pay although there are many fee cards still left in the boxes. This state is due to the fact that the check on the number of students who are registered for this term is not yet complete. This will not be finished for at least a week more. It is expected, though, that there are quite a large number who have not paid their fees.

LUTHERAN STUDENTS EFFECT ORGANIZATION

Trinity Church Scene of New Campus Club; Meetings Held Bi-monthly.

A permanent organization of Lutheran students on the campus, to be known as the Lutheran Student Council of the University of Oregon, was effected at a meeting of Lutheran students at the Trinity church last Sunday. The organization is the result of the work of Rev. C. P. Harry, of Morristown, Pennsylvania, who has organized such clubs throughout the states and who visited the campus last fall while on a tour of the universities and colleges of the Pacific coast.

An increased interest is being shown by the University students in the club, and those present at the meeting last Sunday were of the opinion that the entire group of Lutheran students on the campus would attend the meetings as soon as it was learned that the club was permanently organized. Ernest Henrikson was elected president and Camilla Anderson secretary-treasurer of the organization at the meeting Sunday.

It was decided to hold regular meetings every second and fourth Sunday of each month, the meetings to begin at 5:30 and continue until 7:30. Part of this time will be devoted to discussion of various subjects that might be of interest and the remainder of the time will be taken up by a social hour at which the students will meet and become acquainted with one another.

MANY APPLICATIONS FOR SUMMER WORK IN AT Y. W.

Many applications for summer work have already come into the University Y. W. C. A. employment service from University women who desire work during vacation, said Miss Florence Magowan, secretary of the association yesterday. The work asked for varies in nature. A few business firms in Oregon and Washington have written in to the association asking for women who want employment.

S. A. E. AND SIGMA CHI WIN HANDBALL GAMES

Victors Roll Up Large Scores With Comparative Ease in Lopsided Tilts

In a very one-sided handball match, held yesterday afternoon at 5 p. m. in the men's gym, the Sigma Alpha Epsilon aggregation, made up by Park and Crandall, handily won their tilt from the Sigma Nu combination, Taylor and Bullivant. The S. A. E. pair piled up one of the most lopsided scores in any game held so far, when they emerged victors by the score of 21-1, 21-9. Playing with perfect precision and against little opposition, their victory was won by a large margin. Although not having played a very strong team, by reason of this victory they have placed themselves among the league leaders.

In the second game played at 4 p. m. yesterday, the Sigma Chi handball squad, Ringle and Holt, were victorious over the Alpha Beta Chi representatives, Burton and Norman. With comparative ease, the victors rolled up a score of 21-11, 21-18. The first tilt was an easy one for the Sigma Chi squad. In the second game, although holding the advantage of a small lead, the Sigma Chi pair were forced to extend themselves to take the match.

SWIMMING MEET HELD

Alpha Phi Defeats Women From Delta Delta Delta

Alpha Phi beat Delta Delta Delta with a score of 42 to 27 in the swimming meet held last night. The first half of the contest was close but Alpha Phi gained steadily towards the last. Hilda Chase, for the Alpha Phis, was high point winner, with 15 points. Margarite McCabe, for the losers, was second with eight points.

Alpha Chi Omega defeated Hendericks (2) the meet which should have been held last night.

REX

Norma Talmadge has stolen a march on the makers of sheik photographs by introducing the Ouled Nail dancing girl to Hollywood.

And those who have seen the fiery scenes between Joseph Schildkraut, in his Arabian role, and Norma Talmadge, as the Ouled Nail dancing girl, at the Rex theater in "The Song of Love," predict that the sheik will go down to ignominious oblivion when both feminine and masculine theater patrons see Norma in the sensuous dances of the mysterious Orient. Johanna James, popular University soloist, appears in a colorful atmospheric prologue to the picture at 7:20 and 9:20 each evening.

GIRLS' RIFLE TEAM MEETS FOR OREGONA PICTURE

All members of the girls' rifle team will meet at the R. O. T. C. barracks at 12:45 today to have their pictures taken for the Oregon, and also for publication in some of the eastern newspapers. Captain J. T. Murry, coach of the team, urges every girl who is at present turning out for rifle practice or who was on the team last term to come out for the picture.
