OREGON WOMEN DEBATE TONIGHT

Varsity, Willamette and
O. A. C. Teams to Meet in Triangular Contest

SALEM HEARS NEGATIVE

Mildred Whitcomb With Mildred Bateman Will Support the Affirmative

In Villard hall at eight o'clock tonight, students and townspeople will have a two-fold opportunity—the opportunity to lend encouragement and support to an Oregon team, and the opportunity to become conversant with the problem of France's invasion of the Ruhr valley, as that problem is to be presented in the women's debate with O. A. C.

The Oregon women, Mildred Bateman and Mildred Whitcomb, upholding the affirmative, will maintain that France should immediately evacuate the Ruhr, while Wilma Dobell and Belva Beebe of O. A. C. will constitute the negative opposition to this contention.

Contest Is Triangular

The debate is a part of a triangular contest being held tonight among three institutions, Oregon, O. A. C., and Willamette University. The two Oregon women, who leave on the 7:35 Oregon electric for Salem, are Dorothy Abbott and Margaret Woodson. They will meet the Willamette affirmative tonight. At the same time, the Willamette negative will come up against the O. A. C. affirmative at Corvallis.

The O. A. C. women, with their forensic manager, Clifford Read, and possibly C. D. Mitchell, their coach, are expected to arrive on the campus early this afternoon. Gerrit Demmink, Oregon coach, will accompany the Oregon team to Salem.

Thorpe Is Chairman

C. D. Thorpe, a member of the faculty of the written and spoken English department, and formerly Oregon's forensic coach, will act as chairman of the debate in Villard tonight. The names of the judges have not yet been announced by Elam Amstutz, varsity forensic manager.

The O. A. C. and Oregon debaters, judges, chairman, members of the Debate Order of the O. members of Pro and Con, and doughnut debaters will be guests of Zeta Kappa Psi, national women's forensic honorary, at a reception to be held in Alumni hall of the Woman's building immediately after the debate.

ALUMNI WRITE LETTERS

Former Staff Members and Others
Comment on Emerald

Letters from former staff members and other friends of the Emerald are received almost daily in the editor's office, says Art Rudd.

Word from John Dierdorff, a former staff worker who is now working on the Wesleyan College Gift campaign in Macon, Georgia, and from Phil Brogan, last year's managing editor of the Emerald and a member of the Bend Bulletin staff, arrived yesterday.

Brogan's interest in the paper was shown by the fact that he turned in several news "tips." He did not say whether he wished to enroll in the contest, but asked if he could get in on the Emerald banquet "by correspondence." An attempt will be made to wire him some "chicken and fixin's," it is said.

Comments on the Emerald often come in from those who have not been interested directly in the paper's career previously. H. Sherman Mitchell, editor of the Ferndale (Washington) Record and former editor of the University of Washington Daily, recently characterized the Emerald as "very good."

CONVENTION OF CANADA

COLLEGE MEN CANCELLED

Word was received Tuesday by the Emerald that the convention of college men, which had been planned for February 29 to March 1 of this year, to be held at McGill University, Montreal, Canada, has been cancelled on account of uncertainty of ample attendance.

Varsity Loses to Idaho, 30 to 24

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, MOSCOW, Idaho, Feb. 13.—(Special to The Emerald)—Oregon took its first conference defeat of the season last night when the Vandals lowered the Lemon-Yellow banner to the tune of 30 to 24. The game was hard fought, but the Idaho combination proved too much for the Oregonians.

According to the standing, as figured by the Vandals, Oregon now reposes in second place, with the Gem Staters at the top of the heap. It is a question of which of the Idaho-Washington State games count toward the conference standings and, officially, Oregon is still at the top of the conference.

FRESHMEN VICTORS OVER SENIOR WOMEN

Swift Contest Ends With Score of 37 to 21

Fans of women's class basketball had a great surprise last night when the freshmen first team defeated the seniors, team 1, 37 to 21, in a fast, furious game. It was one of the swiftest contests played so far this year, and the work of both teams was very good.

The seniors were worn out from the very first, and it was not long before the frosh were going strong. All through the first half, the score was close, standing 18 to 15 in favor of the underclassmen when the whistle blew. They quickly took the lead, however, after play was resumed and ran away with the score.

Much of the success of the frosh was due to the good work done by the centers, Margaret Papoon and May Van Vurpillit. Genevieve Spear and Corrine Hills, forwards for the winners, played with good passing. The Quinlan twins for the seniors played their usual star game, in passing and shooting baskets.

Three more days of this week will be devoted to class basketball and several of the games are expected to be fast and exciting. Since no games are to be played with O. A. C. this year, this is really the only opportunity for those who are interested to see girls' basketball at its best. The teams are in the best of shape now after months of practice on the parts of all the members, and Miss Watterman, coach, urges that all interested turn out for the last of these class contests.

The schedule for the rest of the week is as follows:

Thursday, February 14:
Juniors, 1, vs. Juniors, 2.
Freshmen, 2, vs. Sophomores, 2.
Friday, February 15:
Sophomores, 1, vs. Freshmen, 1.
Juniors, 2, vs. Freshmen, 3.
Saturday, February 16, at 2 o'clock:
Seniors, 1, vs. Juniors, 1.

Array of Booty Held for Owners at Lost Bureau

University Depot is Rapidly Filling

Found: Two men's hats, a wedding ring, two overcoats, seven fountain pens, a watch, a chauffeur's license, three vanity cases, 12 umbrellas, a wool scarf, two purses, an eversharp, numerous handkerchiefs, gloves, rubbers and R. O. T. C. badges.

These are only a few of the ownerless articles to be found at the lost and found bureau in the University depot. Although the collection is growing larger every day, the owners never seem to find the right place in which to inquire for their lost valuables. H. M. Fisher, superintendent of the campus buildings and grounds, views with alarm the array of booty which threatens to crowd those working at the depot from the building.

WRESTLERS TO LEAVE FOR NORTH TRIP TODAY

Team Will Meet W. S. C.
and University of Idaho

The varsity wrestling team will leave today for a trip north, where they will meet the University of Idaho at Moscow on February 16, and W. S. C. on the 19th. The grapplers who will make the trip with Coach Widmer are: Ford, 125; Whitcomb, 135; Robertson, 145; French, 158; and Wells, 175. Wrestling Manager Wingard will also make the trip.

Tom Chatburne was slated to take the trip, but will not go because of injuries received in the O. A. C. meet. Walt Whitcomb has been going strong and should make a good showing against the northern aggregations.

In meeting the University of Idaho and W. S. C., the varsity will stack up against two teams of nearly the same calibre. In a meet held last week, Idaho nosed out W. S. C. by a narrow margin of four points. Of the five bouts, Idaho won two by decisions and the other by a fall. W. S. C. won two bouts, by a fall and decision.

Idaho's team is composed of Bitner, 125; Hillman, 135; Patchen, 145; Kinsey, 158; and Vessner, 175. W. S. C.'s team is composed of Keller, 125; Allen, 135; Dunbar, 145; Bolke, 158; and Waldorf, 175.

DANCES NET OVER $80

Student Co-operation Pleases;
Others to be Planned

Approximately $80 was made by the women's houses last night at the first of the "Dime Crawls" staged by women's league. Jeanne Gay, chairman of the affair, asks that the money be turned over to her today in order to ascertain the exact sum.

"The success of the affair is largely a result of the splendid co-operation shown by all of the houses," says Miss Gay, "as well as the 'pep committee' of men who helped so well in putting over the plans."

"The reception accorded this new form of student body dance, encourages the committee to attempt further ventures along this line," she continues, "and we will perhaps stage one each month in the future, if plans work out."

New Football Coach Will Be Introduced At Assembly Today

Visit is First to State; Receptions by Alumni
at All Stops Enroute said to Show Promise of Enthusiastic Support from All Sections

By Ken Cooper

When the Oregon Electric pulled into Eugene last night at 6:45, it brought the man the Oregon campus has been waiting since last Friday to see. Six feet of congeniality that bears out all of the favorable comment that has been heaped on his head since his appointment as football coach at Oregon. No, not Joseph H. Maddock, just Joe Maddock.

MENTOR FETED AT PENDLETON

Director of University's Gridiron Destiny Makes
Favorable Impression

ROUND-UP CITY WON

By Ep Hoyt

(Former Emerald Sport Editor)
Pendleton, Oregon, Feb. 13. (Special to the Emerald)—Joe Maddock, new director of Oregon's destiny on the gridiron made a strong impression on the thirty odd alumni that gathered at the instigation of "Coach" John Murray, who was instrumental in getting the new grid mentor to stop over here for a few brief hours last night between trains.

When Joe Maddock had finished outlining the policies that he intended to follow and the methods that he intended to pursue there was not a man in the room that was not thoroughly sold on the "Maddock coach" idea. Not a man but that believed but that Joe Maddock, with a splendid record behind him, is the man to again bring days of football glory to Oregon.

"It will be 'hurry on for Oregon' now" was the remark of Fred Bennion, county agent and former Montana state and University of Utah mentor, who played three years for Utah under the tutelage of Maddock and whom Maddock characterized as one of the greatest all around stars with whom he had ever worked. And it will be "hurry on for Oregon" because Maddock is a master of the best in the "Hurry Up" Yost and he'll develop a fast team. Incidentally Bennion worked on one of his teams that didn't consider 17 plays a minute too many.

Fred Bennion who was intimately associated with football for years as player and coach says Maddock is a better coach on his individual merits than Stagg, Yost or Warner. "Every man that plays under his," said Bennion, "is 100 percent for him. He's got a wonderful personality and the knack of keying up a team before a game to the highest pitch. His tactics in football are the hardest to solve in that he uses no set formations but the team snaps into form and the ball snaps back."

Less expert opinion among the alumni of Pendleton indicated that every man who met him believed him to be one that would produce results. A man and a coach, and one who will have the backing of the Pendleton alumni to the limit.

MICHIGAN JUNIORS WEAR

BLUE CORDUROY JACKETS

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

Junior engineers at the University of Michigan wear as their distinctive dress blue corduroy jacket, with leather lining sleeves.

Much could be written about the pleasurable sensation of his hearty handshake, his calm, imperturbable manner of speech, his keen interest in Oregon's football prospects. Rather than to go on at length concerning our impressions of the big fellow who comes to Oregon for the first time, we would sooner that you would go to assembly today and see him for yourself when he will be officially introduced to the students by Virgil Earl, upon whose recommendation he was appointed.

Campus Not Seen Yet

The stock questions of the interviewer were useless with few exceptions, as Maddock had not yet seen the campus nor had he met the fellows with whom he will have to work. This is his first visit to the state, and he expressed himself as being thoroughly pleased with his first impressions. His reception by the alumni in the parts of the state he has visited enroute have pleased the new mentor very much, and he was enthusiastic in his praise of the promised alumni support.

Concerning his style of football, he was non-committal beyond the fact that it was Yost football. He prefers to show his football next fall, rather than to tell of it now.

Maddock has rather of a heavy program ahead of him during his brief stay on the campus. Last night upon his arrival, Maddock dined with Virgil Earl, Jack Benefiel and members of the executive council. This morning he visits the campus for the first time and will be shown the Physical Education department. As was stated, he will be introduced by Earl at the assembly, after which he will be the guest of the Chamber of Commerce at a luncheon.

Gridsters to Meet

At four o'clock this afternoon, Coach Maddock will hold a meeting of all men who have been out for football or who intend to go out. This meeting will be held in Room 105, Commerce building, and Maddock particularly stressed the fact that he wanted all men who had any intentions of going out for the grid sport to be present at the meeting. In the evening he will
