

OREGON DAILY EMERALD

VOLUME XXV

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, SATURDAY, APRIL 5, 1924

NUMBER 126

PLANS DETAILED OF NEW CAMPUS

Location of Contemplated Buildings Revealed by Architect's Description

ARCH TO BE DECORATIVE

Juncture of Rail, Trolley and Water Will Mark Entrance to the Grounds

Architects' plans for the development of the Greater University are drawn, the following description outlining the New Campus, with Memorial Court and adjoining structures.

The Memorial Court will be located on the highest ground at present owned by the University, south of old Kincaid field.

Two large cottonwood trees near 11th avenue east have been selected as marking the official gateway to the University. At this point rail trolley and even water transportation, meet. A concentration of the main traffic ways of Eugene to this street will divert traffic now coming through University property and so avoid jeopardizing the lives of the students.

From the gateway, which will someday, no doubt, be marked by a suitable Memorial Gate—one will pass due south for 1,600 feet, to the colonnade to form a background for the Memorial Court, and serve as a decorative feature of the main facade of the Auditorium.

New Contrasts Old
The open space north of the present Law and Commerce buildings will be landscaped, respecting the beauty of the trees already there. This will serve as a foreground to the University buildings—both of the old campus, marked especially by Deady hall, and the new campus, which is to be terminated by the Memorial Court.

Passing south from the Memorial Gateway, among the many class trees and landscape features, and between the Law and Commerce buildings, which form the entrance pylons to the new development, and crossing 13th avenue east, will be seen on the right a building symbolizing Science, and on the left a similar building, the Liberal Arts, marking, in this new campus, the humanities.

Union Location Described

A slight change in grade brings one to the lower terrace of the Memorial Court, flanked on the right by the Library building, and on the left by the Museum building. The Court is marked at its entrance by the University flag staff, which will be on an axis crossing the new campus, running from the future Domestic Arts building, incorporated into the Women's Dormitory group on the east, to a building on the west of Kincaid street, which the University architect recommends for the Students' Union.

Passing through the lower terrace of the Memorial Court, by the facades of the Library and Museum for a distance of 260 feet, one will approach the second terrace, which marks a second axis crossing the main campus, and passes to the east between the Woman's building and Susan Campbell and Hendricks halls, but which is screened from them by a covered arcade.

An imposing flight of steps to the south of this second terrace gives

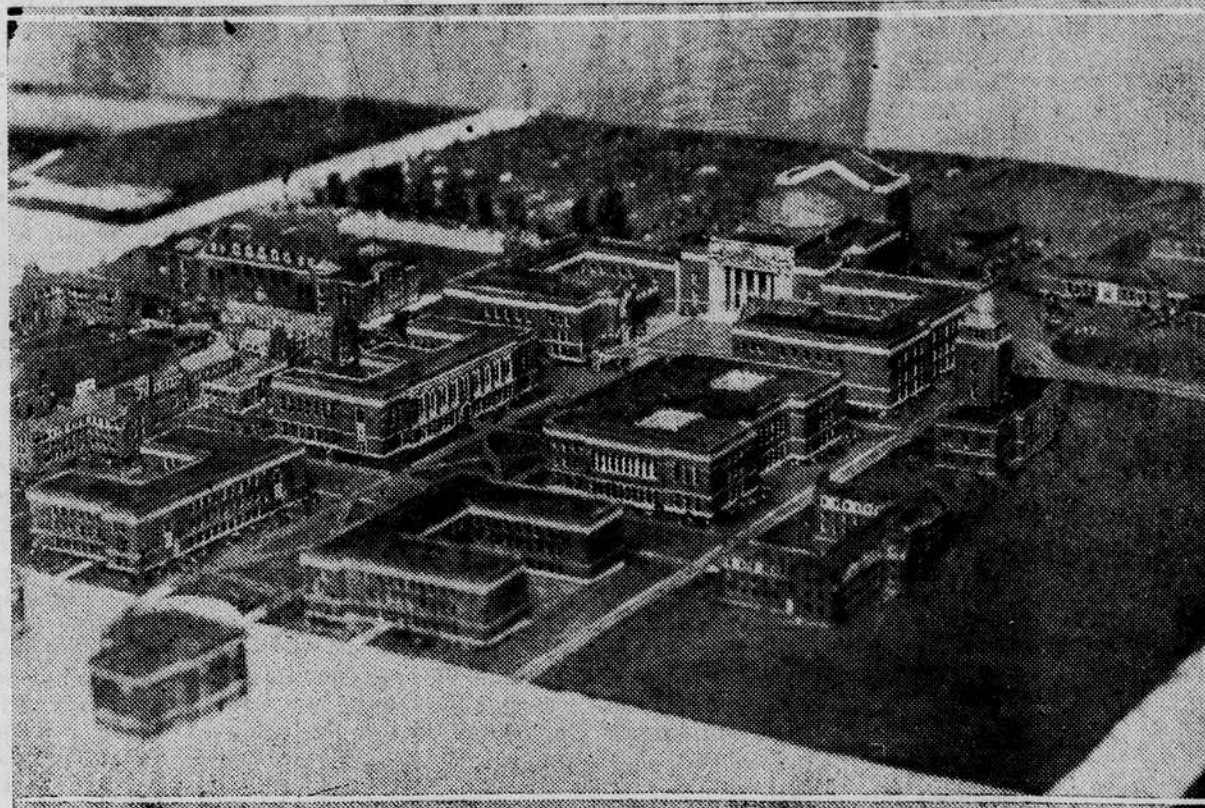

(Continued on page three)

STUDENTS WILL HAVE ARTICLES PUBLISHED

Two more students in the trade journalism class have been successful in placing stories with trade publications. Margaret Morrison has received word that an article written by her has been accepted by the "Western Druggist," a magazine published in Chicago. Miss Morrison's article dealt with the successful business methods used by a drug store in Hood River, Oregon.

Leo P. J. Munly has a story about the College Side Inn appearing in the April number of the "Western Confectioner," published in San Francisco. Munly's article told how the College Side Inn caters to University students' trade, and described the place, and its methods of business.

ARCHITECTS' MODEL OF GREATER UNIVERSITY SHOWING THE MEMORIAL COURT AND BUILDINGS

Central section. Left row—First, Liberal Arts building; second, Museum; third, wing of Auditorium, class rooms and galleries. Center—Building with dome, Auditorium. Right row—First, Science building; second, Library; third, wing of Auditorium, class rooms and galleries. To left of central section are Women's Quadrangle and Woman's building.

AUTHORS' CONVENTION TO MEET HERE MAY 3

Writing Societies Will be Hosts at Program

Tentative plans have been arranged for the entertainment of Oregon writers on May 3, by Sigma Upsilon and Pot and Quill, honorary writing organizations. These writers who will be very largely members of the Authors' league, are to be guests of the University and the classes interested in creative writing, for the first time.

The purpose of the convention is primarily for the opportunity of acquainting writers with the University and especially the writing classes, and to enable students taking writing courses to come in contact with the guests.

The contemplated program will include a luncheon at noon, at which Sigma Upsilon and Pot and Quill will be the hosts, and an afternoon program consisting of addresses and papers. After a banquet in the evening, the guests will be conducted to the Junior V. O. V. "In all probability," stated W. F. G. Thacher, instructor in short story writing, "Tabard Inn will hold a smoker for the men guests after the performance."

Members of the committee in charge of the plans are, W. F. G. Thacher, C. D. Thorpe, Mable Holmes Parsons, Alfred Powers, Ralph D. Casey, Grace Edgington, Julia Burgess and Anne Landsbury Beck.

PHYSICAL ABILITY TEST TO BE GIVEN THURSDAY

The last physical ability test of the year, given for students in the physical education classes, will be held next Thursday noon in the men's gymnasium. Jim Cossmann, who is in charge of the test, states that all special physical ability men are required to take the test. The special students are those who have the physical ability privileges, but have not taken the test. Those intending to take the test must sign the sheet on the bulletin board in the gymnasium before Wednesday evening.

Students passing the test are allowed to take up any sport, during any convenient hour, in preference to attending regular gymnasium classes.

PROBLEMS ARE DISCUSSED AT LIBRARY STAFF DINNER

The staff of the University Library held their regular monthly dinner at the Y. M. C. A. hut yesterday noon at which some forty librarians and student assistants were present. A business meeting was held, and problems relating to the library were discussed. M. H. Douglass, University librarian, spoke about the proposed distribution of space in the new stacks when they are ready to occupy. The dinner was prepared and served by the ladies of the Congregational church.

Last Day to Add Courses April 7; to Drop, April 14

Next Monday, April 7, is the last day upon which students can add courses to their study program, according to University regulations. The regulations in this case read that courses may be added during the first two weeks of the term, including the first day of the term on which classes are conducted. The completed petition must be filed in the registrar's office before the change can be accomplished.

One week from next Monday, April 14, is the last day upon which petitions to drop courses will be accepted. This is also stated in the University regulations, which say that courses may be dropped during the first three weeks of the term.

PHOTOS AID PUBLICITY FOR SUMMER SESSIONS

As a means of advertising the summer sessions of the University of Oregon, to be held here and in Portland from June 23 to August 1, a number of envelope inserts have been prepared. These inserts are to be used when mailing material to teachers in Oregon and in a number of the states in the east.

There are a number of these inserts of the various professors, who will conduct classes during the summer session. There is a picture of some professor on each accompanied by a paragraph or two concerning the instructor and the summer session.

A few of the professors with whom these inserts deal are Dr. H. G. Lull, education; Dr. L. L. Burlingame, biology; Dr. S. B. Harding, history; Dr. Christian Gauss, modern languages; Dr. J. Duncanson, literature; Dr. James H. Gilbert, economics; Professor A. B. Sweetser, botany.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF RONALD REID TODAY

Funeral services for Ronald Reid, late University music instructor, will be held at two o'clock this afternoon in the Central Presbyterian church. Rev. Bruce J. Giffen, student pastor, will officiate. Interment will be in the old Odd Fellows cemetery.

W. W. Reid, the father of the deceased, arrived from Tacoma yesterday. He will remain in Eugene for several days.

SIX HUNDRED TO ATTEND C. E. CONVENTION HERE

Six hundred delegates are expected to attend the annual state convention of the Christian Endeavor, to be held in Eugene April 10 to 13. Friday afternoon, April 11, will be taken up in a sight-seeing tour of the University campus and other places of interest. Miss Elaine Cooper, presiding officer of the convention and president of the Oregon State Christian Endeavor, is a graduate of the University with the class of 1922 at Guild hall, April 15.

WIDMER'S GRAPPLERS GET SPRING PRACTICE

More Light-heavy Men Are Needed on Squad

After finishing a fairly successful wrestling season, Coach Widmer will attempt to put out a stronger team next year, and has issued a call for wrestling aspirants to turn out for spring practice, commencing Monday afternoon. Widmer would like to see the green men start this spring, as it will give them a good chance to pick up fundamentals before next season opens.

Robertson, Whitecomb, Ford and Wells, this year's lettermen, will be back next year with the experience gained from the past season. They by no means have their places cinched, however, for Chatburne, Sumption, Peterson, members of the varsity squad, and other strong grapplers will turn out next season for a berth on the team. Rising from the freshman ranks, Pakuda, Woods, Wingard, Laurs, Christenson, Josephs and Leavitt will be eligible for the varsity. Wingard and Christenson are out for baseball and probably will not turn out for spring wrestling training. Laurs received a dislocated elbow in the meet with the rocks and it will be some time before he will be in condition.

Several good prospects, entered in the doughnut championships, expect to be out on the mat this term. With spring football ending this week, there will be several heavyweights who will turn to wrestling to keep in condition. During the past season, Widmer was short on light-heavy material. However, he expects to see a better showing of the heavier men this spring and next fall.

O. A. C., although losing but one letterman, has begun spring training, hoping to cop the Northwest title again next year.

ADVERTISING CLUB HAS THREE NEW MEMBERS

At a meeting of the advertising club at the Anchorage yesterday noon, Jason McCune, former manager of the Oregonian, and John Dye, manager of "Old Oregon," were elected to membership. John W. Kennedy, head of the Commercial Advertising company of Portland, a firm strictly for mail order advertising, was guest of honor and was elected an associate member.

The installation of the local chapter of Alpha Delta Sigma, honorary advertising fraternity, will probably take place during this term, as the club has recently received word that its petition for membership in the national organization had been accepted.

BRYSON'S VOCAL RECITAL POSTPONED UNTIL LATER

Roy Bryson's vocal recital has been postponed until further notice. His program was to have been given in conjunction with Ronald Reid, at Guild hall, April 15.

APRIL FROLIC AND SMOKER TONIGHT

Men to Stage Big Show in Gymnasium; Tumbling and Stunts Are Planned

PRIZE OFFERED WOMEN

Woman's Building Scene of Annual Frolic; Reserved Seats May be Purchased

While the women of the University are enjoying their annual evening of fun, the April Frolic, at the Woman's building tonight, the men will be cheering the participants in the boxing matches and Spanish fandangoes at their stag smoker.

The men, with their tumbling and vaudeville acts, are planning an affair which they feel will far exceed the frolicking of the women.

Dainty chorus girls, ethereal fairies, sturdy Gold Dust twins and numerous gingham dogs and calico cats will gather at the Woman's building at 7:30 tonight to enjoy the evening's festivity, each with an eye to the $5.00 prize which is the reward for the best and most original costume.

Program Is Complete

The evening's program, consisting of stunts contributed by various living organizations is arranged and the floor committee will maintain order between acts.

The main floor of the Woman's building is reserved for University women and their guests only, and ten cents admission will be charged. The balcony will be given over to on-lookers and the admission is 25 cents, with the exception of about 75 seats which have been reserved for 50 cents each. Doors will open at 6:45 and the performance will begin at 7:30. Ice cream and sandwiches will form an interesting part of the evening's entertainment and 10 cents each will be charged for this luxury.

Smoker Begins at 8:00

At 8 o'clock sharp, tonight, the smoker will be held in the Men's gymnasium, for men only. Boxing, tumbling, vaudeville acts, Spanish tango, and eats have been placed on the program.

Charlie Dawson and Carl Martin will give an exhibition of boxing. Several other bouts have been scheduled. Dave Swanson and Bernard Phillips will give a Spanish dance while Lyle Palmer and Jack Seabrook will put on a feature act. The nature of the act is unknown but it is promised to be good. Several other high class acts will be given. Ice cream bars and cookies will furnish the nourishment for the hungry men attending the smoker.

A special stage and seating arrangement will be fixed for the program. A fee of 25 cents will be charged for admission.

PHILOSOPHERS HEAR DISCUSSION BY LEE

"A Suggested Outline for Hedonistic Aesthetics," was the subject of a paper read by Harold Lee, before a meeting of the Philosophy club last night, in the men's room of the Woman's building.

A sketch of how aesthetics would be considered from an Hedonistic standpoint, where pleasure was made the evaluating factor, was described.

Mr. Lee also discussed in his paper, the separate forms of art and aspects of taste, showing that there was no such thing as a condemnation of one art form.

The meetings of the club are open to anyone interested, and the subjects are of general interest and not too technical.

CAMPUS WOMEN PLAN PLAY FOR SCHOOL TOTS

Handling the play program of eight rural and small community schools is the work of the practice teaching class in the playground course. Ten University girls are teaching these classes.

The schools are at Lone Pine, Santa Clara, Dunn, Coburg, Glenwood, Creswell and two at Springfield. Arrangements are being made by the extension department for a big play day to be held some time in May, with the various schools in competition.

Scandal Sheets Fail to Arrive at Destinations

Wrong Addresses Are Held to Blame

The University recently received notice from the postmaster in Portland indicating a large number of grade sheets mailed out about a week ago did not reach their proper destination. This, he explains, was due to faulty addresses.

In many cases there was no designation as to what section of the city the papers should go, whether to the northeast or the southeast part. "Scandal Sheets" were sent to addresses in the northeast when they should have been sent to the southeast part of the city, the postmaster said.

The registrar's office would be glad if the students would check up on their addresses so as to avoid such confusion in the future. Students who have failed to give the proper designations in their addresses should call at the office for a change of address slip.

PLANS ARE FINISHED FOR MASONIC BUILDING

John M. MacGregor Is New President of Group

Plans for the erection of the Craftsmen's club building, to be constructed near the corner of Fourteenth avenue and Kincaid street, were taken to Portland yesterday by John MacGregor, new president of the club, to be submitted to the grand council of the Masonic lodge for final approval. Although it is practically a certainty that the plans will be accepted as they are, there may be some minor changes made in the arrangements.

An appropriation of $15,000 was allotted by the Masons for the club building some time ago, but the actual plans and designs of the structure were completed just recently. There is an additional allowance of $1000 a year for three years, to be used as a maintenance fund for the upkeep of the grounds and building and an allowance of $2000 for the purchasing of fixtures and furnishings for the club and committee rooms.

The building is to be of brick and of old English style. There is to be a full basement, fitted up for the heating plant, and rooms for the caretaker. The attic will not be used, but is to be constructed so as to permit the addition of another story, if need is found for it. Construction is to start as soon as the plans are approved by the grand council and the contract is let.

"The club building is to be a very fine structure and will be a credit to the Oregon campus," said Professor Edwin T. Hodge, who is one of the committee in charge of the plans.

JUDGE ELECTED HONORARY MEMBER OF PHI DELTA PHI

Judge L. T. Harris, formerly a member of the supreme court of Oregon, was honored recently by being elected an honorary member of Phi Delta Phi, law fraternity. A banquet was held in honor of Judge Harris on the campus by members of the fraternity to commemorate this event.

(Continued on page three)

CONTEST IS WON BY WILLAMETTE

Capital City Orator Takes First Prize in State Competition Last Night

BAKER TIES FOR SECOND

"The International Mind" Captures Honors for Chapin; O. A. C. in Tie

By Frances Sanford

Leland Chapin, representing Willamette university, took first place and Ted Baker, of the University of Oregon, and Merwin Good, of Oregon Agricultural college, tied for second place in the intercollegiate peace association contest, held in Villard hall last night. Mr. Chapin's oration, for which he received a prize of $75, had for its subject, "The International Mind." Ted Baker, who spoke on "The New Peace," and Merwin Good, whose subject was "A Nation's Soul," each received $25.

Third place was shared by Eugene Bible university and Linfield college. Frank Cunningham, representing the former, delivered an oration on "America's Sacred Trust," and Harold Proppe, for the latter, spoke on "Waging War Against War." Helen Hester, of Pacific college, whose subject was "It Must Not Be Again," was given fourth place, and Henry Simmonds, speaking on the topic, "Waging War Against War," brought in fifth place for Pacific university.

Winner Doubly Rewarded

The winner of this contest, besides receiving a prize, is entitled to represent the state in both the interstate and the final national peace conferences. This annual state meet is sponsored by a national organization which is striving to promote world peace. The work in the state is carried on by the Intercollegiate Oratorical association, whose officers are: Harold Proppe, Linfield, chairman; Maurine Brown, Oregon Normal school, vice-president; Clive M. Saiz, Albany college, secretary; Harlan Binard, Pacific college, treasurer. Other members of the executive committee are J. Earl Ladd, Eugene Bible university; Melvin Johnston, Pacific university; Clifford M. Read, Oregon Agricultural college; Robert Notson, Willamette university, and Elam Amstutz, University of Oregon.

Judges in Two Groups

The prizes were awarded by two sets of judges. One group judged on the basis of thought and manner of composition, and another group on the basis of delivery. Those who comprised the first group were: William O. Moore, Iowa State college; Alan Nichols, University of Southern California; Edwin Dubois Shurter, Southern Methodist university, Dallas, Texas. The judges of the second group were: E. W. Wells, Oregon Agricultural college; L. S. Shumaker, Linfield college; H. L. Bates, Pacific university; A. I. Newlin, Pacific college; Hugh E. Rosson, University of Oregon; J. D. McCormack, Willamette university, and Walter L. Meyers, Eugene Bible university. Yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the executive council of the

(Continued on page three)

Architecture Scrap Book Has Much on History of School

"A committee has just selected a suitable site for Proctor's statue, 'The Pioneer.' No, this does not refer to the present generation of students to whom the pioneer is a tradition. It is part of history in the making as preserved in a scrap book for the school of architecture and allied arts. These scrap books, in uniform black bindings, have been kept by Miss Camilla Leach, art librarian, who took up that work in 1916. The first notebook, begun in 1917, likewise, contains clippings, catalogues and mementos extending back to the beginning of the school in 1913.

Studio buffet suppers, announcement of awards, news now gay, now tragic—all is recorded. A menu card, "Programme du Grubbe-Fete," has each dish illustrated—the roast is particularly fetching with even a bell on the cow.

A series of portraits done by the students, possibly at some festivity, form a section of the first scrap book, carefully labeled "President Campbell," "Larry Schroff," "Geo. Rebec," and no end of students. Lyle Bartholomew, who, in 1921-22, rose to the august position of president of the student body, is represented by some bosom friend of the drafting room as wearing horns. Photographs of life drawings, architectural plans, and sculpture made by Arthur Runquist, Louis Rosenberg, Jo Kichi Tomimaga and other students whose work has been

(Continued on page three)