Brown was entertained at tea, and last night a faculty dinner was given in her honor.

A brilliant background was set for the Alpha Omicron Pi formal dance held at the Anchorage Saturday night, April 19.

The annual Easter breakfast of Phi Gamma Delta was given at the Osburn hotel Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Wisteria covered lattice-work was a beautiful feature of the Susan Campbell hall formal dance held at the Woman's building Saturday night.

Two hope chests will be raffled off next weekend at two different houses: Alpha Chi Omega and Delta Gamma. Beside the persons who have bought tickets, some University and townspeople have been invited. The affairs will be in the form of teas, and the money received will go to the funds of the houses, Alpha Chi Omega house fund and Delta Gamma national scholarship fund.

Sigma Delta Chi will give its annual formal dance Friday evening, April 25, at the Beta Theta Pi house. Patrons and patronesses of the affair will be faculty members of the organization and their wives.

Delta Gamma freshmen will give an informal house dance next Friday night.

Chi Omega house was decorated with black wall panels and cherry blossoms for the semi-formal dance held last Saturday night. The lights were covered with inverted Japanese parasols which were filled with spring flowers. Japanese gold-embroidered screens gave a quaint effect.

Friendly hall is to hold an informal dance Friday evening, April 25. Twenty couples are expected. Patrons and patronesses are Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Milne and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Davis.

The dancing room of the Woman's building is to be the scene of the Alpha Beta Chi formal dance next Friday evening. A special lighting system is to be used, and will display to advantage the spring flower decorations. Thirty couples will be present. Patrons and patronesses are to be Pres. and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Stetson, Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Packard, Dean Virginia Judy Esterly, Mrs. Mary Jewett and Dr. Marti.

Mrs. Irving Brown, of East Orange, New Jersey, national officer of Alpha Chi Omega, is visiting the local chapter this week. Sunday evening Mrs.

DANCE DRAMA TICKET SALE ON

Program to be Given at 8:15 Tomorrow Night

ADMISSION IS 50 CENTS

Orchestra and Dancing Classes Participate

Tickets for the Dance Drama, which is being given jointly by the University orchestra and women's dancing classes, will be on sale at the Heilig theater, Tuesday and Wednesday from 10 to 6 o'clock. All tickets may be bought on those two days.

Student tickets are 50 cents, and town tickets 75 cents.

The Dance Drama is to be given at 8:15 tomorrow evening at the Heilig theater. The complete program for both the orchestra and the dancing classes has been prepared.

Orchestra to Give Overture

The orchestra is to give the first part of the program. Numbers in this part include an overture by the orchestra, a cello solo by Lora Teschner, and a piece by the stringed orchestra.

"A Panel of Wedgewood Porcelain," is the title of the second part of the evening's program. This number has three parts, three Greek maidens, music on the dance, and the nine muses. A striking color scheme in blue and white is to be carried out in this number. The background is in blue, while designed figures in white are outlined on it.

Scenes Are Colorful
"The Cycle of Hours," also given by the dancing classes, is the third part of the program. The color schemes in this are the most colorful of the entire Dance Drama. All colors of the pastel shades, colors of the dawn, day and evening have been worked out in the background and costumes.

For all parts of the dancing program, the University orchestra is to play music in harmony.

ECONOMIC PROBLEMS SUBJECT OF CONTEST

Prizes totaling $2000 are offered by a committee of college professors acting for the Hart, Schaffner and Marx company, of Chicago, for papers and topics related to commerce and industry.

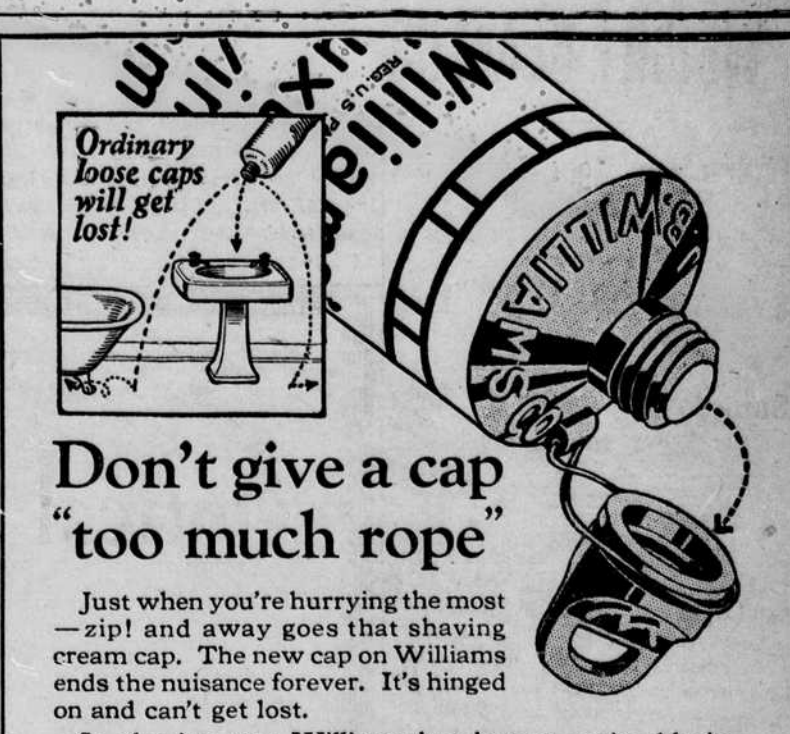

The donors are seeking to arouse in those who have a college training consideration of the problems of a business career and constructive economic thinking.

Contestants will be divided into two classes. The first, class A, includes any residents of the United States and Canada, regardless of their education and age. Class B is for those who at the time of the contest's close, are undergraduates in any American college or university. June 1, 1925, has been set as the latest date on which papers will be accepted.

In class A, the first prize will be $1000, with $500 for second. First prize in class B will be $300, second place carrying an award of $200.

Among the subjects suggested by the committee are: "The Theory and Practice of a Minimum Wage Law;" "The Economic Effect of a Tax on Inheritance;" and "Unemployment Insurance by Industries." A complete list of the topics to be used can be secured from Professor J. Laurence Laughlin, University of Chicago, head of the committee. Any topic not on the list, may be used by the contestant after the approval of the committee has been secured.
