

We are now nearing the close of what Prof. Beard calls "a thundering demonstration of democratic power,"—a presidential election.

Even our Portland contemporary which is the most excited over the prospect of a land-slide in favor of its candidate, admits editorially, that there is no hope of reviving the quaint custom of demonstrating the merits of the party leader by carrying a torch and marching in the mud.

When France needs a president the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate meet at Versailles, in joint session, and without even the formality of a nominating speech, proceed to the election.

Britain too is undergoing a general election, the results of which should be known next Thursday. The issues are more confused than is common in Britain.

Reading, viceroy of India, responsible for the maintenance of order among one-fifth of the human race, exercises his emergency powers to supplement the criminal laws in an attempt to suppress what he calls anarchy.

If the Indian people would take their eyes off their English oppressor long enough to look over the frontier into China, they ought to be more reconciled to the Pax Britannica.

The "white man's burden" in the Near East shows no sign of growing lighter. Reports indicate that but for British tanks and planes, the made-in-England Kingdom of the Hedjaz would have been wiped out before some of our readers learned that it is in north-western Arabia.

The existence of the Hedjaz is resented by the Wahabees, a fierce, fanatical tribe, constituting the "reform party" of the Arab Mohammedans. They drink neither wine nor coffee nor do they smoke tobacco.

BUSINESS MEN START Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN

The University Y. M. C. A. financial campaign among the Eugene business men was launched last night at a dinner served to the members of the canvassing committee at the hut. A quota of $1200 has been set to be raised by this committee.

Marion Veatch is head of the canvassing group which is divided into ten teams of two men each, one business man and one member of the University faculty.

A general discussion of the problems of the campaign took place at the meeting last night. Dr. Warren D. Smith, Karl Onthank, and Walter Myers addressed the gathering.

CAMPUS PREPARES FOR HOMECOMING; WASHINGTON INVASION DUE SATURDAY

ORIGINAL PLANS ARE GIVEN OUT

Noise Parade Will Start Downtown, Go Through City and Then to Bonfire

THREE DANCES PLANNED

Naturalization Ceremony Postponed Because of The President's Illness

Every year, the University tries to put on a bigger and better Homecoming than the year before, and the chairmen and their committees work toward that end.

The list of speakers at the rally contains some of the old familiar names, such as Jack Lauterette, Ed Bailey, "Slim" Crandall, and others of former football fame, as well as that true Oregon friend, Colonel John Leader.

Another change which will eliminate the usual congestion is the plan for three dances; two upper-class and alumni dances at the Woman's building and the Campa Shoppe, and the underclass at the armory.

Hospitality to be Shown Hospitality to Washington students is one of the big ideas of the Whole Homecoming committee, and they will be given free tickets to everything, but the football game.

ADVANCED CORPS OFFICERS TO HAVE NEW UNIFORMS

The new uniforms for the officers of the advanced corps of the R. O. T. C. will be finished in a few weeks. The Eugene Clothing Manufacturing company which have been awarded the contract, have promised them as soon as possible.

Royal Rooters Rehearse Today Team Will Furnish Inspiration

Four hundred loyal sons of Oregon are asked by the yell staff to give less than hour of their time this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock to indulge in a practice work-out in the bleachers at Hayward field.

According to Martin, there are some cards to be used in the stunt which might be spoiled if it should rain this afternoon, so in event that it does rain, the rehearsal will be deferred until tomorrow.

Coach Joe Maddock has promised to send his team through their paces before the crowd so the rooters will be given a taste of what they may expect to happen this Saturday. And, of course, they will have the team to yell for, and not just a tame rehearsal.

Special Train With Visitors To Be Here Saturday

NEARLY five hundred people are expected to arrive here next Saturday from the University of Washington in a special train consisting of an observation car, several pullmans and a diner.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OF PORTLAND ELECTS

V. T. Motschenbacher, '14, New Presiding Head

At a meeting of the Portland branch of the Alumni association last Saturday, the officers for the following year were elected: Vernon T. Motschenbacher, '14, is the president; James Sheehy, vice-president, and Mrs. Hilda Brant Carruth, secretary-treasurer.

Sheehy, '19, is a member of Phi Gamma Delta, Sigma Delta Chi, and was student body president, sophomore president, and captain of the baseball and soccer teams.

Mrs. Carruth, '13, was active in music and gramatics on the campus. She is a member of Mu Phi Epsilon.

At the meeting, fifty Portland alumni of the University of Michigan enthusiastic by the presence of Joe Maddock on the Oregon campus, announced that they were coming for Homecoming and would pledge their allegiance to the University.

Dean John Bovard spoke to the alumni of the relationship between athletics and the University. Both he and Dean Sheldon, who also spoke at the meeting, urged that all alumni come back to the campus for Homecoming.

DELTA OMEGA WINS NATIONAL

Alpha Gamma Delta Grants Charter to Local Group Organized May, 1923

SCHOLARSHIP IS HIGH

Thanksgiving Week Will Be Probable Date of Installation of Chapter

Delta Omega, women's local fraternity, Sunday morning received telegraphic word of its having been granted a charter of Alpha Gamma Delta, national Greek letter organization with 32 chapters in the United States and one in Toronto, Canada.

Installation will probably take place during Thanksgiving week, with Delia Martin, chairman of the Alpha Gamma Delta extension committee, as installing officer.

Charter Members Given Delta Omega was organized just previous to Junior week-end, a year ago last spring, May, 1923, and the announcement of its formation was made in the Emerald during Junior week-end.

The group did not become a living organization, however, until the opening of the fall term last year, when they moved into the house at Fourteenth and Alder, formerly occupied by Pi Beta Phi.

House Wins Honors During its first year on the campus Delta Omega was the recipient of many campus honors, among them the Junior week-end canoe fete cup, awarded for the most attractive entry in the fete, and the scholarship cup offered to the campus organization making the highest scholastic record for the entire year.

Alpha Gamma Delta was founded at Syracuse university, Syracuse, New York, May 30, 1904. It was admitted to the National Pan-Hellenic congress in 1909. Louise Leonard, national president of the fraternity at the present time, is also secretary of the National Pan-Hellenic organization.

Six Chapters in West There are five provinces of the fraternity, the Western province, Delta, comprising the states of California, Oregon, Washington, Montana, Idaho, Utah, Nevada, and Wyoming.

With the addition of the new national, the number of women's national fraternities on the campus will total 14. This, with the 11 men's national organizations, will bring the number of campus Greek letter organizations of national standing up to 25.

Members are Named Active members and pledges of Delta Omega at the present time are: Dorothy Akin, St. Helens; Myrl Allman, Portland; Katherine Ashmead, Fullerton, California; Hazel Borders, Portland; Mary Crombie, Portland; Olivia DeGuire, Silverton; Gladys DuBois, Portland; Dorothy Dixon, Portland; Madeline Gerlinger, Dallas; Arlene Hay, Central Point; Elizabeth Hayter, Dallas; Louise Inabnit, Bend; Margaret Inabnit, Bend; Marian Jenkins, (Continued on Page Three)

Store Windows Will Be Dressed For Homecoming

COOPERATION with the University students in making this a big Homecoming has been promised by the mayor of Eugene and the Eugene chamber of commerce.

A special "clean-up" day is planned before the end of this week in order that the city may look its best.

The downtown section is going to have some special decorations in the way of flags and street lighting. Extra window displays will also be featured for Homecoming.

BONFIRE PLANS NEED FROSH AID

Postholes Must be Dug by Noon Today, According To Construction Chairman

MATERIAL IS COLLECTED

An appeal is made by Rahles Epping, chairman of the construction committee for the frosh bonfire, for every freshman who has any vacant hours before noon today, to turn out on Kincaid field to help dig post holes.

Each of the campus living organizations was appealed to for frosh yesterday afternoon but only a very few responded. If the bonfire is to be built at all, the freshmen must begin work immediately, according to Epping, although actual construction of the bonfire itself will not begin until Thursday afternoon.

Men representing the committee will be at the site of the bonfire each hour during the forenoon and all frosh are requested to report to them.

Members of the materials committee have been scouting around Eugene looking for wood during the past week and quite a quantity has been lined up. Freshmen will be excused from classes Friday and can give their undivided attention to the construction, as the bonfire must be completed before the rally Friday night.

The following men will be expected to report at Kincaid field for work during their vacant periods tomorrow. They will report to the person in charge. The names of those who fail to report will be turned over to the Order of the "O", and great will be the weeping and wailing of those who hold rendezvous on the library steps.

Committees Ready With Full Plans for Alumni Celebration

Housing Situation Being Well Taken Care of; Features Promised; Washingtonians Will Have Freedom of Campus

Homecoming is only four days away! The final plans for the big event are nearing completion and the chairmen of the various committees, and their members are working early and late to finish up every detail for the big week end.

IMMIGRATION IS TOPIC OF WOMEN'S DEBATE

Tryouts for Varsity Team Set for November 8

Tryouts for the women's varsity debate team will be held on Saturday, November 8. The question to be used for the trial is the one which is being used in doughnut debate and is on the subject which will be employed in the final inter-collegiate debate.

The plan for the carrying out of the tryouts is similar to that used for the men's trial. Each contestant may prepare a seven to eight minute speech on any phase of the subject which she may choose.

If the number of aspirants for the team equals that which appeared for the men's varsity, the tryouts will not be completed in one day. As there is a possibility of including California in the debates this year, women's forensics call for a decided interest.

DR. WETHERBEE TO LECTURE TODAY ON WORLD CRUISE

Dr. J. R. Wetherbee, who was the director of physical education here from 1894-1897 and who is now a Portland physician, will give an illustrated lecture tonight on "Around the World Cruise." This will start at 8 o'clock and will be in the chamber of commerce.

LEMON-YELLOW WINS EASILY FROM WHITMAN OUTFIT, 40-6

Playing in regular football weather before a fair-sized crowd, the Oregon varsity proceeded in a steady methodical fashion to trounce the Missionaries 40-6. The manner in which the Lemon-Yellow squad out-played the Whitman eleven, convinced the most pessimistic sport critic that Maddock has really developed a machine that may surprise some college team before the present season ends.

Wayne Sutton, freshman football coach at the University of Washington, was frankly surprised at the strength of the Oregon team. Sutton is now in Seattle and no doubt is advising Enoch Bagshaw to take the over-confidence out of the Huskies.

Not only in score but also in every angle of the game, Oregon soundly beat the Whitman aggregation. Some of the figures on the contest are rather surprising.

Get That Homecoming Ticket

welcoming, a peppy noise parade and the biggest rally ever, not to mention the Homecoming lunch, the big football game on Saturday, and then the Homecoming dance, has been thought of, so that the alumni and former students who come back to the campus for these three days, will be on the go every minute, from the time that Carl Dahl and his committee welcome them at the train, until they wearily embark again on Sunday, conceding this to be the best Homecoming ever.

The welcoming committee still needs more cars, as every train is to be met, and each house is urged to donate one, if it is possible. The alumni will be taken immediately to the Administration building where they will register and get their complimentary tickets to all the events on the program except the game.

Hal Lundberg has about 400 rooms lined up, and anyone desiring information concerning them is asked to communicate with him. This committee is also giving out identification tags to the students and alumni, who will receive them at the information desk on their arrival. These tags are being sent to Washington for all students who expect to come down here.

The noise parade will start about 7:15 from the Armory and will march directly to Kincaid field where the rally will begin about 8:30. The rally, under the direction of Freddie Martin, promises to be a most enthusiastic and ear-splitting affair, and will be lit up by the light from the mammoth Frosh bonfire. If it doesn't rain, there will be two street dances after the rally.

Luncheon is Planned

On Saturday, the first affair will be the luncheon from 11:30 until 1:30. The committee is still silent in regard to the menu but the orders for the food are in, and from the size of them no one should go hungry. The Men's Glee Club and the band will furnish music during the hours of serving. The luncheon will be held outside if the weather permits, otherwise it will be in the men's gymnasium.
