

This Week: Dopesters Outline Football Situation In East and West.

Idaho has 6 veterans out for cross country so they ought to win the distance race easily this week-end.

Pop Warner doesn't ordinarily put out any dope on football. It don't do for a man in his position gets the "ha-ha" when he dopes it wrong.

Some are wondering if O. A. C. is going to get any more snap into her huddle system than Whitman. It looks pretty sloppy beside the evenly timed, fast shifting Pacific team.

New York and the Eastern states with their world championship baseball series have nothing on the Pacific coast states this week. A little world championship series all of its own is going on in Seattle, Washington.

This is the first year that such a series has been held and it will no doubt be continued in the future years. Both teams being champions in their respective leagues, a close series is being held.

With Idaho eliminated, the coast race has narrowed down to three schools, Washington, Stanford and California. However, at present, U. S. C. is looming in the background and may prove itself later in the season to be of championship calibre.

A real indication of the strength of the Huskies, compared with that of the Cardinals will be brought out in the Oregon-Washington contest. The varsity forced the Stanford eleven to extend its full offensive power and after the coming tilt with the Huskies, Oregon will be a capable measuring stick for the comparison of the strength of the two leading grid outfits on the coast.

This week-end, California and U. S. C. will battle for the honor of remaining in the conference race. Whether the Bears are capable of claiming title honors again this year, will be clearly brought out in this game.

In the second division, O. A. C. and Idaho will fight for runner-up position in the conference race. The Vandals have a decided edge over the Aggies, as Mathew's eleven outplayed the Stanford team last week-end. But the Beavers also showed considerable promise in holding the powerful Washington team to a very meager score.—W. W.

Although the football season is only half over, only two eastern teams, Pennsylvania and Syracuse, have won all their games to date. Several other teams, including Yale, have clean slates, but they have played tie games.

Syracuse continued its victorious march by defeating Penn State, coached by Hugo Bezdek, famous Oregon pre-war coach, 10 to 6, Saturday. Penn beat Virginia, 27 to 0, but only the week before had its hands full in downing Columbia university 10 to 7.

Penn and Syracuse are considered the strongest teams in the east. By some peculiar coincidence, two of the strongest teams in the east will face two of the strongest on the coast, when Syracuse lines up against Southern California at Los Angeles, December 6, and Pennsylvania plays California at Berkeley New Year's day.

It will give the dopesters a real chance to get the relative strength of the teams in the east and coast.

For the first time in a decade has the Pacific coast received official recognition. Walter Camp, famous football writer, who picks the "official" All-American team every year, has decided to give the west the once over and will attend the

HOMECOMING SPIRIT TO BLAZE

Noise Bedlam To Announce Celebration

FRIDAY PARADE PROMISES RIOT

Fireworks Display From Skinner's Butte Starts Promptly at 7:10 Friday

NOISE TO REIGN SUPREME

Lowest of Cars Will Find Honored Place in Line Of March; Trucks Sought

Piercing flashes of lightning, bursts of flame over the tops of downtown buildings, streets jammed tight with spectators.

Confusion! Rumbles seemingly deep from the bowels of mother earth; shrieking steam whistles from boats and factories; crashes, crescendoes, cries, howls, groans, wails, roars: Bedlam!

Noise to Feature Much as it was when Tokio chimed last September: Noise! Noise! Noise!

And somewhat the way it will be in Eugene Friday night when the Homecoming parade gets under full swing.

Sharp at 7:10, Friday evening, a gorgeous display of fireworks will be ignited from the top of Skinner's butte as a signal for the parade to start.

Every Devises Used

And immediately the long line of steam rollers, trucks, and autos of every kind, size, and description will swiftly get under way. Volunteer firemen will strain every muscle to force the last ounce of steam into the boiler; "whistle purks" will take a firmer hold on the whistle ropes, and the sirens, saws and sledgehammers will be livened up.

Above all, pervading the very atmosphere, and forming a multicolored

Five Men Selected For Cross Country Conference Meet Preceding Game

Keating, Tetz, Jagger, Martin and Conley with Barnes and Nelson as alternates were selected as Oregon's five-man cross country team at the tryouts yesterday.

Last week the course was dry and hard and the men were getting sore legs. At present the course is in fine shape with the exception of the quarter mile track on Hayward field which is virtually a shallow stream.

Next Saturday will be the first time that an Oregon cross country team will be running for varsity letters. If they win the conference meet, the whole team gets letters but if they lose they will have nothing but a chance next year.

The conference meet will be held immediately preceding the Homecoming game. There is a possibility of having five teams in the meet. Washington is sending down a strong team composed of some of her veteran distance men.

The first five men finished yesterday as follows: Keating, Jagger, Tetz, Martin and Conley. Bill Hayward was pleased with the showing of the team. He thinks that it is going to be the best Oregon has had for several years.

Jagger is a new man on the team. He turned out just this fall, and has shown such progress that he finished second in the tryouts. Martin, frosh half miler of last year.

A committee of thirty freshmen women with Donna Flemming as chairman and Maxine Edmunds as general chairman will meet tonight at the Y. W. C. A. bungalow to prepare an eleven o'clock lunch for the freshmen men who are guarding the "O" and the seal and working on the bonfire.

Plans of the committee are all completed with the exception of the need of two or three cars to take the lunches to Skinner's butte and Kincaid field and up to Villard. The offer from freshmen women for men for the use of a car or two for this evening would be gratefully accepted by those in charge.

The committee is composed of two freshmen women from each living organization on the campus. They are: Susan Campbell hall, Alice Byler, Katherine Morris; Hendricks hall, Mazie Richards, Laura Anderson; Alpha Chi Omega, Helen Mumaw, Clara Lamb; Alpha Phi, Dorothy Dougall, Barbara Edmunds; Alpha Xi Delta, Frances Barton, Alice Waldron; Chi Omega, Thelma Park, Noreen Burk; Delta Delta Delta, Pauline Knowland, Harriet Widman; Delta Gamma, Helen Ahern, Adele Hegg; Delta Zeta, Doris Esterland, Aileen Mor-doff; Gamma Phi Beta, Violet Mills, Ruth Deness; Kappa Kappa Gamma, Mary Titus, Thelma Sandstrom; Kappa Alpha Theta, Elizabeth Latham, Donna Flemming; Pi Beta Phi, Maxine Edmunds; Delta Omega, Mary Crombie, Charlotte Orr; Sigma Beta Phi, Virginia Sterling, Harriet McLeod; Kappa Omicron, Edith Huntsman, Kathryn Compton; Tau Nu, Belle Fox, Sonia Willer.

DEBATE SQUAD TO HOLD ELIMINATION TRYOUTS

Eight Men to be Selected At Meeting Tonight

A second elimination in the squad of men working for a place on the varsity debate team will be held this evening at 7:00 o'clock in Villard hall. There are now 15 men on the squad but at this tryout the number will be reduced to eight.

Each man will prepare a six minute speech for the trial on one or two points, either affirmative or negative, of the question. The question is concerned with the limiting of the power of the supreme court over Congress.

The squad has been meeting three times a week for discussions of the subject in preparation for the second elimination. Those who are dropped from the squad this fall will still have a chance to make the team which will debate in the triangular meet with Washington, Stanford and Oregon in the spring, said Mr. Brown, debate coach.

The team under present consideration is the one which will meet O. A. C. in a dual debate on January 8.

EXTENSION SERVICE HELPS ALBANY WOMAN

Evidence of the wonderful service which the University extension division is rendering to the state of Oregon, through its correspondence courses, was brought to light Tuesday, when Mrs. Harry S. M. Henderson, a correspondence student in short story, came from her home in Albany to meet her instructor, Miss Parkins.

"Mrs. Henderson, although past sixty years old, has the pep and enthusiasm of any youth on the campus," said Dr. Dan Clark of the extension division. "She was a teacher in the first school in San Diego, California, years ago."

First Vespers at Homecoming Cornell Man Will Make Address

Rev. Fred J. Clark, of Waterloo, Iowa, will be the speaker at the vesper service next Sunday, at 4:30 in the Methodist church. He is visiting this part of the country and will speak in the local Congregational church the next three Sundays.

Rev. Mr. Clark is a friend of Miss Florence Magowan's family in Waterloo. When Miss Magowan was in normal school in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, he spoke to assemblies there. She says of him that he is one of the most effective speakers to students that she heard while there.

VARSITY SQUAD TRAINS FOR SATURDAY'S GAME

Regardless of a driving, soaking rain and a gusty gale, Coach Maddock is rapidly whipping his team into shape to battle the Huskies Saturday.

With the damp weather forecasting a sluggish field, the Washington team will have a considerable advantage over the varsity. The expected muddy field will be a positive help to the powerful driving attack through the line by the Huskies' backs with their decided weight advantage. On the other hand, the aerial game and the dashing end-run plays used by the Oregon team will be practically useless under such conditions.

After three years of shifting and rebuilding, with considerable drilling in fundamentals, Enoch Bagshaw has worked up at Seattle one of the best working combinations along the coast.

Every man in the line weighs at least 180 and up as high as 197 pounds. These men are valuable not only for their size, but also for their speed, and they are noted for their hard, driving offense. With Dubois and Cole holding down the wing positions, the Huskies little fear a sweeping end run attempted by the opposition. These men are well versed in the art of getting down on punts and nailing the safety in his tracks.

Kuhn and Petrie are 195-pound tackle who are hard to stop. Much of the strength of Bagshaw's defense rests in the ability of these

ED BAILEY, '13 VISITS UNIVERSITY CAMPUS

Ed Bailey, '13, dropped in on the campus for a short time on Tuesday. Ed says that he is coming back for Homecoming, and that "he wouldn't miss it for worlds." He is practicing law in Junction City now, and is representative to the state legislature.

Ed Bailey is a member of the famous class of 1913, which claims for its own so many of our present day campus celebrities. Among its members are Karl W. Onthank, secretary to the president; Carlton E. Spencer, registrar; Vesta Holt, of the zoology department; Charlie Reynolds, secretary of the medical school; Dean Walker, student advisor and director of loan funds; Vernon Vawter, regent of the University; Dr. W. K. Livingston, formerly of the health service; and Pauline Potter, donor of the Pauline Potter Homer collection of books.

LAW FRATERNITY HEAD IS VISITOR ON CAMPUS

Leonard E. Thomas, of Los Angeles, province president of Phi Delta Phi, law fraternity, was on the campus yesterday on his tour of this section. Active members of the fraternity and Judge George F. Skipworth, Dean Hale, Professors Decker, Rosson, and Warner, had a luncheon at the College Side Inn Tuesday in his honor.

Mr. Thomas, on this trip, is merely making a visit to each chapter in his district and makes no public or group addresses. He is a prominent member of the Los Angeles bar and is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Attendance Necessary to Get Identification Tag; to Be in Woman's Building

Colonel John Leader Who Arrived Today, Will be The Principal Speaker

Today, at the annual Homecoming assembly, will be the only chance that students will have to get their identification tags. These tags will be required in order to permit them to attend the luncheon on Saturday. The assembly will be held at 11 o'clock in the Woman's building.

Colonel John Leader will be the principal speaker on the program. The popular Colonel will arrive at 10:45 this morning and will be brought immediately to the assembly.

Plans to be Outlined The entire Homecoming committee and the two glee clubs will sit upon the stage. The glee clubs will sing several numbers.

Randall Jones, president of the student body, will address the assembly, and Jack High, chairman of the Homecoming committee will outline the general plan of Homecoming.

The two cups which will be presented at the Homecoming dance at the Woman's building, will be on display. One of these is for the best Homecoming sign, and the other for the best noise making machine.

Nearly all the details for the big week end are complete now, and this assembly is to be a kind of starter towards putting Homecoming over in true Oregon style. Carl Dahl and his welcoming committee can still use some cars as every train is to be met.

Preparations for the bonfire are progressing and the freshmen are to get Friday off in order to finish the stack by tomorrow afternoon.

The parade will start from the Armory at 7:15, and will reach Kincaid field about 8:30 when the rally will start. On Saturday from 11:30 until 1:30 will be the campus luncheon and afterwards the game. The last event will be the dances, the two upperclass ones at the Woman's building and the underclass one at the Armory.

Co-operation has been the aim of every member of the Homecoming committee, in order that the week end might run off as smoothly as possible.

UNIVERSITY HIGH SENIORS GUESTS OF JUNIOR CLASS

The members of the senior class of the University high school were the guests of the junior class at a dance at the Anchorage Saturday evening. About 20 couples attended. Mrs. Margaret B. Goodall and Mrs. Edna Assenhiomer were the chaperones.

Freshmen are excused from classes this afternoon and all day Friday, to work on the bonfire.

Attention of all operators of noise machines.—Be sure to cease all noise when passing in front of President Campbell's home.

Everybody—Watch columns of Emerald for change in Homecoming rally plans if it should rain.
